"He was a good man and dear friend to his Braves family. He will be truly missed."

-Braves President John Schuerholz

Anti-Bullying Rally

The Atlanta Braves became the first professional sports franchise to receive the Stuart Lewengrub Torch of Liberty Award from The Anti-Defamation League Southeast Region. This award recognized the Braves commitment to making a difference in the communities we serve and for the continued support of the ADL's "No Place for Hate"® prevention bullying campaign. Braves alumni, Brian Jordan, participated in an anti-bullying rally at Turner Field and shared his thoughts on the importance of accepting one another and finding common interest with classmates. Throughout the year the Braves and Homer will visit schools in metro Atlanta to encourage youth to speak out against bullying.

Childhood Cancer Awareness Day

On Saturday, September 10th, the Atlanta Braves will "Go Gold" for Childhood Cancer Awareness. This event honors children and their families who have courageously battled pediatric cancer. A portion of ticket sales will benefit Camp Sunshine, Rally Foundation for Childhood Cancer Research, CURE and Curing Kids Cancer.

Military Appreciation

The Atlanta Braves support our troops, veterans and their families in various ways including visits to veteran's hospitals and military bases, hosting holiday parties for military families, honoring hometown heroes, and donating tickets to Braves games. On July 28th, the Braves and SunTrust Bank. will host "Hiring our Heroes" a career workshop and job fair aimed to help service men and women transition into the workforce.

Youth Baseball

The Braves are committed to sharing with the community one of the skills we know best – baseball. Our dedication, enthusiasm and respect for the game are visible on and off of the field. Through our community outreach initiatives including the Jackie Robinson Baseball Invitational, the Jr. Braves/RBI League presented by Delta Air Lines, the Braves Youth Baseball Classic presented by Bank of America, we strive to foster the spirit of baseball among youth.

Atlanta Braves Foundation

The Atlanta Braves Foundation is the non-profit charitable arm of the Atlanta Braves and has provided support to thousands of metro Atlanta based organizations. Since its inception in 1994, the Braves Foundation has contributed more than $6 million in financial and in-kind assistance to the community. Through the generous support of the Braves players, employees, corporate partners and fans, the Atlanta Braves Foundation continuously strives to make a positive impact in our community.

Grants Program

Each year, the Atlanta Braves Foundation grants funds to youth-serving organizations that focus on health, education, and recreation. Thanks to the support of thousands of Braves fans and community partners, the Braves Foundation was successful in its fundraising efforts in 2015 and awarded $400,000 in grants to 48 local nonprofit organizations. The 2016 grants application will be available in April, visit braves.com/grants to apply.

Youth Baseball Field Refurbishment

In honor of Chipper Jones' retirement from baseball, the Braves Foundation pledged to refurbish baseball fields throughout metro Atlanta. The first three fields to receive complete makeovers were West Manor Park in Atlanta, Fullers Park in Marietta, and Powder Springs Park, in Powder Springs. The projects included renovating the infield and outfield, sanding and painting the bleachers and dugouts, moving foul poles, installing top notch pitcher's mounds, and new backstop netting. Official ribbon cutting ceremonies were held in celebration of the new and improved fields and signage acknowledging Chipper Jones and the refurbishment were permanently installed at each location.

Jerseys Off Our Backs

Braves fans can bid online for a chance to win a game worn Atlanta Braves jersey prior to the Braves vs. Marlins game on Saturday, July 2nd. An online auction will run from Wednesday, June 1st through Tuesday, June 14th allowing fans to bid on their favorite player's jersey by going to braves.com/charityauctions. Each winning bidder receives two tickets to the Braves vs. the Marlins game and will receive their game worn jersey on the field from a Braves player. All proceeds benefit the Atlanta Braves Foundation.

Atlanta Braves in the Community

The Atlanta Braves community outreach initiatives touch the lives of thousands of youth in metro Atlanta and the Southeast region through the pillars of education, recreation and health. The Braves connection and commitment to our neighbors reaches far beyond the walls of Turner Field. It extends to the hearts and homes of the many people who support our team. We are committed to working rigorously to improve the quality of life and to share our love of baseball with our community.

Heritage Weekend

Join the Braves, Delta Air Lines, Grady Hospital and Bank of America for the fourth Annual Heritage Weekend, June 24th-26th, in celebration of the city's rich diversity and baseball's role in affecting social change. The Braves and the National Center for Civil and Human Rights will host a panel discussion on the role of athletes in challenging discrimination and societal barriers. Additionally, outstanding individuals who have made a lifelong commitment to overcoming industry obstacles and inspiring future generations will receive the Hank Aaron Champion for Justice Award. The weekend also includes a youth baseball clinic with Braves alumni players, a Negro League celebration and a postgame concert.

Terence F. McGuirk

Chairman and CEO

Terence F. McGuirk is chairman and CEO of the Atlanta Braves. He also served as team president from November 2003 to October 2007. In his current capacity, he maintains executive oversight of all aspects of the Braves franchise, including all team operations, Turner Field and representation at Major League Baseball ownership meetings.

McGuirk spent 35 years at Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS), beginning in 1972 as an account executive with WTCG, which later became TBS Superstation. In 1973, he assumed the same role at TBS-owned WRET in Charlotte, N.C. McGuirk returned to Atlanta in 1975 as director of cable relations, where he was instrumental in the launch of TBS Superstation and played a key role in the launch of every Turner network through 2001.

In 1978, McGuirk was named director of special projects for TBS, Inc. and in 1979 was appointed vice president of TBS, Inc. From 1987 to 1991, he served as president of Turner Network Sales and CNN International Sales, Ltd., where he set up the company's international sales and distribution operations. He was elected to the TBS, Inc. board of directors in July 1987. Concurrently, McGuirk was president of Turner Sports where, during his tenure, he was instrumental in securing coverage of the Olympics for cable television for the first time and oversaw the resurgence of the winningest team in Major League Baseball, the Atlanta Braves.

As executive vice president, McGuirk served as the company's second in command from 1991 to 1996. When TBS, Inc. merged with Time Warner Inc. in 1996, he succeeded R.E. (Ted) Turner as chairman, president and CEO. He served as chairman and chief executive officer of the company until March 2001. From that point through December 2003, McGuirk was vice chairman of Turner Broadcasting System Inc., along with being chief executive officer of the company-owned Atlanta sports teams, including the Major League Baseball Braves, the National Basketball Association Hawks and the National Hockey League Thrashers.

McGuirk has served on the board of many cable industry-related groups and the International Olympic Committee's Radio and Television Commission. He was the 1989 recipient of the NCTA Vanguard Award for Young Leadership and was inducted into the fellowship of Cable Television Pioneers at the 1996 NCTA Convention.

A native of Bayshore, N.Y., McGuirk is a graduate of Portsmouth Abbey School and holds a bachelor of arts degree in American history from Middlebury College. McGuirk is on the MLB Executive Council and is vice chairman of Major League Baseball Advanced Media (MLBAM). He is the former chairman of the Major League Baseball Media Committee. He sits on the board of directors of Haverty's, Inc., and is a Trustee Emeritus of both Piedmont Healthcare and The Westminster Schools. McGuirk was the 2000 recipient of the Anti-Defamation League's Stewart Lewengrub Torch of Liberty Award. In 2006, he received the Governors Award from the southeastern chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences and in 2010 he entered the Cable Television Hall of Fame.

Terry and his wife, Nancy, live in Atlanta and have four children.

Atlanta Braves Ownership

Liberty Media Corporation officially acquired the Atlanta Braves on May 16, 2007, when Baseball Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig announced that Major League Baseball ownership had approved Turner Broadcasting and Time Warner's sale of the team.

Based in Englewood, Colorado, Liberty Media owns interests in a broad range of electronic retailing, media, communications, sports and entertainment businesses. Liberty's Chairman is John Malone. The following Liberty executives serve on the ANLBC Board: Rich Baer, Mark D. Carleton, Gregory B. Maffei, Albert E. Rosenthaler, Christopher W. Shean and Craig Troyer.

Bill Bartholomay

Chairman Emeritus

Bill Bartholomay, named Chairman Emeritus of the Atlanta Braves in November 2003, was previously Chairman of the Board of Directors of the team since its move to Atlanta in 1966. He has witnessed the Braves win 17 division championships (including a record-setting 14 in a row), five National League pennants and one World Series. The Braves won their first division title in 1969, repeated in 1982, won National League pennants in 1991 and 1992, another NL West crown in 1993, a World Championship in 1995, another pennant in 1996 and divisional titles in 1997 and 1998. The team won its fifth National League pennant in 1999 and division titles each year from 2000 to 2005 and in 2013.

Bartholomay has been involved with the team as a director or owner for more than 50 years. In 1962, he became Chairman of the Milwaukee Braves and led the group in moving the club to Atlanta in 1966. Prior to his association with the Braves, Bartholomay was a director and shareholder of the Chicago White Sox.

Major League Baseball has recognized Bartholomay's expertise in several areas. He is a member of Major League Baseball's Ownership Committee, Equal Opportunity Committee and the Legislative Committee. He is also a trustee of the Major League Baseball Players' Benefit Plan and is the past chairman of Major League Baseball's Finance Committee. He is a former member of the Major League Baseball Executive Council.

In January 1994, the Braves 400 Club honored Bartholomay with its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" award, which is presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area." In 2002, Bartholomay was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame.

Although best known for his sports leadership, Bartholomay wears many hats in the business world. He is vice chairman of Willis Group Holdings (NYSE). He is a director or trustee of many other civic and business organizations and educational institutions throughout the country.

In the fall of 2009, the Braves began a collaboration with the Trey Duffy Scholarship Foundation. The program makes available four college scholarships, up to $10,000 each, for Atlanta Braves employees and their families. The Trey Duffy Scholarship was established in memory of Bartholomay's grandson Raymond F. Duffy III, known as "Trey." Recipients of the scholarships exemplify some of the qualities embodied by Trey: a true passion for the Atlanta Braves, a strong commitment to make an impact in the community, solid academics and a love for the game of baseball.

John Schuerholz

President

Named president of the Atlanta Braves on October 11, 2007, John Schuerholz oversees all operations for the Braves franchise. The 2016 season marks his 51st in professional baseball and his 26th in Atlanta.

Schuerholz served 26 years as a general manager, from 1982 to 2007, including 17 as the Braves' executive vice president and general manager from 1991 to 2007. Schuerholz came to the Braves from the Kansas City Royals in October of 1990, and before his promotion to president, he had the longest tenure with the same organization among all Major League general managers.

Schuerholz has served as chairman of Major League Baseball's Pace of Game Committee, and is also chairman of the Instant Replay Expansion Committee, which oversaw the historic implementation of the use of expanded replay beginning in 2014. He also serves on the Playing Rules Committee.

Under his leadership and guidance, the Braves achieved unprecedented success, compiling the best record in baseball (1,594-1,092; .593) over those 17 seasons from 1991 to 2007. The Braves established an American professional sports record by winning 14 consecutive division titles from 1991 to 2005 (the 1994 season was not played to completion).

The Braves have won five National League pennants, one World Series, several organization of the year awards and have surpassed the 3,000,000 mark in home attendance six times since 1991. By finishing 101-61 in 2003, the Braves reached the century mark in victories for the fifth time in seven seasons and for the sixth time since 1993.

During his career with Baltimore, Kansas City and Atlanta, Schuerholz has been associated with three World Champions (1966, 1985 and 1995), eight pennant winners and 20 division crowns. In 2004, to honor his nearly 40 years of success at the major league level, Baseball America named him the recipient of the prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award. Atlanta's overall success in 2005 also helped the Braves earn Baseball America's prestigious Organization of the Year award.

Schuerholz, who will be inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 2016, was inducted into the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in February 2015. In January 2014 he was honored with the Outstanding Achievement in Baseball Award by the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation. He was inducted into the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame in 2008 and the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum recognized John as the National League Executive of the Year with its Andrew "Rube" Foster Award in 2001, 2002 and 2005. The Braves 400 Club bestowed its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" award, presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area" to Schuerholz in February 2000. Baseball America honored the Braves as the most outstanding Major League franchise of the past two decades with its 20th Anniversary Award of Excellence in December 2001. As a result of the Braves' 1991 worst-to-first performance, Schuerholz was named the Executive of the Year by UPI, the Boston Writers Association and the Maryland Tops in Sports group, Executive of the Year by the Georgia Securities Association and Georgian of the Year by Georgia Trend Magazine.

When the Braves won the 1995 World Series, Schuerholz achieved a unique distinction - he became the first executive to be general manager of world championship teams in both the American and National leagues. In his 26 years as a general manager with Kansas City and Atlanta, his teams totaled an amazing 2,348 wins.

During Schuerholz's time with Kansas City, the Royals won one World Championship (1985), two American League pennants (1980 and 1985) and six division crowns (1976, 1977, 1978, 1980, 1984 and 1985). The Sporting News, in a poll of baseball's general managers, selected Schuerholz as the Major League Executive of the Year in 1985, when Kansas City won the World Series.

As a general manager, Schuerholz proved to be a man of action ever since joining the Braves. An average of 10 new faces appeared on the club's Opening Day roster each year, reflecting offseason transactions and the maturing of farm system products. Almost without exception during the season, Schuerholz annually acquired at least one player who contributed greatly to the Braves' successful run. John Smoltz was the only Braves player who was around for all 14 division titles from 1991 to 2005.

A native of Baltimore, Schuerholz left a job as a junior high school teacher to join the Orioles in 1966. He moved to Kansas City two years later, and as an administrative assistant, was involved in the expansion draft that created the first ever Royals roster. He was named Assistant Farm Director in 1970 and became Farm Director in 1975. He was promoted to director of player procurement and development in 1976 and vice president-player personnel in 1979. The Royals named Schuerholz executive vice president and general manager in October of 1981, when he was 41.

Born October 1, 1940, Schuerholz is a graduate of Towson (MD) University, where he played soccer and baseball. He was an all-conference choice in baseball and was named the school's Athlete of the Year in 1962. He was inducted into Towson's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1973 and served on the school's Board of Visitors. Towson's baseball facility is named John Schuerholz Park.

Schuerholz authored his first book, "Built to Win: Inside Stories and Leadership Strategies from Baseball's Winningest GM," which was released in the spring of 2006.

He and his wife Karen have two children, Gina and Jonathan, two granddaughters, Camryn and Rylee, and a grandson, Boland. Jonathan Schuerholz has been a player, instructor or executive in the Braves' system since 2002. The 2016 season marks Jonathan's second as the club's assistant director of player development, following four seasons as a field manager in the farm system.

Henry Aaron

Senior Vice President

Since his retirement from professional baseball, Henry Aaron has given back to society for nearly 40 years.

His Chasing the Dream Foundation was established in 1995 to help children between the ages of nine and 12 realize their dreams, as he realized his. The foundation provides grants to children to enable them to pursue advanced study in music, art, writing, dance and sports. The foundation has provided financial assistance to more than 755 Dream Chasers in six cities across the country, primarily through Boys and Girls Clubs. The generous support of Major League Baseball has enabled the foundation to transition into the Hank Aaron Chasing the Dream "44 Forever" program (honoring Aaron's jersey number), helping 44 youngsters annually. The program will continue the foundation's mission in perpetuity and will provide financial assistance to young people with limited opportunities so they may develop their special talents and pursue their dreams, exclusively at Boys and Girls Clubs across the country and military bases world-wide.

The Hank Aaron Chasing the Dream Four-for-Four Scholarship program, begun in 2010, has endowed four-year scholarships for the benefit of deserving students who have chosen to pursue their dreams by attending college. With particular emphasis on prior dream chasers who have now reached college age, these endowed scholarships of $100,000 each were initially established at Morehouse College, Texas College, Fisk University and, through the Dream Chaser Fund with the Greater Milwaukee Foundation, the University of Wisconsin-Madison, in honor of alumnus and then Major League Baseball Commissioner Bud Selig.

Aaron received the first Jackie Robinson Lifetime Achievement Legacy Award from the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum, honoring his "career excellence in the face of adversity" in February 2003.

At his 65th birthday celebration in Atlanta on February 5, 1999, Aaron was honored for his lifetime achievements both as a player and as a humanitarian. President Bill Clinton, then Commissioner of Baseball, Bud Selig, and Sammy Sosa were among those in attendance as Major League Baseball recognized Aaron's talents with the introduction of the Hank Aaron Award. The award is presented annually to honor the best hitters in the National and American leagues and was unveiled at the 1999 World Series.

Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back NL MVP awards in 1982-83.

Since December 1989, he has served as Senior Vice President for the Braves.

The greatest home run hitter of all time, Aaron was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January of 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the Hall of Fame Veterans Committee.

In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron rewrote baseball's record book. When he retired at the end of the 1976 season, he held more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Some of his records are truly amazing, including Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime (2,297); Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime (1,477); and Most Total Bases, Lifetime (6,856). In 2007, Barry Bonds broke Aaron's record for Most Home Runs, Lifetime (755). Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364), second in multi-hit games (1,125), third in games played (3,298) and hits (3,771), fourth in runs scored (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), 10th in doubles (624), tied for 13th in singles (2,294) and tied for 16th in years of service (23).

His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration.

On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HRs and 30 SBs in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later.

Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs). In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award.

He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thompson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut Aaron struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954.

Aaron became the second-youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second-youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax, in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit. He achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972.

During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs each year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts per season, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves.

Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 13 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit seven as a second baseman. He hit 400 solo home runs and had three pinch-hit homers. He had only one three-homer game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959.

Aaron serves on the Board of Governors for Boys and Girls Clubs of America. He also serves on the Board of Directors for Medallion Financial Corporation and DSW, Inc.

John Hart

President, Baseball Operations

The 2016 season marks John Hart's third with the Braves organization and his second as president of baseball operations.

Originally hired in November 2013 as a senior advisor to baseball operations, Hart was named Atlanta's interim general manager on September 22, 2014. He officially stepped into his current role on October 23, 2014, when he agreed to terms on a three-year contract that will run through December 31, 2017, and will carry the Braves through their first season in SunTrust Park. On October 1, 2015, Hart and team president John Schuerholz officially appointed John Coppolella as the Club's general manager.

After his appointment as president of baseball operations, Hart immediately set out to upgrade the Braves' minor league system and to improve the Major League squad. From November 2014 through January 2016, the Braves made 13 significant trades which have led to the acquisition of numerous top-rated prospects and significant international bonus pool money and amateur draft slots.

Hart joined the organization after spending the previous 12 seasons (2002-13) with the Texas Rangers, including the last eight as a senior advisor, which followed four seasons (2002-05) as the club's general manager.

Hart's 46-year tenure in professional baseball has been spent as a general manager, special assistant to the general manager, scout, baseball operations department member and field manager. He has twice been honored by The Sporting News as the Major League Executive of the Year (1994 and 1995).

Before joining the Rangers in November 2001, Hart spent 13 seasons with the Cleveland Indians, including the last 10 as executive vice president and general manager. After not advancing to postseason play since 1954, Cleveland captured six American League Central Division titles in a span of seven seasons (1995-2001), including two American League pennants (1995 and 1997) under Hart's leadership. Hart originally joined the Indians in 1989 as a special assignment scout and finished the latter part of that season as the Indians' interim Major League field manager.

Hart's first managerial position came in 1982 - his first year in a professional coaching capacity - with Bluefield, the rookie-level affiliate of the Baltimore Orioles. During his six-year minor-league managerial career, he was twice named Manager of the Year. Hart spent one season, 1988, as the Orioles Major League third base coach under Cal Ripken, Sr. and Frank Robinson before joining the Indians.

The former catcher began his career in 1969 in the Montreal organization and played three seasons. Following his professional playing career, Hart spent two years as a high school baseball coach in Orlando, Fla.

Born July 21, 1948, Hart is a native of Tampa, Fla. He played two seasons at Seminole Junior College, earning All-American honors in 1969. He graduated from University of Central Florida in 1973, with degrees in history and physical education.

John and his wife of 46 years, Sandi, have a daughter, Shannon, and two grandchildren, Ila-Hart and Brinleigh, and reside in Windermere, Fla.

John Coppolella

General Manager

John Coppolella is in his 10th season in the Braves organization and his first full season as general manager. He was promoted to his current role on October 1, 2015. Coppolella served as assistant general manager for three seasons, from October 2012 through September 2015 and had served as director of professional scouting since September 2011.

Coppolella, 37, has worked tirelessly to lead a remarkable transformation in the Braves organization, while restructuring the Major League roster. He works closely with president of baseball operations John Hart in all aspects of the club's baseball operations, while leading the way on all player acquisitions and contract negotiations. Coppolella also oversees the player development, amateur scouting and international scouting departments, as well as professional scouting and analytics.

Eyeing the future, Coppolella has spent the last two off-seasons upgrading the Braves' minor league system and improving the Major League squad. From November 2014 through January 2016, the Braves made 13 significant trades that led to the acquisition of numerous top-rated prospects. Sixteen of the club's top 20 prospects have been acquired since November 2014, including 13 by way of trades and three via the 2015 amateur draft.

The massive overhaul was noted on a national level, as the organization's farm system ranking rocketed from No. 29 overall to No. 3, according to Baseball America, the highest one-year jump in the history of the publication. ESPN ranked the Braves' system No. 1 overall and MLB.com ranked the Braves' system No. 2 overall heading into the 2016 season.

These machinations helped the Braves acquire highly-touted prospects such as Dansby Swanson, the first overall selection in the 2015 draft, as well as Matt Wisler, Mike Foltynewicz, Manny Banuelos, Arodys Vizcaino, Sean Newcomb, Aaron Blair, Tyrell Jenkins, Max Fried, Touki Toussaint, Ricardo Sanchez, Zack Bird, Chris Ellis, Mallex Smith, Dustin Peterson, and Rio Ruiz, among many others. The trades also resulted in the acquisition of significant international signing bonus pool money and amateur draft slots, such as the one used to select top prospect Austin Riley with the 41st overall pick in 2015.

Additionally, Coppolella has been a consultant to team president John Schuerholz on a number of significant industry-related issues, including the Rule 4 Draft Reform Committee and the Special Committee for On-Field Matters.

When he initially joined the Braves as director of baseball administration in October 2006, Coppolella oversaw quantitative analysis and baseball information initiatives, including the development of proprietary analytics. He also maintained prospect lists, depth charts, and financial and organizational summaries for all 30 MLB teams.

Prior to joining the Braves, Coppolella began his career in baseball with summer internships with the Lake Elsinore Storm in 1997 and 1998 and the Anaheim Angels in 1999. Hired as a baseball operations assistant by the New York Yankees in 2000, he was promoted to assistant director of pro scouting in 2003. The Yankees reached the postseason in each of his seven seasons, including World Series appearances in 2001 and 2003 and a World Series championship in 2000.

Coppolella graduated magna cum laude with a degree in business management from the University of Notre Dame, where he spent four years working in the Athletic Department and was a student manager for the football team.

A native of Laguna Hills, Calif., he and his wife Cheryl have three children, Edric, Reese and Dean, and reside in Newnan, Ga.

Bobby Cox

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Bobby Cox closed out his legendary managerial career after the 2010 campaign and is now in his sixth season in a consulting role for the Braves.

Cox was awarded baseball's highest honor in 2014, when he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, along with fellow managers Tony La Russa and Joe Torre and former players Tom Glavine, Greg Maddux and Frank Thomas.

On September 23, 2009, the Braves announced that Cox had agreed to a contract extension for the 2010 season, and Cox himself announced that he would retire from managing at the conclusion of the 2010 campaign. As part of his contract extension, Cox was given a five-year consulting agreement, from 2011 to 2015. In December 2015, that agreement was extended through the 2017 season. He advises and consults in all areas of baseball operations, including the Major League Club, spring training, minor league operations and scouting. In addition, Cox works with the office of the president on special business projects.

Cox spent 29 seasons as a Major League skipper, including 25 seasons in two stints at the helm of the Braves. His 2,504 wins rank fourth all-time and include a franchise-best 2,149 victories with the Braves and 355 with the Toronto Blue Jays. Cox posted an overall career record of 2,504-2,001-3 (.556). He won his 2,500th game on September 25, 2010, at Washington.

In his final season in 2010, the Braves went 91-71 and claimed the first National League Wild Card championship in franchise history. The 2010 campaign was Cox's 15th with 90-or-more wins, tying him for second all-time in 90-win seasons with Hall of Fame skipper Joe McCarthy (15) and putting him one behind the legendary John McGraw (16). Cox and McCarthy are the only managers in Major League history to compile six 100-win seasons.

Cox won 15 division crowns in his career, including 14 straight in Atlanta that led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1999) and one World Championship (1995). He had a string of 15 consecutive winning seasons from 1991 to 2005, tying him with Al Lopez and Earl Weaver for third place all-time behind Joe McCarthy (20) and Sparky Anderson (17) for the most consecutive winning campaigns.

Cox was voted the Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America four times (1985 with Toronto and 1991, 2004 and 2005 with Atlanta). The Sporting News, in a poll of his peers, honored Cox as the league's top skipper seven times with the Braves and eight times overall. No other manager has won the Sporting News award more than three times since the magazine started the balloting in 1936. In 1991 the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year, as he became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

He brought the city of Atlanta its first major professional sports world championship in 1995 when the Braves defeated the Cleveland Indians, four games to two, in the World Series. The victory also marked the first time a franchise had won a World Series in three different cities.

In 1993, the Braves won 104 games and became the first National League West team to win three straight division titles. The Braves' 400 Club honored Cox with its "Mr. Baseball" award that season.

The Braves' performance in 1991, when they went from worst-to-first and participated in one of the most dramatic World Series in history, earned Cox several postseason honors. Among others, the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year. Cox became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

Cox managed the Braves from 1978 to '81, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club's National League West title in 1982. He began a four-year tenure as Toronto's manager in 1982, lifting a habitual last-place team to within one game of attaining a World Series berth in 1985.

In 1982, Cox led the Blue Jays to a 78-84 mark, the best record in their six-year existence. Toronto improved to 89-73 each of the next two seasons and then won the American League East crown by finishing 99-62 in 1985. For his efforts that year, Cox was named Major League Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America, the Associated Press and The Sporting News.

Cox returned to the Braves as general manager in October 1985 and oversaw a farm system which set the foundation for great success. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz as general manager in October of that year.

Cox spent five years in the Dodgers' farm system before being selected by the Chicago Cubs in the November 1964 Minor League Draft. He was acquired by the Braves in a 1966 trade that sent outfielder Billy Cowan to the Cubs. After playing for Triple-A Richmond in 1967, he was traded to the New York Yankees and beat out Mike Ferraro, the Yankees' outstanding spring training rookie, for the third base job in 1968. Cox made the Topps Rookie All-Star team in 1968, but lost his job to roommate Bobby Murcer in '69.

Bad knees forced Cox to retire as a player at the age of 30. He was appointed manager of the Yankees' Class-A Fort Lauderdale club in 1971. He won the Eastern League pennant and championship with West Haven in 1972 and placed second twice and third twice in four years at Syracuse, winning the International League's Governor's Cup in 1976. He served as the Yankees' first base coach in 1977.

Born May 21, 1941, in Tulsa, Okla., Cox graduated from Selma (Calif.) High School in 1959 and attended Reedley Junior College. He and his wife Pam reside in Marietta, Ga. They have three daughters: Keisha, Kami and Skyla. He has five other children: Debbie, Bobby Jr., Connie, Shelly and Randy.

Mike Plant

Executive Vice President/Business Operations

Mike Plant was named the Braves' executive vice president of business operations in November of 2003. His responsibilities include overseeing all stadium operations, security, finance, personnel and special events, as well as the operations of the minor league clubs.

As part of the Braves executive leadership team, Plant was instrumental in the Braves' efforts to secure SunTrust Park and its mixed-use development, and continues to manage the planning and execution of the construction projects, which are scheduled to open in Cobb County in 2017.

Plant joined the Braves after having served as executive vice president of Turner Sports since February 2002. In that position, he was in charge of the day-to-day operations of the division, a $500-million acquisition, promotion and production company that broadcast approximately 1,200 hours of sports programming on various Turner networks.

Before becoming executive vice president of Turner Sports, Plant was president of The Goodwill Games and vice president of events for Turner Sports. He was responsible for the overall direction and management of The Goodwill Games, as well as all sports properties acquired by Turner Sports.

Prior to joining Turner Sports, Plant was president of Medalist Sports, a full-service sports marketing company he founded in 1988. Medalist Sports created and operated premier professional cycling events in the United States and China. In addition, Plant was the associate executive director of the United States Cycling Federation in Colorado Springs, Colo., from 1986 to 1988 and the executive director of the Canoe and Kayak Team from 1985 to 1986.

Plant was a member of the 1980 U.S. Olympic Speedskating team in Lake Placid, NY, and a six-time member of the U.S. World Championship speedskating teams. Since 1980, he has been appointed to numerous committees for the U.S. Olympic Committee (USOC), the U.S. International Speedskating Association and USA Cycling. In January 1989, after having served two, four-year terms as the U.S. Speedskating athlete representative on the USOC's Athlete's Advisory Council, he was elected to a four-year term as chairman. Plant served on the Atlanta Committee for the 1996 Olympic Games (ACOG) Board of Directors and the Board of Trustees for the Salt Lake City Olympic Bid Committee for the 2002 Winter Games.

Plant served two eight-year terms on the USOC's Board of Directors and Executive Committee (1984-1992 and 2003-2011) and as chairman of the Athlete Performance Group (1992-1996). Plant was president of USA Cycling, the National Governing Body for Olympic cycling, from 1995 to 2002, and is the current president of U.S. Speedskating.

Internationally, Plant is currently serving his second term on the International Cycling Federation's (UCI) Executive Committee. He first served on this committee from 1997 to 2004, and was the chairman of the Television and Marketing Commission.

In 2004, Plant was elected to a six-year term (2004-2010) on the Board of Directors of the restructured U.S. Olympic Committee. He was one of only 11 people to hold this seat, and his term was extended for an additional two years (through 2012). In 2009, Plant was elected U.S. Olympic Chef de Mission for the 2010 Vancouver Olympic Games.

He and his wife Mary have two daughters, Erika and Maddie, and a son, Drew.

Derek Schiller

Executive Vice President/Sales and Marketing

As executive vice president of sales and marketing, Derek Schiller leads the organization's baseball-related revenues such as corporate partnerships, ticket sales, broadcasting, licensing and merchandising as well as other related operations including ticket operations, client services, community relations and public relations. He also manages the overall marketing strategy and branding for the franchise.

As part of the Braves executive leadership team, Schiller was instrumental in the Braves' efforts to secure, and the planning of, SunTrust Park and the adjacent mixed-use development, which are currently under construction and scheduled to open in Cobb County in 2017.

Working closely with chairman and CEO Terry McGuirk and president John Schuerholz, Schiller has played a key role in guiding the Braves staff to further increase sales and visibility while also improving customer service.

He has been a leader in introducing many technical developments to the Braves including paperless ticketing, variable and dynamic pricing, and a Customer Relationship Management system that will help further enhance customer service and data management for both corporate partners and ticket holders. Under his guidance, the organization has expanded fan outreach with dynamic content on Braves.com, Facebook and Twitter.

Schiller, who joined the Braves in 2003, oversees all broadcasting relationships with Braves television partners FS South and SportSouth and the radio relationship with Dickey Broadcasting Company that includes the largest affiliate network in all of professional sports, with 150 radio affiliates across the Southeast.

Schiller directs all aspects of the Braves marketing outreach with fans, and all promotional and advertising campaigns, including the award winning "This is Braves Country" campaign. He currently serves in a variety of roles for a number of MLB committees.

Schiller came to the Braves after having served as vice president of sales and marketing for the Atlanta Thrashers hockey team since 1998. In that position, he led the development of the Thrashers as an expansion franchise in the National Hockey League including the management of all business operations and marketing.

Before joining the Thrashers, Schiller served as vice president of business development for the New York Yankees from 1996 to 1997. While there, he was responsible for all revenue-producing and related functions, including sponsorship sales, marketing, ticket and suite sales, publications, concessions and merchandising, fan services and licensing. He was instrumental in putting together one of the largest sponsorship deals in sports between the Yankees and Adidas.

Prior to joining the Yankees, Schiller was the executive director of Atlanta's International Sports Plaza (ISP). He developed the first-ever private press center serving non-accredited press organizations during the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games and managed the hospitality venue during the Games in partnership with several Olympic sponsors.

Schiller earned a degree in engineering from Vanderbilt University. He is an executive board member of the Atlanta Convention and Visitors Bureau, a board member of the Jack and Jill Late Stage Cancer Foundation and the Atlanta Sports Council, a Metro Atlanta Chamber Board of Directors member, and an alumnus of Leadership Atlanta and supports a number of metro Atlanta charities. Schiller and his wife Kristin and their two children, Luke and Carson, reside in Norcross.

Chip Moore

Senior Vice President/Chief Financial Officer

Chip Moore was named the Braves' Chief Financial Officer on May 7, 2009, after spending the previous 12 seasons as Senior Vice President and Controller.

Moore was instrumental in the Braves' efforts to secure SunTrust Park, which is currently under construction and is scheduled to open in Cobb County in 2017.

The 2016 season marks Moore's 39th with the Braves organization, as he has steadily moved up through the organization during his tenure. Moore began as an usher at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium before working nine seasons as a member of the Braves grounds crew. In 1985 he joined the Braves accounting department and rose to assistant controller in 1988 and controller in 1992 before becoming chief financial officer in 2009. In his present capacity, Moore oversees the Braves' accounting and finance operations.

The 54-year-old Moore graduated from Oglethorpe University in 1985 with a degree in business administration majoring in accounting. Moore serves on the Board of Directors and as treasurer for the Atlanta Braves Foundation. He serves on the Minor League Baseball Board of Trustees and is also on the Board of Directors and serves as vice president of the South Atlantic League of Professional Baseball. In 2006, Moore was inducted into the South Atlantic League Hall of Fame for his contributions to the Rome Braves and the SAL. He currently serves as a member of Major League Baseball's Non-Uniformed Personnel Pension Committee. Locally, he serves on the Board of Atlanta Area Council of Boy Scouts.

Chip and his wife Anne reside in Kennesaw, Ga., with their two children, Jordan and Will.

Greg Heller

Senior Vice President/Chief Legal Officer

The 2016 season marks Greg Heller's 16th as legal counsel to the Braves. As Senior Vice President and Chief Legal Officer, Heller manages and oversees all legal affairs for the Braves and its wholly-owned minor league affiliates which include the Gwinnett Braves, the Mississippi Braves, the Rome Braves and the Danville Braves.

Heller's responsibilities and duties include providing guidance and counsel on baseball operations matters, sales and marketing, broadcasting, stadium and business operations, intellectual property, corporate governance, legislative affairs, employment and litigation. Heller also has oversight for all legal issues related to the Braves' pending move to SunTrust Park and the Braves' new mixed-use development, "The Battery Atlanta."

Prior to serving as Senior Vice President and Chief Legal Officer of the Braves, Heller spent seven years with the TBS sports legal group which included the Braves, the Atlanta Hawks, the Atlanta Thrashers, Philips Arena, the Goodwill Games, the Turner Sports television group (and its NBA, NASCAR, PGA, British Open and MLB properties), and the Turner Sports new media group (and its NASCAR, PGA and PGA TOUR and ACC Select properties).

Heller began his career in sports law as an undergraduate at Indiana University where he graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Science degree in Sports Marketing/Management. While at Indiana, Heller completed internships with the Peoria Chiefs, a minor league affiliate of the Chicago Cubs, and with the Indiana University athletic department. Upon graduating from IU, Heller entered law school at Marquette University. While at Marquette, Heller was an active participant in the sports law program, including serving as a member and Student Articles Editor of the Marquette Sports Law Journal, serving as a member of the Sports Law Society, authoring a law review article on the NCAA enforcement process and completing internships with the National Sports Law Institute, Harley Davidson, the Milwaukee Brewers and Reece & Lang PC, the legal division of an Atlanta-based sports management firm. In 2004, Heller was named by Marquette University as it Sports Law Alumnus Of The Year.

Upon graduating from Marquette, Heller became an Associate Attorney with the Atlanta firm of Powell Goldstein Frazer & Murphy where he concentrated his practice on general corporate, mergers and acquisitions, securities and sports and entertainment law matters from 1996-1997. In the Fall of 1997, Heller joined the Chicago law firm of Horwood Marcus & Berk and continued his practice in general corporate, mergers and acquisitions and sports and entertainment law matters before joining TBS in the Fall of 2000. Heller currently serves on an Advisory Board at Marquette University Law School's National Sports Law Institute and is also active at Indiana University.

Heller and his wife Krista have four children, Madelyn, Charlie, John and Elizabeth and live in Johns Creek.

Paul Adams

Vice President of Ticket Sales

The 2016 season marks Paul Adams' 28th in the Braves organization, all of which have been spent in the ticket sales department.

As vice president of ticket sales, Adams oversees all aspects of Braves ticket sales and service, including season, group, suite and premium tickets. In recent years he oversaw the rollout of the SunTrust Club and Georgia's Own Credit Union Club. In addition, he works with Major League Baseball as a member of the Commissioner's Ticketing Review Committee, which has been tasked to improve collaboration of best practices and innovation of ticket sales within the industry.

Adams began his professional career in retail with R.H. Macy's, working as an assistant buyer and as a sales manager. He joined the Braves as a marketing representative in 1989. He became a sales manager in 1990 and an assistant director of ticket sales in 1992. After serving as director of ticket sales from 1994 to 2002, and as senior director of ticket sales from 2003 to 2012, Adams was promoted to his present position in October 2012.

A native of Sparta, NJ, Adams graduated from Emory University with a B.B.A. degree in marketing. He also received a M.S. degree in management from Georgia State University. He is an active volunteer at the Atlanta Community Food Bank in the Product Rescue Center.

Adams, 57, resides in Dallas, Ga., with his wife Michal Ann and their daughters Janelle and Rachel.

Jim Allen

Vice President of Corporate Partnerships

A 23-year-veteran of the Braves' front office, Jim Allen was named as the club's vice president of corporate partnerships in October 2012.

Allen is responsible for managing all aspects of the Braves' corporate relationships, including all advertising, in-park signage, giveaways, promotions, hospitality and corporate identity throughout Turner Field. In addition, he is responsible for overseeing all Braves radio advertising and the club's partnership with Dickey Broadcasting. Allen also manages the Braves' retail and promotional programs with corporate partners in Atlanta and throughout the Southeast.

After serving as a trainee in the ticket sales department, Allen was hired full-time in November 1993 and has worked in a variety of departments during his tenure, including community relations, ticket sales and promotions.

Allen serves on the Board of Governors for the Georgia Chamber of Commerce and is on the Sports Network Board of Children's Healthcare of Atlanta.

A native of Porterville, Calif., Allen graduated from Porterville High School and earned a bachelor's degree in marketing and management from California State University, Fresno. He has completed one ironman and six marathons and enjoys golfing, running and outdoor activities.

Allen, 48, resides in Marietta, Ga., with his wife Molly and his daughters Savannah, Emily Ann and Ella Jia Li.

Larry Bowman

Vice President of Stadium Operations and Security

The 2016 season marks the 24th for Larry Bowman as a member of the Atlanta Braves organization. As vice president of stadium operations and security, Bowman is responsible for overseeing game, ballpark expense and parking budgets, supervision of full-time and part-time employees, initiation and finalization of major game operations-related contracts, site and player security, game operations, logistics and life safety and support services, parking, crisis communication and management, direction and implementation of MLB and Braves policies and procedures, liaison to key governmental partners and operations and security based research.

In addition to his role with the Braves, Bowman serves on MLB's Security and Facilities Steering Committee, the Advisory Board for the National Center for Spectator Sports Safety and Security (NCS4), is a member of the Stadium Manager's Association, ASIS International and serves as a consultant and speaker to various professional sports, industry groups and civic associations across the country.

Prior to his tenure with the Braves, Bowman established a career in arena management and municipal government. With knowledge gleaned from several MLB playoffs, All-Star and World Series Games, Bowman's venue experience also includes Super Bowls, NASCAR, ECHL and the Centennial Olympic Games. In 2014, Bowman was named MLB Sports Professional of the Year.

Born in the Bronx borough of New York City, Bowman received a bachelor's degree from North Carolina A&T State University in political science, as well as a master's degree in public policy/political science from Ohio State University.

He is a member of several community organizations, foundations and ministries, such as 7 Bridges to Recovery, St. Jude's Children's Hospital, United Negro College Fund and City of Refuge.

Bowman and his wife Claudia reside in Alpharetta, Ga.

Kim Childress

Vice President and Controller

Kim Childress joined the Atlanta Braves as a senior accountant in 1997. She spent time as assistant controller and the director of finance and accounting before being named vice president and controller in 2014.

Childress is the point person on all system conversions, particularly after the accounting and payroll functions came in-house after the 2007 sale to Liberty Media, and all subsequent upgrades. On a daily basis, she is responsible for management of the accounting team, maintenance of financial ledgers and accounting processes, preparation of daily financial statements and overseeing the payroll process. Childress also works with staff and other departments in establishing procedures for new business opportunities that periodically arise within ticketing, concessions, broadcasting, payroll and baseball operations.

Prior to joining the Braves 19 years ago, Childress spent four years as a member of the accounting department with Turner Broadcasting.

An Atlanta native, Childress graduated from Georgia State University with a bachelor's degree in marketing and accounting. She is a CPA and resides in Dacula, Ga.

Lara Juras

Vice President of Human Resources

Lara Juras is in her 11th season with the Braves, her third as the vice president of human resources.

In her role, Juras oversees all human resources duties for the Atlanta Braves and its wholly-owned minor league affiliates, which include the Gwinnett Braves, the Mississippi Braves, the Rome Braves and the Danville Braves. Juras leads her team through the everyday processes of human resources, including benefits, policies evaluation and the merit process, and also heads the organization's diversity committee, professional development and staff training. She is also responsible for employee relations, evaluations and recruiting.

In addition to her duties with the Braves, Juras has been a part of MiLB's Professional Baseball Employment Opportunities (PBEO) steering committee, and for the last three years she has been a member of the steering committee for MiLB's Women in Baseball Leadership event.

Juras joined the Braves in January 2006 as the director of human resources. Prior to the Braves, she spent time with the Detroit Tigers and Coopers and Lybrand (now Price Waterhouse Coopers).

Born in Dearborn, Mich., Juras graduated from Albion College with a bachelor's degree in economics and communication.

She and her husband Paul reside in Roswell with their children, Kiana and Joshua.

Eric Perestuk

Vice President of Facility Operations

Eric Perestuk was named vice president of facility operations in October 2012, after serving as director of engineering from 1995 to 2012.

Perestuk oversees all maintenance and construction projects at Turner Field, as well as support operations at three of the organization's minor league parks and the building of SunTrust Park, which is slated to open in Cobb County in 2017.

Perestuk began his career in 1981 in the engineering departments of several prominent hotels and office buildings in New York City, including the St. Moritze Hotel, Sheraton Center, the Algonquin Hotel and Graybar Building at Grand Central Terminal. In 1987, he accepted a position at Turner Broadcasting Systems in Atlanta and began as a shift supervisor in the Properties division, eventually rising to the positions of chief engineer, facility manager and finally director of engineering and special projects. In 1995, he was assigned the task of managing the construction of Turner Field (then The Olympic stadium), and he ultimately managed stadium operations during the 1996 Olympic Games. He remained with the Braves to manage the conversion of the Olympic Stadium to the present-day Turner Field. Perestuk helped to oversee the building of the Braves-owned minor league parks in Rome, Ga., Pearl, Miss., and Gwinnett County, Ga.

Perestuk, 54, is a native of New York City and attended Fort Hamilton High School. He earned a Chief Engineers license after completing studies at Masters Engineering Institute in Brooklyn.

He resides in Woodstock, Ga., with his wife Michelle and their three children, Christopher and (twins) Connor and Christina.

Adam Zimmerman

Vice President of Marketing

Adam Zimmerman is in his first season with the Braves after joining the organization in January 2016 as Vice President of Marketing.

Zimmerman's responsibilities include the management and strategy for all marketing and branding of the Braves. This includes leading consumer and digital marketing, community affairs and game entertainment for the team. Zimmerman also plays a pivotal role in the development of technology offerings for fans as well as the use of data analytics. Additionally, he will help with the marketing strategy for The Battery Atlanta, the Braves' new mixed-use development project adjacent to SunTrust Park.

Before joining the Braves, Zimmerman spent the previous 18 years with CSE (formerly Career Sports and Entertainment), most recently as agency president. He successfully generated new business, managed their existing portfolio and led the award-winning agency with cutting-edge programs and fan engagement through technology. While at CSE, Zimmerman also crafted a partnership with MIT, and created CSE Evolve, an in-house lab to keep up on the latest technologies. He has also taught a graduate class on sports business at the University of Georgia.

A native of Dunedin, Fla., Zimmerman is a graduate of the University of Florida. He resides in Vinings, Ga.

2016 BRAVES
MANAGER & STAFF

FREDI GONZALEZ

Full Name: Fredi Jesus Gonzalez
Height: 5-11 Weight: 200
Born: 1/28/64 in Havana, Cuba
Resides: Marietta, Georgia
Seasons as a Major League Manager: 10th
Seasons as Braves Manager: 6th
Sporting News Manager of the Year: 2008

MANAGER 33

Fredi Gonzalez is in his sixth season as the Braves' skipper and his 10th overall as a Major League manager. He owns a career record of 701-664 (.514) and a record of 425-385 (.525) in five seasons with the Braves.

Gonzalez has finished in the top five in BBWAA Manager of the Year voting four times in his career, including three of the last five seasons (he was third in 2013), and owns an impressive .539 winning percentage in his nine seasons of intradivision play in the NL East, including a .546 mark with the Braves.

The Braves established an N.L. record by using 60 different players in 2015 and second only to the 64 players used by the 2014 Texas Rangers. A total of 16 players made their Major League debut for Atlanta, including 13 pitchers (the most for any team since the 1915 Philadelphia A's, which had 21). On July 7, the club held a 42-42 record and was just four games out of first place, but injuries to several key players, including first baseman Freddie Freeman and closer Jason Grilli, combined with a series of trading deadline deals, sent the club to a 67-95 overall finish. The Braves went 28-18 (.609) in one-run games, the fourth-best mark in the majors in such contests.

The Braves tied for second place in the National League East Division in 2014, with a record of 79-83. On opening day (March 31) at Milwaukee, Gonzalez had the distinction of being the first manager to issue a challenge which led umpires to reverse a call under Major League Baseball's expanded replay system. The Braves were successful on 24 of their 36 (67%) replay challenges on the year, the second-best rate in the majors and tops in the NL. Gonzalez served as a coach for the National League at the All-Star Game in Minneapolis, under manager Mike Matheny.

Gonzalez led the Braves to a 96-66 mark and the NL East title in 2013. Atlanta jumped out to a 12-1 start that season and held a 54-41 record and a six-game division lead at the All-Star break. The Braves went 42-25 after the break and won the division title by 10 games, marking their first NL East crown since 2005. Atlanta posted a 10-game winning streak in early April and then a 14-game winning streak from July 26 to August 9 to become the first Braves squad since 1954 to post two winning streaks of 10-or-more games in the same season.

After an 89-73 finish in 2011, Gonzalez led Atlanta to a 94-68 mark and the top seed in the NL Wild Card Game in 2012.

On October 13, 2010, Gonzalez was introduced as the Club's 16th manager since the organization moved to Atlanta in 1966. He replaced the legendary Bobby Cox, who retired from managing at the conclusion of the 2010 season. Gonzalez was the Braves' third base coach under Cox for four seasons (2003 to 2006) and served as the organization's Triple-A manager at Richmond in 2002.

Gonzalez, 52, served as the manager for the Florida Marlins for three-plus seasons (2007 through June 22, 2010) and went 276-279 with the Marlins, including 34-36 in 2010. He is the all-time winningest manager in Marlins franchise history, surpassing Jack McKeon's 241 career wins.

In 2009, Gonzalez led Florida to an 87-75 record, marking the sixth time in franchise history the club finished above .500. He was named the 2008 Sporting News National League Manager of the Year after guiding the Marlins to an 84-77 record in his second year as skipper, as he became just the third Marlins manager to lead the team to a winning record.

Gonzalez was named the Marlins' manager on October 3, 2006, replacing Joe Girardi. In Gonzalez's debut season in 2007 the Marlins went 71-91 and he served as a coach for the National League at the All-Star Game in San Francisco, under manager Tony La Russa.

Following a six-year (1982-87) playing career as a catcher in the New York Yankees' farm system, Gonzalez began his coaching career in 1990, when he took over as manager of the unaffiliated Miami Miracle (A) of the Florida State League with 20 games remaining on their schedule. He continued his post as manager of the Miracle in 1991, then moved to the Marlins organization in 1992, when he was named the first minor league manager in Marlins franchise history. He led the 1992 Erie (A) club to a 40-37 record en route to the New York-Penn League championship series.

Gonzalez managed for seven seasons in the Marlins organization, from 1992 to 1998, and served as third base coach at the Major League level from 1999 to 2001.

He was selected by Baseball America as the Eastern League Manager of the Year in 1997 and was recognized by Baseball America as the Florida State League Manager of the Year in 1994, after going 78-61 with Brevard County (A) and finishing second to Tampa in the FSL championship series.

In 1993, Gonzalez guided High Desert (A) to an 85-52 mark en route to becoming California League Champions - the first-ever championship by a Marlins' affiliate. He was named Baseball America's California League Manager of the Year in 1993 and received the Carl Barger Player Development Person of the Year award in 1993.

Gonzalez graduated from Miami's Southridge High School in 1982 and was selected by the Yankees in the 16th round of the 1982 June draft.

Gonzalez is active in fund-raising efforts for the Cindy Donald Dreams of Recovery Foundation (www.dreamsofrecovery.org), which helps to create a positive change for those individuals facing the challenges which accompany spinal cord and/or brain injuries.

He has a daughter, Gabrielle, and a son, Alex, and resides in Marietta, Ga.

PITCHING COACH 45

The 2016 season marks Roger McDowell's 11th with the Braves and his 11th as a Major League pitching coach.

McDowell led a 2015 staff that used a franchise-record 37 different pitchers during the season, including 13 who made their Major League debut (the most for any team since the 1915 Philadelphia A's, which had 21)

Under his leadership, the Braves saw their staff ERA drop in five-of-six seasons (from 2008 to 2014) and rank in the top five in Major League Baseball each year from 2009 to 2014. Over the four-seasons span of 2011-14, Atlanta's relievers posted a combined 2.88 ERA (best in the majors) and a .229 opponents batting average (third in the majors), while surrendering the fewest home runs among all bullpens in that stretch, with just 129.

McDowell guided the Braves through an injury-plagued stretch in 2014, but the club led the majors with 110 quality starts and finished fifth (third in the National League) with a 3.38 staff ERA. Starters Kris Medlen and Brandon Beachy were lost for the season when they suffered elbow injuries on back-to-back days in spring training. Atlanta signed right-handers Ervin Santana and Aaron Harang at the end of spring training and the duo posted a combined 3.75 ERA with 26 wins in 64 total starts.

In 2013, the Braves led the majors with a 3.18 staff ERA, including an MLB-best 2.46 ERA by the bullpen, and ranked second by allowing just 2.54 walks per nine innings pitched. Atlanta ranked sixth overall (fourth in the N.L.) with a .244 opponents batting average.

In 2012, closer Craig Kimbrel posted a historic season, as he converted 42-of-45 save opportunities while posting an ERA of 1.01 with 116 strikeouts and only 27 hits allowed in 62.2 innings pitched. Kimbrel's 16.7 strikeouts per nine innings ranked as the highest in Major League history for any pitcher with at least 60 IP. He posted a .126 opponents batting average, the lowest since 1900, and retired 50% (116-of-231) of his hitters via strikeout, the best ratio in the live-ball era.

McDowell guided Atlanta's staff through an especially challenging season in 2011, as the Braves played an Atlanta-era record 26 extra-inning games. The staff logged 54 extra innings on the year, equal to an additional six games on the schedule. The Braves played 84 games which were decided by just one or two runs and through it all, they maintained the fourth-best team ERA in the majors at 3.48. Atlanta's bullpen led the majors with a 3.02 ERA. The team established a franchise mark in innings pitched (1,479.2) and its 1,332 strikeouts set a team record (fifth in Major League history). Kimbrel registered an amazing season and was honored with the N.L. Rookie of the Year Award. He garnered 127 strikeouts in 77 innings pitched (79 games) and posted a 2.10 ERA while shattering the MLB rookie saves record with 46. Reliever Eric O'Flaherty appeared in 78 games and posted an ERA of 0.98 - a Major League record for a pitcher with at least 75 appearances in a season. Jonny Venters led the majors with 85 appearances and had a 1.84 ERA.

In 2010, the Braves' overall staff ERA (3.56) ranked third in the majors. Braves pitchers allowed an MLB-low 126 home runs, including just 92 allowed by the starters (tied for fifth in the majors) and just 34 allowed by the relievers (third in the majors). Tim Hudson returned from "Tommy John" surgery and paced the staff with a 17-9 record and a 2.83 ERA to earn the Comeback Player of the Year Award from Major League Baseball. Another bright spot was Venters; the rookie left-hander pitched in 79 games and posted a 1.95 ERA with 93 strikeouts in 83.0 innings pitched.

The Braves' pitching staff ERA of 3.57 ranked third in the majors in 2009, while the starters' ERA of 3.52 led the majors. Atlanta allowed an MLB-low 119 home runs, including just 86 by the starters (third in the majors) and 33 by the relievers (best in the majors). Braves starters ranked second overall with 986 innings pitched (compared to just 886 in 2008 - 27th in the majors) and recorded 784 strikeouts, the fourth-best total in the majors. Jair Jurrjens (2.60) and Javier Vazquez (2.87) finished third and sixth, respectively, among N.L. ERA leaders. Rookie Tommy Hanson made his debut in June and posted an 11-4 record and a 2.89 ERA in 21 starts. He finished third in N.L. Rookie of the Year voting and Vazquez ranked second in the N.L. with 238 strikeouts.

In 2008 the Braves ranked second in the N.L. in earned run average (3.69) at the All-Star break, but injuries took their toll in the second half of the season and Atlanta dipped to 12th in the circuit with an overall ERA of 4.46. The 2007 Braves finished third in the league in ERA (4.11), while the bullpen ERA of 3.54 ranked second in the circuit.

McDowell spent the 2004-05 seasons as the pitching coach for the Dodgers' Triple-A franchise, the Las Vegas 51s, and was the pitching coach for the Class-A South Georgia Waves in 2002-03.

McDowell was one of the game's premier relievers during a 12-year career that spanned from 1985 to 1996 with the Mets, Phillies, Dodgers, Rangers and Orioles. He was a third-round draft pick of the Mets in 1982 and pitched in 723 games in his Major League career, posting a 70-70 record with 159 saves and a 3.30 ERA. In 1986, he was a member of the Mets' World Championship team and posted a 14-9 record with 22 saves in 75 games out of the bullpen.

McDowell graduated from Cincinnati's Colerain High School in 1979 and played for Bowling Green State University. He was inducted into BGSU's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1988. He has made television appearances on Seinfeld, America's Funniest People and MTV.

McDowell and his wife Gloria reside in Marietta, Ga., with their daughters Amanda and Rachel. Roger also has a son, Logan.

TERRY PENDLETON

Height: 5-9 Weight: 200
Born: 7/16/60 in Los Angeles, California
Resides: Duluth, Georgia
Seasons on Braves Coaching Staff: 15th

FIRST BASE COACH 9

Terry Pendleton is in his 15th season on the Braves' coaching staff and his sixth as the Club's first base coach. He previously served as hitting coach for nine seasons, from 2002 to 2010. The Braves have compiled 300 doubles in a season nine times in franchise history, including each of the last eight seasons (2003-10) in which Pendleton served as the hitting coach.

In 2010, the Braves led the National League in on-base percentage (.339) and doubles (312), and ranked fifth in runs scored (738). The 2009 Braves ranked fourth in the league in team batting average (.263), fourth in hits (1,459), fifth in on-base percentage (.339) and sixth in runs (735). The team tied for third in the N.L. with 300 doubles.

In 2008, Atlanta ranked third in the N.L. in batting average (.270), third in hits (1,514), third in walks (618), third in on-base percentage (.345) and fourth in doubles (316). Chipper Jones led the majors with a .364 batting average to become the first Brave to win the N.L. batting title since Pendleton himself turned the trick in 1991.

In 2007, Atlanta boasted a high-powered offense under Pendleton's watch, ranking second in the N.L. in hits (1,562), third in runs (810) and fourth in batting average (.275). The Braves established a franchise record with 328 doubles on the year. Chipper Jones (2nd, .337) and Edgar Renteria (4th, .332) both made runs at winning the N.L. batting title.

The 2006 campaign was one of Pendleton's most successful as a coach. Despite numerous injuries, the Braves led the N.L. in home runs (222) and slugging percentage (.455) and ranked second in the circuit in runs scored (849) and batting average (.270). The home run total ranked second in franchise history, while the runs total ranked second in Atlanta history.

In 2005, Pendleton was instrumental in outfielder Andruw Jones' MVP-caliber season, as Jones adopted a new batting stance and established a Braves' franchise record with 51 home runs. Pendleton also worked closely with a string of rookies who made huge contributions throughout the season. The 2005 Braves became the first team in history to reach the postseason with six rookies who had 100 or more at-bats (the previous record was four rookies by the 1983 Los Angeles Dodgers and the 1989 Chicago Cubs).

In his second season as Braves' hitting coach in 2003, the team established franchise bests in home runs (235), hits (1,608), doubles (321) and slugging percentage (.475) and had the highest team batting average in Atlanta history (.284). Several individual players enjoyed "career" seasons as well, and much of the credit for those accomplishments went to Pendleton.

Pendleton was named to the Braves staff in November 2001, after enjoying a 15-year Major League playing career. He was selected the N.L. Most Valuable Player in 1991 and was an All-Star third baseman in 1992 while playing for the Braves.

A switch-hitter, Pendleton batted .287 with 71 home runs and 322 RBI in 593 games for Atlanta and .270 with 140 homers and 946 RBI in 1,893 games overall with the St. Louis Cardinals, Braves, Florida Marlins, Cincinnati Reds and Kansas City Royals. He was a three-time recipient of the Rawlings Gold Glove Award (in 1987 and 1989 with St. Louis and in 1992 with Atlanta).

Signed as a free agent in December of 1990 by general manager John Schuerholz, Pendleton played for the Braves from 1991 through 1994 and in part of 1996. He was a key factor in the Braves' turn-around from being the worst team in the Major Leagues in 1990 to a pennant-winning club the next year.

In 1991 he batted an NL-best .319 with 22 home runs and 86 RBI. He tied for the league lead with 303 total bases, helping him earn the N.L. MVP Award, as well as Comeback Player of the Year honors.

He was voted an All-Star starter in 1992, hitting .296 with 13 home runs and 51 RBI before the break and finishing the year with a .311 average, 21 homers and a career-high 105 RBI to lead the Braves to another pennant. He led the N.L. with a .387 average with runners in scoring position and had a career-best 199 hits, a franchise record for third basemen.

Pendleton signed with the Marlins as a free agent in April 1995. Florida traded him back to Atlanta in exchange for outfielder Roosevelt Brown in August 1996. Pendleton was signed as a free agent by the Reds in January 1997 and the Royals in January 1998. He retired as a player the following December.

Pendleton played collegiate baseball at Oxnard (Calif.) Community College and Fresno State University. He was selected by the Cardinals in the seventh round of the 1982 June draft after an All-America campaign at Fresno State. He was inducted into the California Community College Athletic Association Hall of Fame in March 2016.

Terry and his wife Catherine reside in Duluth, Ga., with their three children, Stephanie, Terry and Trinity.

EDDIE PEREZ

Height: 6-1 Weight: 220
Born: 5/4/68 in Ciudad Ojeda, Venezuela
Resides: Duluth, Georgia
Seasons on Braves Coaching Staff: 10th

BULLPEN COACH 12

After concluding a 20-year playing career in 2006, Eddie Perez opened a new chapter in his baseball life in 2007. He is now in his 10th season as the Braves' bullpen coach after playing 11 seasons at the Major League level, including nine with the Braves.

Perez played 18 of his 20 professional seasons in the Braves organization. The former catcher began his career with Bradenton in 1987 and reached the majors in 1995, the year Atlanta won the World Series. Perez was on seven postseason squads for Atlanta (1995-99, 2001, 2004) and played in 30 postseason games. His .464 (13-for-28) batting average in National League Championship Series competition is the highest ever for a catcher (minimum 25 at-bats). Perez batted .500 (10-for-20) in the 1999 NLCS vs. the New York Mets and claimed series MVP honors.

Perez spent the 2002 season with the Cleveland Indians and played with the Milwaukee Brewers in 2003 before re-joining the Braves in 2004. Right shoulder tendinitis plagued Perez throughout the 2005 season, and he spent the entire 2006 campaign at Double-A Mississippi. He was limited to just 13 games in 2006, but spent much of his time assisting M-Braves Manager Jeff Blauser.

Perez attended Doctor Raul Cuenca High School in Ciudad Ojeda, Venezuela, where he played volleyball and baseball. He and his wife, Marisol, have one daughter, Maried, and one son, Andres Eduardo, and reside in Duluth, Ga.

BO PORTER

Height: 6-2 Weight: 218
Born: 7/5/72 in Newark, New Jersey
Resides: Houston, Texas
Seasons on Braves Coaching Staff: 2nd

THIRD BASE/OUTFIELD & BASERUNNING COACH 16

The 2016 season marks Bo Porter's second on the Braves' coaching staff. He previously managed the Houston Astros in 2013-14 and has 22 years of experience as a player, coach and manager in the major and minor leagues. He served three seasons (2007-09) as third-base coach and outfield/baserunning instructor under Fredi Gonzalez with the Florida Marlins.

Prior to taking over as Astros manager, Porter spent two seasons (2011-12) as third-base coach for the Washington Nationals. He spent the 2010 season as third-base coach and also as bench coach for the Arizona Diamondbacks. He was named the 17th manager in Astros history on September 27, 2012.

Porter, 43, made his coaching debut in 2005, when he served as hitting coach for Class-A Greensboro of the South Atlantic League. His first stint as a manager was in 2006, when he skippered the Marlins' Jamestown club of the New York-Penn League to a 33-39 record.

During his professional playing career, Porter played in parts of three Major League seasons as an outfielder for the Chicago Cubs (1999), Oakland A's (2000) and Texas Rangers (2001). He appeared in a total of 89 games. He played in two playoff games for Oakland during the 2000 American League Division Series, during which he went 1-for-1 at the plate and recorded a hit off the Yankees' Dwight Gooden.

He collected his first Major League hit on September 7, 1999 (single), against the Cincinnati Reds at Wrigley Field. His first home run came on September 15, 2000, at Tampa Bay, off Tony Fiore.

Porter, originally selected by the Cubs in the 1993 June draft, hit 113 home runs with 503 RBI and 236 stolen bases in 10 minor league seasons.

Porter was an outstanding athlete while at Weequahic High School in New Jersey, reaching All-State status in baseball, football and basketball. He attended the University of Iowa, where he starred in baseball and football under legendary coach Hayden Fry, earning All-Big 10 honors in both sports and MVP honors on the football team his senior year in 1994. Porter earned his bachelor's degree in communications studies.

A native of Newark, NJ, Porter and his wife Stacey reside in Houston, Texas, with their son, Bryce. Porter was honored on December 13, 2012, which was proclaimed "Essex County Bo Porter Day," during which he was presented with the Key to Essex County, the County's highest honor.

He regularly participates in motivational speaking engagements and corporate leadership training seminars. In July of 2012, Bo and Stacey established the Bo Porter SELF Foundation (Sports, Education, Life Skills, Faith) in Houston, which provides and supports programs that are dedicated to improving and impacting the lives of others through sports, education, life skills and faith. Porter authored a daily devotional book, "Real Life Empowered," which was released in December 2015.

KEVIN SEITZER

Height: 5-11 Weight: 220
Born: 3/26/62 in Springfield, Illinois
Resides: Leawood, Kansas
Seasons on Braves Coaching Staff: 2nd

HITTING COACH 20

The 2016 season marks Kevin Seitzer's second on the Braves' coaching staff. He previously served as the hitting coach for the Toronto Blue Jays in 2014.

Seitzer, 54, served as the hitting coach for the Kansas City Royals for four seasons (2009-12) and the Arizona Diamondbacks for one season (2007).

Under Seitzer's guidance, the Braves' team batting average improved 10 points from 2014 to 2015 (.241 to .251). Despite the off-season departures of such sluggers as Justin Upton, Evan Gattis and Jason Heyward, Atlanta's 2015 run total (573) was equal to 2014. The 2015 Braves led the National League with a rate of per 5.45 plate appearances per strikeout, compared to 4.43 PA/K in 2014 (13th in NL).

The 2014 Blue Jays ranked fourth in the American League in runs scored and ranked third in home runs. While with Kansas City, Seitzer helped the 2010 Royals post a .274 team batting average, which ranked second in the majors, while posting the fewest strikeouts, with 905 (the Major League average that year was 1,144). The 2011 Royals ranked fourth in the majors with a .275 team batting average and the 2012 club finished seventh at .265.

Seitzer enjoyed a 12-year Major League career as a third baseman and first baseman with the Royals (1986-91), Milwaukee Brewers (1992, '93-96), Oakland Athletics (1993) and Cleveland Indians (1996-97). He compiled a lifetime batting average of .295, with 285 doubles, 35 triples, 75 home runs and 613 RBI. Seitzer hit .300-or-better in seven different seasons.

A two-time American League All-Star (1987 and 1995), he finished second in the 1987 A.L. Rookie of the Year balloting to Mark McGwire. Seitzer holds Royals rookie records for hits (207) and walks (80) and his hit total led the league that season as well.

Seitzer made his Major League debut with the Royals on September 3, 1986, against the Chicago White Sox. He had six hits in a game on August 2, 1987 vs. Boston. He appeared in the postseason twice with Cleveland, in 1996 and '97, including a World Series trip with the Tribe in 1997.

A native of Springfield, Ill., he attended Eastern Illinois University and was selected by the Royals in the 11th round of the 1983 draft. At Eastern Illinois, Seitzer notched a career .418 batting average. He hit over .400 in each of his three seasons at EIU, playing one season at NCAA Division II and two seasons at NCAA Division I. As a freshman, he helped the Panthers finish as the NCAA Division II National Runner-Up, being named to the All-Tournament team. He ended his EIU playing days as the career leader in hits, doubles and batting average. Seitzer's EIU uniform No. 2 was retired by the school on October 13, 2012, and he was also honored as a Distinguished Alumnus. He earned his degree from EIU in 1985.

Kevin and his wife Beth reside in Leawood, Kan. They have four children, with two who have played professionally. Nick (Graffeo) played in the Royals system and Cam is currently in the Rays system. Along with former teammate Mike Macfarlane, Seitzer owns and operates Mac-N-Seitz baseball and softball training facility in Kansas City.

BENCH COACH 32

Carlos Tosca is in his sixth season on the Braves' coaching staff, his 18th campaign on a Major League staff, and his 43rd season as a coach. He previously served as the bench coach for manager Fredi Gonzalez with the Florida Marlins from 2007 to 2010. This is Tosca's second stint in the Braves organization, after he served as the manager at Triple-A Richmond in 2001.

Tosca was part of the Arizona Diamondbacks' original coaching staff in 1998, serving as Buck Showalter's bench coach for three seasons. Tosca re-joined the Diamondbacks as third base coach under Bob Melvin in 2005-06.

After managing one year at Richmond, Tosca joined Buck Martinez's staff as the third base coach for the Toronto Blue Jays in 2002. Martinez was dismissed by the Jays on June 3 and Tosca made his managerial debut as the ninth manager in Blue Jays history, taking over the reigns 54 games into the season. He was the fifth native Cuban to manage in Major League Baseball and the sixth in history with no professional playing experience. Tosca won his managerial debut on June 3, 2002, a 6-1 triumph over Tampa Bay. He and his coaching staff were given two-year contract extensions on September 3, 2002. His lone full year at the helm of the Jays was 2003, posting an 86-76 ledger, good for third in the American League East. He was 47-64 through 111 games in 2004 when he was dismissed, finishing his managerial experience north of the border with a record of 191-191.

Prior to 1998, Tosca managed in the minor leagues for 17 seasons, amassing an overall record of 932-827 (.530). His clubs had 12 winning seasons during his 17-year minor league managerial career. After leaving the Diamondbacks following the 2000 season, Tosca was named manager of Richmond in the Braves organization, posting a 68-76 ledger. Prior to his first stint with Arizona he was at the helm of Triple-A Charlotte in 1997, putting the Knights in the International League's Governors Cup Playoffs for the first time since 1994. His 1996 Portland Double-A club went 83-58, earning him Eastern League Manager of the Year honors, while also being tabbed by Baseball America as their choice for overall Minor League Manager of the Year. It was the second consecutive division title for the Sea Dogs and the sixth overall first place finish that Tosca had guided during his managerial career. He was named the Carl Barger Player Development Person of the Year in 1995. His first managerial duty was with Gulf Coast League Bradenton (R) in 1980.

After earning a degree in physical education from the University of South Florida, Tosca began his coaching career as pitching coach at King High School in 1976. His first professional stint was with Oneonta in 1978.

Tosca has three children: Jessica, Lauren and Matthew. He and his wife Theresa reside in Roswell, Ga.

ASSISTANT HITTING COACH 59

Jose Castro joined the Braves in October 2014 and is in his second season with the Club. He assists hitting coach Kevin Seitzer in every aspect of the Braves' hitting program.

Castro, 57, spent the 2014 season as the quality assurance coach for the Chicago Cubs and has more than 26 years' experience as a minor-league hitting coordinator or hitting coach in the Montreal, Florida, San Diego and Seattle organizations. He was Seattle's interim Major League hitting coach in 2008.

A former infielder, Castro was selected by Philadelphia in the 27th round of the 1977 June draft. He posted a .275 batting average during his 14-year minor league career, which saw him ascend as high as Triple-A in stints with the Phillies, Chicago White Sox, Toronto Blue Jays, Kansas City Royals and Montreal Expos. Overall, he collected 239 doubles, 37 triples, 102 home runs and 633 RBI in 1,416 career minor league games from 1977 to 1990. He batted .316 with 67 RBI and a career-high 32 doubles in 1984 with Triple-A Denver, and he appeared in a career-high 134 games with Triple-A Buffalo in 1985. He batted .310 with 59 RBI in 117 games with Double-A Reading in 1980.

Castro retired as a player and began his coaching career in 1990 with Montreal, handling hitting coach duties at Single-A Jamestown. From 1992 to 2001, he was a minor league hitting coach in the Florida Marlins system, before returning to Montreal in 2002 and 2003.

He worked as a minor league hitting coach in the San Diego Padres system for five seasons, from 2003 to 2007, including three seasons (2005-07) at Triple-A Portland.

Castro began the 2008 season as the Mariners' minor league hitting coordinator before he was promoted to Major League hitting coach on June 19, following manager John McLaren's firing that led to a shuffling of the Major League staff. Castro returned to his minor league hitting coordinator duties for the 2009 and 2010 seasons.

He graduated from Jackson Senior High School in Miami, Fla., in 1977. He and his wife Lisa have two children, Rachel and Matthew, and reside in Miami.

Born: 2/20/64 in Atlanta, Georgia
Resides: Newnan, Georgia

BULLPEN CATCHER 65

Alan Butts joined the Braves in 1992. He is in uniform for all pre-game workouts and during the game he assists bullpen coach Eddie Perez and the pitchers in the bullpen.

A native of Atlanta, Butts attended North Clayton High School and Valdosta State University, where he received a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in public relations-speech communications. At Valdosta State, Butts played under legendary coach Tommy Thomas, the winningest baseball coach in Division II history.

A highlight of Butts' career came in 2000, when he served on Bobby Cox's All-Star Game coaching staff and pitched in the Home Run Derby competition.

He and his wife Tammy reside in Newnan, Ga., with their children Colby, Ansley and Avery. The 52-year-old Butts enjoys golfing in his spare time. His nephew, right-handed pitcher Brett Cammons, was drafted by Atlanta in 2007 out of Auburn University.

2016 Medical Staff

In January 2006, the Braves named Dr. Joe Chandler as Director of Medical Services Emeritus.

Chandler, who became the club's Orthopedic Surgeon in 1987 and oversaw the Braves' medical program as Director of Medical Services since 2001, continues to serve in an advisory role.

Dr. Norman Elliott assumed the role of Head Team Physician, while Dr. Xavier Duralde was named Lead Team Orthopedist.

Andrew Hauser • Director of Player Health and Performance

Andrew Hauser is in his first season with the Braves after joining the organization in October 2015. In his newly-created role, Hauser oversees the Braves' entire sports medicine and performance operation, providing leadership and direction to integrate the club's training, medical, rehabilitation and strength and conditioning departments into one cohesive unit.

Hauser, 31, came to Atlanta from the Arizona Diamondbacks, where he spent four seasons (2012-15) in multiple disciplines. From 2013 to 2015, he served as the Diamondbacks' Medical Coordinator. He was the club's Manual Performance Coordinator in 2012.

Hauser spent three seasons (2009-11) as a trainer in the Tampa Bay Rays system, including Rookie-Advanced Princeton in 2009, Short-Season A Hudson Valley in 2010 and Double-A Montgomery in 2011. He interned with the Diamondbacks during the 2007 season and spent the 2008 campaign as the Strength and Conditioning Coach and Assistant Athletic Trainer for Single-A Clearwater (Philadelphia Phillies) while completing his final semester of college.

Born in Overland Park, Kan., Hauser grew up in Stilwell, Kan., and attended Blue Valley West High School. He graduated in 2008 from the University of Kansas with a bachelor's degree in athletic training.

An avid outdoorsman, Hauser and his wife Valerie reside in Mableton, Ga.

Jeff Porter • Head Athletic Trainer

The 2016 season marks Jeff Porter's 14th as the Braves' Head Athletic Trainer and his 32nd in the Braves organization. Porter joined the Braves in 1985 as the Assistant Athletic Trainer and assumed the Head Trainer duties in 2003, when Dave Pursley retired.

A native of Wilmington, NC, Porter graduated from Burgaw High School. He received a bachelor's degree from the University of North Carolina-Wilmington in 1977 and earned his master's degree from the University of Denver in 1979.

Following college, the 60-year-old Porter worked his way through the minor leagues. From 1979 to 1984, he had stints with the Denver Bears, Jamestown Expos, Memphis Chicks and Indianapolis Indians.

Porter was honored as the National League athletic trainer for the 1996 Major League Baseball All-Star Game in Philadelphia and for the 2008 All-Star Game at New York's Yankee Stadium. In 2006 he was the athletic trainer for MLB's Japan All-Star Tour.

In 2012, Porter and Braves Assistant Athletic Trainer Jim Lovell were honored by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS) as the Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year. Porter is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the American College of Sports Medicine and is a board member for PBATS.

An avid hunter and fisherman, Porter resides in Loganville, Ga. His son David is a senior at Auburn University.

Jim Lovell • Assistant Athletic Trainer

Following 18 seasons in the Braves minor league system, Jim Lovell joined the Major League club on a full-time basis in 2003. He served as the Head Minor League Athletic Trainer, coordinating the minor league medical staff, and covered the Triple-A Richmond club from 1991 to 2002. He served as athletic trainer for the Triple-A All-Star game in 1991.

Lovell joined the Braves organization in 1985 and spent six years at Double-A Greenville, earning Southern League Trainer of the Year honors three times. He served as the trainer for the Southern League All-Star game three times.

Until 1992, Lovell also spent his off seasons as a part of the football program at Auburn University. He served as the interim assistant trainer for the Major League club during the 1992 and 2000 seasons. Lovell joined the Major League club in September 2002 and was named the full-time assistant trainer the following year. He was honored as National League athletic trainer for the 2012 Major League Baseball All-Star Game in Kansas City.

In 2012, Lovell and Braves head athletic trainer Jeff Porter were honored by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS) as the Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year.

Lovell holds a bachelor's degree in community health and a master's degree in exercise physiology. He is a licensed Emergency Medical Technician, and certified as an athletic trainer by the National Athletic Trainer's Association. An avid follower of Auburn football, Lovell is single and resides in Newnan, Ga. He enjoys golf, reading and listening to country-western music.

Bradford Scott • Performance Therapist

Hired by the Braves in February 2016, Bradford Scott is in his first season as the Braves' Performance Therapist.

He came to Atlanta from the University of Portland, where he had served as the Director of Athletic Performance since September 2007.

Before his time at Portland, Scott spent a year at the University of Southern California as the head strength, speed and conditioning coach for the men's and women's basketball and men's and women's volleyball programs. He worked directly with the Trojans' 2007 NCAA Sweet 16 basketball team that had two players chosen in the 2007 NBA draft.

Prior to his stay at USC, Scott was the director of strength, speed and conditioning at Cal State Northridge and managed the program for all 16 sports. He interned for two years with the Anaheim Ducks of the National Hockey League from 2004-06.

Scott also served as a graduate assistant at the University of Arizona from 2001-04 while obtaining his Master of Education degree. He is a 2001 graduate of the University of Massachusetts, Boston with a Bachelor of Science degree in exercise physiology. He is a member of the National Strength & Conditioning Association, as well as the American Massage Therapy Association.

A native of Westwood, Mass., Scott attended Xaverian Brothers High School, where he participated in varsity football, wrestling and lacrosse.

Scott is single and enjoys hiking, snowboarding and riding motorcycles.

Phil Falco ♦ Strength and Conditioning Coach

Phil Falco is in his ninth season as the Braves' Major League strength and conditioning coach after joining the Club in June 2008. He previously served as the organization's roving minor league strength and conditioning instructor in 1998-99 and from 2003 to 2008. He served as the Milwaukee Brewers' Major League strength and conditioning coach from 2000 to 2002.

A native of Denville, New Jersey, Falco graduated from Morris Knolles High School and attended George Mason University, where he was a pitcher from 1992 to 1994. He transferred to Appalachian State University and played two seasons (1995-96) before graduating in 1996 with a Bachelor of Science degree in exercise science.

Falco's professional career began in 1996 when he pitched for the independent-league Richmond Roosters in Richmond, Ind. In 1997, he served as the strength and conditioning intern for Tampa Bay's Class-A Charleston club.

Falco was certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association in 2005 as a strength and conditioning specialist. He was certified by the American College of Sports Medicine in 1996 as a health and fitness instructor.

Falco is single and resides in Atlanta.

Bill Acree ♦ Senior Advisor, Team Travel & Clubhouse Services

Now in his 51st season with the Braves, Bill Acree has served the organization since the Club moved to Atlanta in 1966.

In February 2015, Acree was named as Senior Advisor, Team Travel and Clubhouse Services. Until his role changed last season, Acree had been the longest-tenured traveling secretary in the National League.

Acree worked as a member of the grounds crew his first two seasons and began serving as visiting clubhouse manager in 1968. He became the equipment manager in 1973. From 1981 to 2012, he worked in the dual role of director of team travel and equipment manager.

Born in Gainesville, Fla., Acree graduated from Atlanta's Briarcliff High School and attended Dekalb College.

Acree, 67, has three children: daughter Carolyn and sons Bill Jr. and Ben. Ben serves as the Braves' equipment and clubhouse services manager.

Acree and his wife Cindy reside in Gainesville, Ga. He enjoys golfing and is an avid fisherman. Acree is an active supporter of Hemophilia of Georgia and holds an annual golf tournament to raise money for the organization.

Chris Van Zant ♦ Director of Team Travel

Chris Van Zant is in his 26th season with the Atlanta Braves and his second season as Director of Team Travel.

He joined the organization as a batboy and clubhouse assistant in September 1990 and continued in that role through the 2000 season. From 2001 to 2012 he served as assistant clubhouse manager and team travel manager, and in 2013 he was promoted to the position of assistant director of team travel and clubhouse services. He served as an umpires' room attendant from 2001 through 2014.

In February 2015, Van Zant was named to his current post, after Bill Acree had served in that role since 1981. Van Zant's primary responsibility is to manage the team's travel, including all transportation and hotel logistics. He also produces the annual team travel guide and itinerary.

A native of Swarthmore, Pa., the 42-year-old Van Zant attended St. Pius X High School in Atlanta. He graduated from Georgia Tech in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in Management.

Van Zant is a contributor to a variety of charitable foundations, including Children's Healthcare of Atlanta and the Georgia Transplant Association.

In his spare time, Van Zant enjoys movies, Tae Kwon Do and following the Philadelphia Eagles and Georgia Tech athletics. He and his wife Katie reside in Woodstock, Ga., with their three children: sons C.J. and Will, and daughter Caroline.

Ben Acree • Equipment & Clubhouse Services Manager

Equipment and Clubhouse Services Manager Ben Acree joined the Braves staff in 1997 and is in his 20th season with the Club.

A native of Atlanta, the 37-year-old Acree is responsible for ordering and maintaining all the Braves' equipment needs, including players' bats, gloves, shoes and all uniforms. Each year he spearheads the moving of the team's equipment to spring training at ESPN Wide World of Sports.

Acree is also responsible for the day-to-day operation of the Braves' clubhouse, assisting with meal planning, managing the clubhouse staff, and attending to the needs of the players and staff.

A graduate of Parkview High School, Acree and his wife Adria reside in Mableton, Ga., with their daughter, Lucy Rebecca, who was born in August 2014.

Josh Hall • Assistant Equipment & Clubhouse Services Manager

Josh Hall is in his second season as a member of the Braves' home clubhouse staff, serving as assistant equipment and clubhouse services manager. He is also the Club's main liaison for the umpire staff.

Hall, 36, worked in a part-time/seasonal capacity for nearly 17 years in the visiting clubhouse. He has worked in the home clubhouse during spring training since 2003, and every spring he assists with the moving of the team's equipment to ESPN Wide World of Sports.

A native of Lilburn, Ga., Hall graduated from Parkview High School. He studied hotel, restaurant and travel management at Gwinnett Tech.

He and his wife Amanda reside in Cumming, Ga., and are life-long fans of University of Georgia athletics, as well as Atlanta's other professional sports teams. Hall enjoys cooking and playing basketball and golf.

John Holland • Visiting Clubhouse Manager

The 2016 season marks John Holland's 48th with the Braves. His career began as a 15-year-old batboy in September 1968. Holland became an assistant in the visiting clubhouse in 1969 and was named assistant equipment manager in 1973, a title he held through the 1982 campaign.

In 1983, Holland was named visiting clubhouse manager and has held that role ever since. In 2002, he was voted by his peers as the MLB Visiting Clubhouse Manager of the Year and in 2014, he served as co-equipment manager for MLB's Japan All-Star Tour. Holland has also served as an officer of the Major League Baseball Equipment Managers Association.

A native of Atlanta, Holland graduated from Columbia High School. He graduated from the University of Georgia in 1974 with a bachelor's degree in journalism.

Holland, 63, is an ardent fan of Georgia Bulldogs athletics. He and his wife Patty reside in Suwanee, Ga. They have two sons, Andrew and Nicky, and a daughter, Lauren, who works as a special events coordinator for the Braves.

Fred Stone • Assistant Braves & Visiting Clubhouse Manager

The 2016 campaign is Fred Stone's 40th in the Braves organization and his 33rd with the Major League Club. In addition to his duties in Atlanta, Stone also serves as the clubhouse manager for the annual Braves Fantasy Camp at ESPN Wide World of Sports.

A native of Richmond, Va., Stone began his career in 1977 as a member of the grounds crew for the Triple-A Richmond Braves. He later became a clubhouse assistant and then served as clubhouse manager, as well as various other roles within the club.

Stone graduated from Chickahominy Academy in 1982 and joined Atlanta's clubhouse staff in 1984.

The 53-year-old Stone resides in Woodstock, Ga. He enjoys golfing and is an avid NASCAR and hockey fan.

Rob Smith • Manager of Baseball Video Operations

Rob Smith is in his 22nd season with the Braves and his second as manager of baseball video operations. He previously served 17 seasons as the Club's Major League video coordinator. He assists with the Braves' scouting preparations and also manages the Braves' instant replay protocol from an off-field location during all games.

Smith is responsible for overseeing the Braves' video program at every level of the organization, as well as amateur and international scouting. At the Major League level, Smith is responsible for capturing video for coaching and scouting purposes, as well as pitch charting for every game. In addition, Smith assists the coaching staff with advance scouting and game-planning by providing supplemental statistical data and video.

Smith oversees budgeting and staffing of the Braves' minor league video program, ensuring quality video and statistical information as well as distribution throughout the organization. Smith is credited with creating and maintaining a digital library of complete Braves games dating back to the 1984 season.

Smith, 44, began with the Braves in 1995 as a game day employee in corporate sponsor hospitality. In 1996, he served as a customer service representative in the ticket sales department, and in 1997-98 he was a marketing representative and also worked part time coordinating the Braves' video efforts.

Born in Concord, NH, Smith graduated from Lafayette High School in Williamsburg, Va. He is a 1994 graduate of the University of Kentucky, with a degree in sport management.

He and his wife Carmen reside in Suwanee, Ga., with their son Tyler.

Ed Mangan ◆ Field Director

Known as one of the best field directors in the game, Ed Mangan joined the Atlanta Braves following the 1990 season. He previously served five years as the head groundskeeper at Boardwalk & Baseball, the Kansas City Royals' spring training complex. When John Schuerholz became the Braves' General Manager in October 1990, Mangan was among the first people Schuerholz hired.

Mangan's expertise extends well beyond Turner Field. Each year, following the Braves season, he works with the NFL to prepare the practice facilities and main field for the Super Bowl. Mangan has worked each of the last 27 Super Bowls, including the last 16 as field director.

Following his duties with the Super Bowl, Mangan heads to Florida in February to oversee the preparations of the Braves' spring training complex at ESPN Wide World of Sports. He has been the only field director the Braves have used in their 19 years at Turner Field and 18 springs at the Wide World of Sports Complex.

A native of Leonardo, NJ, Mangan attended Mater Dei High School in Middletown, NJ, and the University of Southwestern Louisiana (Lafayette, La.). The 55-year-old Mangan is a member of the Georgia Golf Course Superintendents Association and the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association.

Mangan and his wife Janeen reside in Alpharetta, Ga., with their four boys, Jake, Micky, Colby and Ty. He enjoys archery, aviation, hunting and fishing.

Albies' 2015 Season Recap

- Entered 2016 as the Braves' No. 6 prospect as tabbed by Baseball America, as well as possessing the "Best Infield Arm" among Atlanta farmhands.
- Spent his first full professional season with Rome (A), where he garnered the club's Player of the Year honors and paced the team in runs (64), hits (122) and batting average (.310, minimum 250 at-bats).
- Earned both South Atlantic League Mid-Season and Postseason All-Star honors, and was named SAL Player of the Week for the period of 5/4-10 after batting .429 (12-for-28) with seven runs, two doubles, two triples, seven RBI and four steals in six games.
- Ranked in the top 10 among Braves farmhands in several offensive categories, including batting average (4th, .310), runs (4th, 64), hits (T5th, 122), doubles (T9th, 21), triples (T3rd, 8), OPS (8th, .771) and stolen bases (4th, 29).
- Collected hits in 34 of 35 games from 5/25-7/6, batting .397 (58-for-146) with 25 runs, 10 doubles, four triples, 15 RBI and eight steals.
- After going hitless in four of his first seven games (4/9-16) of the season, he was not held without a hit in consecutive games until a four-game spell from 7/19-23, a span of 78 contests.
- Batted .322 (37-for-115) as a right-handed batter and hit .305 (85-for-279) left-handed. Reached base at a .370 clip batting left-handed, compared to a .363 OBP right-handed.
- Turned in 37 multi-hit efforts in 98 games, including the first four-hit performance of his career on 6/3.
- Placed on the seven-day disabled list on 8/4 and missed the remainder of the season (33 games) due to a right thumb fracture.
- Named the starting shortstop for the World Team during the Sirius XM All-Star Futures game (1-for-2).
- Tabbed by Baseball America as the third-best prospect in the South Atlantic League at the season's conclusion.

Banuelos' 2015 Season Recap

- Was acquired on January 1, 2015, from the New York Yankees and went on to make his Major League debut on 7/2 in his first season with the Braves organization.
- Split the year between Atlanta and Triple-A Gwinnett, appearing in a combined 23 games (22 starts) while going 7-6 with a 2.92 ERA between the two stops.
- Major his Major League debut on 7/2 vs. WSH after having his contract purchased from GWI earlier that day. Opposed Nationals' starter Max Scherzer and tossed 5.2 scoreless innings before leaving the game due to cramping and dehydration. Left with a 1-0 lead, but received a no-decision after Washington rallied to tie the score in the seventh inning.
- Became the first native of Mexico to go at least 5.0 shutout innings in his Major League debut since Colorado's Juan Acevedo went 5.0 scoreless innings on 4/30/95 at Houston.
- Opened the 2015 campaign with the Triple-A Gwinnett Braves where he went 6-2 with a 2.23 ERA over 16 appearances, all starts, before earning a promotion to the majors on 7/2.
- Named the Gwinnett Braves Pitcher of the Year and was named to the International League All-Star team.
- Paced the IL with a 2.23 ERA (minimum 15 starts).
- In 10 of his 16 starts with Triple-A, allowed one earned run or less for a total of six earned runs in 61.0 innings (0.89 ERA) in those contests.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 7/28 (retroactive to 7/25) with left elbow inflammation. Returned from the disabled list (after a 32-game absence) on 9/1 and suffered a 7-1 loss to MIA. Worked 2.2 innings and allowed three runs on six hits and left the game trailing 3-0 in the third inning.
- Made two Major League rehabilitation assignments, going a combined 4.0 innings and not allowing an earned run. Went 2.0 innings on 8/22 with the GCL Braves and 2.0 innings on 8/27 with Gwinnett.
- Earned his first Major League win on 7/7 at MIL. Allowed one run on five hits over 5.1 innings in the 4-3 victory.
- Made his first career relief appearance on 7/10 at COL (1.0 IP, 1 BB, 1 K).
- Tossed a two-hitter to shut out Indianapolis, 2-0, on 6/22 at home. Struck out five and did not walk a batter in the first 9.0-inning complete-game of his career (had a 7.0 inning complete game in 2011).
- Went 3-0 with a 1.11 ERA (4 ER/32.1 IP) in six games, all starts, during May en route to earning the organization's co-Pitcher of the Month honors for the G-Braves.
- Entered the 2015 campaign ranked by Baseball America as the Braves' 13th-best prospect.

Beckham's Career Recap

- Joined the Braves in December 2015 after spending his first seven professional campaigns with the Chicago White Sox. Also had a short stint (26 games) in 2014 with the Los Angeles Angels.
- Has played the majority of his games at second base where he boasts his best career fielding percentage, .984 (49 E/3113 TC). Overall, owns a career .981 fielding percentage.
- Played three seasons (2006-08) at the University of Georgia and started all 197 games in his three-year Bulldog career. Led the NCAA in home runs with a school-record 28 during his junior season, and hit a school-record 53 in his career. His last collegiate at-bat was a home run in the College World Series Finals in Omaha, Neb.

Beckham's 2015 Season Recap

- Appeared in 100 games in his seventh season with the Chicago White Sox. The 100 appearances marked his single-season career low in games played.
- Made 50 starts, including 39 at third base, seven at second and four at shortstop, and posted a .979 fielding percentage (4 E/193 TC).
- Played in 63 games spanning the first three months of the season, April through June, but then appeared in just 37 contests, July through the end of the season.
- As a pinch-hitter, went 3-for-15 (.200) with one RBI over 17 contests.
- Recorded a game-tying RBI-single in the ninth inning on 4/20 vs. CLE after entering the game as a pinch-hitter in the eighth.
- Batted .333 (14-for-42) with one double, one homer and five RBI over an 11-game span (10 starts) from 5/25-6/4. That span included a five-start stretch in which he went 6-for-21 (.286), 5/25-28.
- Drove in the game-ending run with a two-out, RBI-single off CIN's Aroldis Chapman in the ninth inning on 5/10 (Mother's Day). It marked his second career game-ending hit (6/27/09 vs. Cubs).
- Connected on his first career game-ending home run - a solo shot - in the 11th inning on 6/21 (Father's Day) vs. TEX.
- Became the first player in Major League history to record game-ending hits on both Mother's Day and Father's Day in the same season (Elias).
- Homered in two of his final five games of the season, 9/21 at Detroit and 9/25 at Yankee Stadium (both solo shots).

Chacin's Career Highlights

2014: Had an injury plagued season that resulted in him making just 11 starts at the Major League level... Began 2014 on the DL (right shoulder strain) before being reinstated on 5/4...Placed on DL again on 6/30 (right shoulder inflammation) and would spend the remainder of the season on the DL...His 11 starts and 63.1 innings pitched were his lowest in any of his five full Major League seasons (since 2010)...Made his season-debut on 5/4 vs. NYM, and went 5.0 innings and allowed four runs as the Rockies lost 5-1...His first quality start of the season came in his next time out on 5/9 at CIN as he allowed two runs on four hits over 6.0 innings (ND)...Did not allow more than four runs in each of his first seven starts but the Rockies scored 10 combined runs of support in those starts (2.33 RSA)...His first and only win of 2014 came on 6/12 vs. ATL as the Rockies won 10-3 and he went 7.0 innings of shutout, two-hit baseball...Took the loss in his next three starts before being placed on the disabled list on 6/30...He was later transferred to the 60-day DL on 7/4 through the end of the season...On 6/12 vs. ATL, he became the seventh pitcher in franchise history to hit the 500 strikeout mark in a Rockies uniform, joining Ubaldo Jimenez, Pedro Astacio, Jeff Francis, Jorge De La Rosa, Jason Jennings and Aaron Cook...He was the 141st active pitcher to join the 500 strikeout society...With his start on 5/9 at CIN, he made his 100th career start, all with the Rockies...He became the ninth Rockie to have ever started at least 100 games and 95th active pitcher with at least 100 starts.

2013: Set career highs in wins (14) and innings pitched (197.1) while starting a career-high-tying 31 games for the Rockies...Compiled a 14-10 record with a 3.47 ERA (76ER/197.1 IP) and 19 quality starts...Placed on the disabled list on 4/20 with a left lower back strain and was reinstated on 5/5...His 31 starts were tied with teammate Juan Nicasio for most starts while his 126 strikeouts led the team...Became the third-youngest Rockie pitcher to open the season as the team's Opening Day starter at the age of 25 years and 84 days old and went 6.2 innings and allowed one run on three hits with six strikeouts in the no-decision at MIL on 4/1...David Nied in 1993 (24 years, 104 days) and Jason Jennings in 2003 (24 years, 258 days) were the only other younger Opening Day starters over the franchise's 21 Opening Days...Forced opponents to ground into 30 double plays, the second-most by an NL pitcher, trailing only Adam Wainwright (32)...Twenty of those came at Coors Field, which led all pitchers for GIDPs at home...In the first "half" of the season, established a career-best five-game winning streak (6/11-7/4)...During the streak that spanned five games, he tossed 34.1 combined innings and allowed just eight runs (2.10 ERA) and 30 hits...Became the second Rockies pitcher that season to have a five-game winning streak (De La Rosa, 5/7-6/2)...Set a new record for the longest a pitcher has taken a no-hitter in a game at Coors Field on 8/28 vs. SF (previous 6.1 no-hit innings by John Thomson 5/2/02 vs. PIT)...Took a no-hitter into the seventh inning before Brandon Crawford broke up the bid with a two-out single...He also matched Jorge De La Rosa (5/12 at STL) for the longest a Rockies pitcher took a no-hitter on the season.

2012: Made 14 starts in his fourth season with Colorado...The right-hander made 82 career appearances, 67 starts, all for Colorado, before his 25th birthday...Began the season allowing 20 runs over 24.2 innings in five starts before being placed on the disabled list with right shoulder inflammation...Returned from the DL on 8/21 vs. LAD after spending 97 games on the disabled...In his final nine starts after his return from the DL, he went 3-2 with a 2.84 ERA (14 ER/44.1 IP), tossing at least 5.0 innings in six of those starts...Opponents hit .288 (80-for-278) against him in 2012, the highest mark against him in his career (.227 in 2010, .231 in 2011)... Left-handers batted .293 (43-for-147), while right-handers hit .282 (37-for-131)...On his way back from the DL, made five starts at three different levels of the Rockies system, including one start at High-A Modesto and two at both Double-A Tulsa and Triple-A Colorado Springs...Between the three stops he went 1-3 with a 5.40 ERA (15 ER/25.0 IP), seven walks and 13 strikeouts...At the season's conclusion, he was one of 18 pitchers who have thrown at least 200.0 innings at Coors Field over the stadium's 19-year history.

2011: Was the only Rockies starter to stay in the Club's rotation throughout the entire 2011 season...Led Colorado with 31 starts, 18 quality starts, 11 wins, 14 losses, 150 strikeouts and 194.0 innings pitched... Additionally, his 3.62 ERA and .231 opponent batting average were both second-lowest among Rockies starters (De La Rosa - 3.51, .222)...His 6.96 strikeouts per 9.0 innings pitched were the 10th-best mark for a single-season in Rockies history...Tossed two complete games, the first coming 4/15 vs. CHI, where he earned the win in the shutout, allowing just six hits and striking out seven...His second came in a loss on 8/11 at CIN when he allowed just two runs on six hits and a season-high nine strikeouts, but the Rockies would give him just one run of support...His 3.62 ERA in what was his first full Major League season represented the third-lowest ERA in a single full season for a Rockies starter in franchise history....Tossed his first career shutout in his third start of the season, 4/15 vs. CHI...With his start 9/9 vs. CIN, he became one of 20 pitchers in franchise history to have made at least 50 starts.

2010: Among National League rookies, finished second with 138 strikeouts, third with an opponents' batting average of .237, tied for third with nine wins and fourth with 21 starts, an ERA of 3.28 and 137.1 innings pitched...Set the Rockies rookie record for most strikeouts in a rookie season with 138 and had the lowest ERA (3.28) by a Rockies starter in his rookie season...From 8/17 through the end of the season, he went 4-2 with a 1.44 ERA (8 ER/50. 0 IP)...In his 10 losses as a starter, the Rockies gave him just 17 runs of support...Tossed his fourth 7.0-plus inning shutout on 9/18 at LAD, tying a team record for 7.0-plus inning shutouts in a rookie season...Became the first Rockies rookie to toss 7.0 shutout innings in a start since Denny Stark also did so 9/24/02 at LAD...Became the third Rockies rookie to allow just one hit over 7.0 shutout innings, as both Jennings (8/1/02 at PIT) and Stark (9/24/02 at LAD) did so.

2009: Began the season with Double-A Tulsa in the Texas League...Called up to Colorado for his MLB debut in late July...Later made four starts for Triple-A Colorado Springs in August before returning to the big leagues for the stretch run in September...Following that start, went 7-3 with 2.71 ERA (25 ER/83.0 IP) in his final 14 starts for the Drillers before being summoned to the Majors on 7/24; made MLB debut the next night on 7/25 vs. SF, tossing a scoreless inning with a walk and two strikeouts in the Rockies' 8-2 victory...Made his first MLB start 8/11 vs. PIT and took his first loss after allowing four runs on one hit and six walks in 2.2 innings...Following that start he was optioned to Colorado Springs...Made his Triple-A debut 8/18 at Oklahoma City, pitching the first 5.1 frames of a combined no-hitter for the Sky Sox...Returned to the Majors on 9/8 and made three appearances for the Rockies in the final month of the season...Held Major League hitters to a .167 (6-for-36) average...Following the Minor League season, was named to the Texas League Postseason All-Star team...Was also named the Rockies fourth-best prospect by Baseball America following the season.

Foltynewicz's 2015 Season Recap

- In his sixth professional campaign, returned to predominately work as a starting pitcher as he made 28 appearances, including 25 starts, between the Major Leagues and Triple-A Gwinnett.
- Made three separate appearances with the Major League club from early May to late August (5/1-6/17, 7/7-7/12, 7/29-end of the season) and went 4-6 with a 5.71 ERA in 18 appearances (15 starts).
- Was diagnosed with costochondritis on September 2 and sidelined for the remainder of the season. Underwent successful surgery on September 21, 2015, to remove the anterior half of his first rib. The procedure was performed by Dr. William Mayfield at Wellstar Kennestone Hospital in Marietta, Ga.
- Made his Braves debut on 5/1 at Turner Field. Beat CIN 4-3 to collect his first career victory en route to becoming the first Braves player to win his starting debut since Kenshin Kawakami beat WSH 5-3 in his Major League debut on 4/11/09. In his second career at-bat, the right-hander doubled home two runs for his first career hit and RBI. The rookie had zero career plate appearances in the minor leagues.
- Won his first two starts with the Braves on 5/1 and 5/6. The last pitcher to win consecutive starts to begin his Braves career was Ben Sheets, who won three straight in 2012.
- Allowed 17 home runs on the season, for a 1.77 HR/9.0 innings pitched ratio, which ranked second highest in the Majors among pitchers with at least 75.0 innings.
- Stopped a nine-game winless streak on 8/8 vs. MIA, earning his first victory since 5/24. Did not allow a home run in a start for the first time since that May 24th game (a span of six starts).
- Allowed a career-most and a Braves season high-tying four home runs on 8/3 vs. SF. Did not strike out a batter over 6.0 innings to become the first pitcher in Atlanta franchise history (since 1966) to allow at least four home runs and not fan a batter. Prior to Foltynewicz, only four MLB pitchers since 1966 went at least 6.0 innings with no strikeouts and four or more homers allowed (Jeremy Guthrie, 5/14/13; Cory Lidle, 8/3/04; Whitey Ford, 7/2/66).
- Struck out at least seven batters in five consecutive games, 5/6-5/29. It was the longest streak of its kind by a Braves pitcher since Brandon Beachy had a nine-game run in 2011 (fanned 36 total in 31.1 IP).
- Made three consecutive appearances out of Atlanta's bullpen (7/7 at MIL, 7/9 and 7/11 at COL) and did not earn a decision (2 ER/2.2 IP).
- Opened the 2015 season with Gwinnett and pitched at a 3.49 ERA (22 ER/56.2 IP), while going 1-6 over 10 total starts spanning three separate stints with the team. Pitched at a 2.08 ERA in his first four starts with GWN.
- Struck out 63 batters over 56.2 innings with the G-Braves and in back-to-back outings reached the nine-strikeout mark (4/20 at Norfolk and 4/26 at Durham).
- Entered the 2015 season ranked by Baseball America as the Braves' second-best prospect. Also tabbed by the publication in their "Best Tools" survey as having the "Best Fastball" in the organization.

Holmberg's 2015 Season Recap

- Completed his second season in the Reds organization by spending most of the year at Louisville (AAA) where he led the team in wins (tied, 7), ERA (4.34), innings pitched (120.1) and strikeouts (71). Did appear in six games, all starts, for Cincinnati.
- All six of his starts with CIN were made between 7/30-8/26.
- Was one of nine rookie pitchers who combined to make 110 starts for the Reds, both single-season modern club records.
- Began the season with the Bats and went 7-6, with a 4.40 ERA in 19 appearances before he was recalled to start on 7/30 vs. PIT to fill the spot in the rotation vacated by RHP Johnny Cueto.
- In his Major League season debut vs. PIT he became the sixth rookie pitcher to start for the Reds in 2015 and singled off A.J. Burnett for his first career hit.
- In his second start on the year (on 8/5), was in line for the win, but fell victim to a blown save after Matt Carpenter's eighth-inning solo home run off J.J. Hoover tied the game in eighth inning.
- Was optioned back to Louisville on 8/31 and spent the remainder of the season there.
- While with Louisville, in the 5-0 win vs. Toledo on 7/12, threw the fifth, sixth and seventh innings of the first nine-inning no-hitter in Bats history (Tony Cingrani 4.0 IP, Sam LeCure 2.0 IP).
- In 13 of his final 15 starts, tossed at least 6.0 innings and went 5-4 with a 3.53 ERA.

Holmberg's Career Highlights

2014: Spent most of the season at Triple-A Louisville, but made five starts and two relief appearances during three stints with the Reds...Made his first two appearances in spot starts in the nightcap of the day/night doubleheader on 7/8 vs CHI (6-5 win) and on 8/21 vs ATL (8-0 loss)...As one of 10 September callups, spent the last month in Cincinnati, where he made a pair of relief appearances followed by quality starts in the 5-1 win at MIL on 9/13, a 2-1 loss at STL on 9/19 and a 5-3 win vs MIL on 9/25...On 9/8 vs STL replaced injured starting pitcher Dylan Axelrod after one batter and threw 5.2 scoreless innings, the longest outing of his career to that point and the longest by a Reds reliever since Carlos Fisher threw 5.2 innings in a 19-inning game on 5/25/11 at PHI...Finished the season in Axelrod's spot in the rotation and produced those three straight quality starts (2-1, 2.50 ERA)...The 5-1 win on 9/13 at MIL was his first Major League victory in his sixth career appearance...In spring training was limited to one appearance by a sore right shin...Was on Louisville's disabled list from 4/20-5/11 and 5/21-6/10 with left shoulder tendinitis.

2013: At Arizona's Double-A Mobile affiliate, he was named a Southern League All-Star...Ranked among the SL pitching leaders in ERA (4th, 2.75), innings pitched (3rd, 157.1), starts (T4th, 26) and WHIP (5th, 1.19)...Was promoted on 8/27 and in his Major League debut started that night's 10-inning, 10-9 win vs SD (3.2 IP, 6 H, 3 ER, 3 BB, 0 K, 80 pitches)...Returned to Mobile following that appearance and finished the season with the BayBears.

2012: In 27 starts at Single-A Visalia and Double-A Mobile went 11-8 with a 3.32 ERA while throwing 173.1 innings, tied for the second-highest innings total by any minor league pitcher...Was named a Mid-Season California League AllStar.

2011: In 27 starts at Single-A South Bend and Visalia went 12-9 with a 3.44 ERA...Was a Mid-Season Midwest League All-Star.

2010: In 15 starts at Single-A Missoula and Great Falls went 2-5 and posted a 4.17 ERA.

2009: Following the June draft began his professional career at rookie-level Bristol.

AMATEUR: Gaduated from Port Charlotte (FL) High School in 2009, where as a senior he went 7-0 with a 0.22 ERA and 132 strikeouts.

PERSONAL: Resides in Port Charlotte, Florida...Signed by Joe Siers (White Sox).

- In his first season in the Braves organization, earned organizational Phil Niekro Pitcher of the Year honors after posting a combined 3.19 ERA and going 8-9 in 25 starts between Double-A Mississippi and Triple-A Gwinnett. Also named a Southern League All-Star.
- Set career highs in nearly every category in his sixth professional season, including appearances (25), innings pitched (138.1), strikeouts (88) and wins (8).
- His 3.19 ERA was a career-low and ranked seventh among Braves' minor league starters. Also ranked in the top 10 in several other categories: opponents' batting average (4th, .246), strikeouts (5th, 88), innings (5th, 138.1) and wins (T3rd, 8).
- Posted a 3.35 ERA with a 3-1 record and struck out 30 over 37.2 IP in six May starts en route to being named the organization's Mississippi Pitcher of the Month. He allowed nine earned runs in 5.2 innings pitched in his first start of the month (5/1), then rebounded to surrender just five earned runs over his final 32.0 innings (spanning five starts, 5/7-28) for a 1.41 ERA.
- Worked at least 6.0 innings or more in 15 of his 25 starts, including seven in which he worked 7.0-plus innings.
- Opened the year with Double-A Mississippi and went 5-5 with a 3.00 ERA in 16 starts before receiving a mid-season promotion to Triple-A Gwinnett on 7/8.
- Had one start (5/1 vs. Montgomery) with Mississippi in which he was touched for nine earned runs in 5.2 innings. Without that outing, his ERA over his other 15 starts with the club would have been 2.27.
- While with Gwinnett, allowed more than three earned runs in a start just once, 8/6 vs. Rochester (5 ER/4.2 IP). Without that start, his ERA would have been 2.88 over his other eight appearances.
- Ten of his 16 starts with Mississippi and five of his nine starts with Gwinnett registered as a "quality start."
- While with Gwinnett, held opposing left-handed batters to a .217 (15-for-69) clip, while righties hit .283. (28-for-99). With Mississippi: .257 (38-for-148) vs. lefties, compared to .229 (46-for-201) against right-handed hitters.
- Was on the seven-day minor-league disabled list from 8/17-9/4 with arm fatigue.
- Entered the 2015 season ranked by Baseball America as the 12th-best prospect in the Braves organization.

J. Johnson's Career Recap

- Is in his 11th Major League season and his 16th professional campaign.
- Returns to the Atlanta organization after spending the first four months of the 2015 campaign as a Brave.
- The Braves are his fifth Major League team. He spent the first eight seasons of his career pitching for the Baltimore Orioles before pitching for two teams - Oakland and Detroit - during the 2014 season. In 2015, spent the last two months of the season with the Los Angeles Dodgers.
- Led the American League in saves in back-to-back seasons, collecting 51 saves in 2012 and 50 rescues during the 2013 season. Became just the second pitcher in Major League history to record back-to-back 50-save seasons, joining LAD's Eric Gagne (2002-03).
- His save percentage of 94.4 ranked third in the Majors and second in the American League in 2012.
- Has converted 85.0% (113-for-133) of his save opportunities since the start of the 2012 season, the 24th-best mark in the Majors in that time span. His 113 saves rank as the 11th most in that time frame.
- Ranks eighth in the Majors among active pitchers with 340 appearances since the start of the 2011 season.

J. Johnson's 2015 Season Recap

- Opened the 2015 campaign with Atlanta after signing a one-year contract with the Club in December 2014.
- Was acquired by the Los Angeles Dodgers along with four other players (all Braves) in a three-team, 13-player trade on July 30, 2015, and spent the final two months of the year with LAD.
- Combined to go 2-6 with 10 saves, 25 holds and a 4.46 ERA in 72 total appearances between the two clubs.
- Ranked sixth in the National League in holds (25) and tied for 13th with 72 appearances (two shy of his career high 74 set in 2013 while with Baltimore).
- Allowed six of 21 inherited runners to score (28.6%)
- Made 17 consecutive scoreless outings (17.2 IP), 6/9-7/17. Went 1-0 with four saves and six holds over the span that ended with a run on 7/20.
- During his final 21 games with Atlanta, allowed just two earned runs in 21.2 innings pitched for a 0.83 ERA.
- Went 0-3 and had a 10.13 ERA (21 ER/18.2 IP) in 23 games for LAD. Was touched for eight earned runs in 0.2 inning pitched in his 8/9 outing at PIT. Without that outing, his ERA with LAD would have been 6.50.

Kendrick's Career Recap

- 2016 marks his 10th Major League season and his 14th professional campaign. The Braves are his third organization after opening his career with Philadelphia (2003-14) and spending 2015 with Colorado.
- Is one of just six National League pitchers with six-or-more 10-win seasons since 2007, joining Tim Lincecum and Adam Wainwright (7 seasons), and Ricky Nolasco, Cole Hamels and Chad Billingsley (6).

- Made a career-high 32 starts in 2014, also setting highs in innings (199.0) and strikeouts (121) while posting a 10-13 record and a 4.61 ERA (102 ER/199.0 IP).
- In 2007, led all NL rookies in wins (10), while finishing third in ERA (3.87), fifth in starts (20) and sixth in innings (121.0).
- Originally drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the seventh round of the 2003 First-Year Player Draft.

Kendrick's 2015 Season Recap

- Played his first season in Colorado after spending the previous eight campaigns with Philadelphia, and posted a 7-13 record with a 6.32 ERA (100 ER/142.1 IP) in a team-high 27 starts. 2015 marked his second consecutive season allowing 100 or more earned runs, while his 13 losses tied a career high.
- Earned the first Opening Day start of his career and tossed 7.0 shutout innings on 4/6 at Milwaukee, allowing seven hits and fanning six. It was the first time in his career in which he tossed 7.0 innings and did not allow a run in his first outing of the season.
- Lost six straight decisions from 4/11-5/22 (0-6, 7.58 ERA, 39 ER/46.1 IP), a span of eight starts. The skid was the second-longest of his career, four losses short of a 10-game slide from 8/11/13-5/21/14.
- Won consecutive starts once on the season, earning the victory on 9/7 at SD (5.0 IP, 3 ER, 4 SO) and again on 9/13 at SEA (5.0 IP, 2 ER, 4 SO).
- Tied with San Diego's James Shields for the Major-League lead in home runs allowed at 33. Surrendered a career-high four home runs in a 10-4 loss vs. SD on 9/20.
- Placed on the disabled list on 8/1 with right shoulder inflammation. Returned from the DL on 9/1 and went 3-1 with a 5.90 ERA (19 ER/29.0 IP) over his final six starts.

Markakis' Career Recap

- 2016 marks his 14th professional season and his 11th Major League campaign. Played his entire career with Baltimore prior to signing a four-year contract with Atlanta as a free agent on December 5, 2014.
- Twice named a Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner among American League right fielders, originally winning the honor in 2011 before collecting the award a second time in 2014.

- Snapped his historic streak of 398 games played in the outfield without an error on June 25, 2015 at WSH after being charged with a fielding error in the first inning.
- Played his 393rd straight error-free game in the outfield on June 18, 2015 setting a Major League record for the most consecutive errorless games by an outfielder. Broke Darren Lewis' record (392), set from 1990-1994.
- Finished the 2014 season among Baltimore's franchise all-time top-10 in games (10th, 1,365), at-bats (9th, 5,331), runs (8th, 749), hits (6th, 1,547), doubles (6th, 316), RBI (9th, 658), walks (9th, 553), average (5th, .290), OBP (9th, .358), OPS (9th, .793), total bases (6th, 2,318) and multi-hit games (4th, 435).
- Became the all-time leader in Oriole Park at Camden Yards history in hits (762) with a pair of base knocks on May 22, 2014 vs. CLE to pass Cal Ripken Jr. (702 hits). Also became the all-time leader in at-bats (2,646) at Oriole Park at Camden Yards during the 2014 season.
- Stroked at least 40 doubles every year from 2007-10. Among players that began their careers after World War II, only five outfielders have as many or more 40+ double seasons as Markakis: Bobby Abreu (7), Magglio Ordonez (4), Luis Gonzalez (4), Garret Anderson (4) and Larry Walker (4).
- Became the second player in Orioles history to record six seasons with 50+ multi-hit games (2007-11, 2014) on September 13, 2014 vs. NYY, joining Eddie Murray (1978-80, 1982-84).
- Collected his 1,500th hit on August 1, 2014 vs. SEA, becoming the second outfielder in Orioles history with at least 1,500 hits (Brady Anderson, 1,589).
- Garnered American League Player of the Week award, winning the honors for the week of July 17, 2011 after going 6-for-14 (.429) with two doubles, two homers, five runs scored and six RBI in four games.
- Named American League Rookie of the Month for August 2006 after hitting .354 (34-for-96) with a .400 OBP over 26 games. Stroked 10 home runs and 26 RBI for the month.

Markakis' 2015 Season Recap

- Completed his first season with Atlanta and his 10th Major League season batting .296 (181-for-612) with 38 doubles, three home runs, 53 RBI and 73 runs scored in 156 games.
- Posted his highest double total (38) since hitting 45 in 2010.

Ogando's Career Recap

- Originally signed as an international free agent by Oakland in 2002 as a position player. Spent the first four years (2002-05) of his pro career as an outfielder in the Athletics minor league system.
- Selected by Texas from Oakland in the minor league phase of the 2005 Rule 5 Draft on 12/8. Made his pro pitching debut in 2006, his first year in the TEX system, with the rookie-level Dominican Summer League Rangers.
- Was unable to enter the United States due to visa issues from 2005-09.
- Has held opponents to a .233 (408-for-1,753) average in his ML career, 16th best among all pitchers with at least 450 innings since the start of 2010.
- Is 12-5 with a 3.49 ERA and 8.2 SO/9.0 IP (185 SO/203.2 IP) in 199 career relief appearances in the majors.
- Named an American League All-Star in 2011, his first year in the majors working primarily as a starter.
- Is 2-0 with a 2.37 ERA (5 ER) and 23 strikeouts in 19.0 career postseason innings. All 18 of his postseason appearances came in relief from 2010-11, when the Rangers made back-to-back trips to the World Series.

Ogando's 2015 Season Recap

- Appeared in a career-high 64 games in his first season with the Red Sox. Did not spend time on the major league DL for the first time since 2011.
- Led Boston's staff with 65.1 relief innings, 0.2 shy of his career high set in 2012 with TEX (66.0).
- Tied for the staff lead in relief wins with three (also Matt Barnes) and relief appearances (with Tommy Layne).
- Posted a season-best 14.2-inning scoreless streak over a span of 12 games, 6/10-7/2...That stretch lowered his ERA from 4.37 on 6/6 to 2.72.
- Went 3-0 with a 3.16 ERA (11 ER/31.1 IP) in 32 road games and 0-1 with a 4.76 ERA (18 ER/34.0 IP) in 32 games at Fenway Park.
- Held left-handed batters to a .206 (20-for-97) average and two home runs while right-handers hit .265 (39-for-147) with 10 homers.
- Allowed nine of his 31 inherited runners to score (29%).
- All three of his wins came on the road and two were extra-inning victories; 6/26 at TB (10 innings) and 9/30 at NYY (11 innings).
- Threw 2.0 innings or more six times and posted a 2.92 ERA (4 ER/12.1 IP) in those games.
- Of his 29 total runs allowed, 19 came via the home run (12 homers total; two three-run, three two-run, and seven solo). His first five runs allowed of the season over his first 14 games all came via homers.
- Allowed only one home run over his final 25 appearances (22.2 IP) of the season (beginning 7/26).

Olivera's 2015 Season Recap

- Made his Major League debut on 9/1 vs. MIA after the Braves acquired him in a 13-player trade with Miami and Los Angeles (NL) on 7/30. Started at third base and went 0-for-4 hitting in the six hole to become the 18th native of Cuba to play for the Braves.
- Began his career with Los Angeles (NL) in the Dodgers' minor league system after signing a six-year contract on 5/19. The three-team deal on 7/30 saw the Dodgers send Olivera, LHP Paco Rodriguez and RHP Zach Bird to the Braves in exchange for INF Jose Peraza, LHP Alex Wood, LHP Luis Avilan, RHP Bronson Arroyo and RHP Jim Johnson. The Braves also acquired a 2016 competitive balance draft pick (No. 35) in the deal from Miami, who sent RHP Mat Latos and INF/OF Michael Morse to Los Angeles for RHP Jeff Brigham, RHP Kevin Guzman and RHP Victor Araujo.
- Collected his first Major League base hit, a two-out, two-run single, on 9/2 vs. Miami.
- Hit his first Major League home run on 9/7 at Philadelphia. With a runner aboard, drove a 1-1 pitch from Colton Murray out to left field.
- Finished with five multi-hit games at the MLB level, including two three-hit games (9/9 at Philadelphia and 9/25 at Miami).
- Made 21 starts for the Braves, all at third base. Committed four errors in 42 chances, a .905 fielding percentage.
- Named as the Braves' fourth-best prospect by Baseball America entering the 2016 season.
- Hit .297 (10-for-64) against right-handed pitching. Was 1-for-15 (.067) against lefties.
- Went 13-for-38 (.342) with both of his home runs away from Turner Field. Hit .171 (7-for-41) at home.
- Hit .304 (7-for-23) with both of his home runs and 11 RBI with runners in scoring position.
- Closed out the season hitting .324 (11-for-34) over his final 10 games. Five of the hits went for extra bases (three doubles, one triple, one home run).
- Appeared in his first game with the Braves organization on 8/13, playing third base for the rookie-level GCL Braves at the GCL Tigers. Appeared in one other game with the GCL Braves before being transferred to Single-A Rome, making his R-Braves debut on 8/16.

- Hit .083 (1-for-12) in four games for the R-Braves. Also appeared in 10 games with Triple-A Gwinnett, going 9-for-39 (.231) with three doubles and three RBI after joining the G-Braves on 8/20. Hit a combined .179 (10-for-56) in 16 minor-league games for the Braves.
- Appeared in 19 games for three different levels of the Dodgers' farm system, batting a combined .348 (24-for-69) with two home runs and seven RBI, while appearing at both third base and second base.
- Made his debut on 6/4 for Double-A Tulsa and hit .318 (7-for-22) in six games. Joined Triple-A Oklahoma City on 6/13 and hit .387 (12-for-31) in seven games before landing on the disabled list with a left hamstring injury on 6/21. Made six rehabilitation appearances with the AZL Dodgers (R), hitting .313 (5-for-16) but remained on the disabled list after his assignment was over.
- Signed a six-year contract with Los Angeles on 5/19.

Perez's 2015 Season Recap

- Split the season between Triple-A Gwinnett and Atlanta, making his MLB debut and going 7-6 with one save and a 4.78 ERA in 23 games, 20 starts for the Braves. Also landed on the 15-day disabled list from 6/27-7/31, and missed 28 games with a left foot contusion.
- Ranked sixth among NL rookies in wins (7) and innings pitched (116.2). Was one of four NL rookies to toss a complete game, with San Francisco's Chris Heston the only one to throw two. His 20 starts ranked seventh among NL rookies and he became one of 10 Braves pitchers since 1990 to make at least 20 starts in his rookie season.
- Opened the season with the G-Braves before being recalled on 5/6 and making his MLB debut two days later at WSH. Allowed four runs, earned, in relief while getting one out and a no-decision in a 9-2 loss.
- Made his first career start 5/20 vs. TB. Received a no-decision in a 2-1 win despite allowing one run, earned, over 5.0 innings with seven strikeouts. Went 7-6 with a 4.61 ERA (58 ER/113.1 IP) in 20 starts and 0-0 with a save and a 10.80 ERA (4 ER/3.1 IP) in three games out of the bullpen.
- Earned his first career win with 7.0 shutout innings in an 8-0 victory, 5/30 at San Francisco.
- Went 4-0 with a 2.14 ERA (10 ER/42.0 IP) in his first seven starts before going to the DL. In his first seven starts after returning, 7/31-9/2, went 0-6 with a 9.50 ERA (38 ER/36.0 IP). Over his final five starts of the season, 9/7-9/30, went 3-0 with a 2.35 ERA (8 ER/30.2 IP).
- Tossed a scoreless 11th inning to earn his first save in a 5-3 win, 6/13 at NYM. Became the first Braves pitcher to make at least one start and earn a save in the same season since Kris Medlen in 2012.
- Allowed nine runs, earned, over 4.1 innings in a 9-3 loss at PHI. Became the only rookie in franchise history during the Atlanta era to allow nine earned runs in a game. Steve Avery was the only other rookie to allow nine runs in a game, doing so on 9/16/90 vs. San Diego.
- Tossed a complete game on 8/11 at TB, going 8.0 innings and allowing two runs, earned, to become the first Braves rookie to go the distance since 2008, when Jorge Campillo did it on 6/15 at LAA. Became the first Brave with a complete game in one of his first 14 career games since 1990, when Paul Marak tossed a four-hitter to beat Houston on 9/23. Needed 92 pitches to finish the game, the fewest by a Braves pitcher in a complete game since 2000, when Greg Maddux used 89 to beat Florida, 4-0.

- Went just 1.2 innings on 8/28 vs. the New York Yankees, allowing eight runs to become the fifth starter in Atlanta history (since 1966) to allow eight runs or more in a start of 1.2 innings or fewer. Tommy Hanson last did it prior to Perez on 5/20/10 vs. Cincinnati (8 R in 1.2 IP).
- Was optioned to Gwinnett on 8/29, but returned from the minor leagues on 9/2 to take the place of the injured Mike Foltynewicz. Went 5.0 IP that day vs. MIA, but allowed six runs (four earned) on nine hits and suffered a 7-3 loss.
- Won organizational April Pitcher of the Month honors for the G-Braves after going 2-0 with a 1.57 ERA in four April turns. For the season, went 3-1 with a 1.16 ERA in eight games, all starts, for Gwinnett.

Peterson's 2015 Season Recap

- Made his first Opening Day roster in his first season with Atlanta and hit .239 (126-for-528) with six home runs and 52 RBI in 152 games.
- Finished second on the team in games (152), plate appearances (597) and stolen bases (12).
- Led all National League players with 22 bases-loaded RBI. His mark tied for the third-highest bases-loaded total in Atlanta-franchise history since at least 1974. Brian McCann had 26 in 2007 and Jeff Francoeur finished with 24 that same year. Also hit .563 (9-for-16) with the bases full.
- Hit his first career home run, a grand slam off Mat Latos on 5/16 at Miami. Became the fourth Braves player whose first career home run was also a grand slam, and the first since Marcus Giles, who accomplished the feat on 5/15/01 off of Colorado's Mike Hampton. The other two instances were Barry Bonnell on June 5, 1977 vs. SF's Randy Moffitt and Vic Correll on July 31, 1974 also off SF's Moffitt. His four RBI set a career-high total.
- Hit .252 (76-for-302) with 37 of his 52 RBI in 83 games prior to the All-Star break, including .282 (29-for-103) in May. Batted .221 (50-for-226) during the second half.
- Made 65 starts as the leadoff hitter, hitting .231 (60-for-260) with a .312 OBP.
- Compiled a 4.2 defensive runs above average mark, which ranked seventh-best among qualifying second baseman. Turned 109 double plays, tied for the fourth most in the majors.
- Collected his first game-ending RBI, singling home Alberto Callaspo with two outs in the 11th inning on 5/23 vs. MIL.
- Hit in a career-best nine straight, 6/7-6/15, batting .385 (15-for-39) during his run.
- Collected a career-high three hits six times.
- Batted .273 (67-for-245) with a .366 OBP at Turner Field. Only one of his six home runs came at home.

Pierzynski's Career Recap

- Leads active major leaguers with 1,872 career games behind the plate. His 15,803.1 career innings caught rank 10th in MLB since the start of the divisional era in 1969. Ranks seventh among all active players in career games played (1,978).
- His 186 career home runs rank fifth in MLB history among left-handed hitting catchers (Yogi Berra 358, Brian McCann 225, Bill Dickey 202, and Darrell Porter 188).
- Has homered in 31 different MLB parks. The three current parks in which he has at least one plate app. and no homers: Nationals Park, Citi Field and Dodger Stadium.
- Caught at least 110 games in each season from 2001-13, establishing the longest such streak in MLB history. That 13-year stretch also tied the longest streak of seasons with at least 100 games caught, along with Bill Dickey (1929-41), Johnny Bench (1968-80) and Brad Ausmus (1995-2007).
- His .995 fielding percentage ranks first all-time among catchers with at least 1,000 games at the position.
- Led American League backstops in fielding percentage three times: 2005 with CWS (.999), 2011 with CWS (.995) and 2013 with TEX (.998).
- Had a combined .462 slugging percentage from 2012-13, tops among AL catchers (primary position). His 44 home runs in that two-year span ranked second among AL backstops, one shy of BAL's Matt Wieters (45).
- Is one of two MLB catchers to reach double digits home runs in at least nine of the past 13 years (Brian McCann).
- Is a two-time All-Star. Selected to his first All-Star team in 2002 with MIN in his second full big league season and again in 2006 with CWS.
- Set a then-AL record with 962 consecutive errorless chances behind the plate from 4/18/05-5/19/06, surpassing Yogi Berra's mark of 950 from 7/28/57-5/18/60. Established AL single-season marks with 777 consecutive errorless chances from 4/18-10/2/05. His 117 consecutive errorless games in that stretch tied the AL single-season record (OAK's Buddy Rosar in 1946).
- While with Chicago, caught both Philip Humber's perfect game on 4/21/12 at SEA and Mark Buehrle's no-hitter on 4/18/07 vs. TEX.
- Earned his first Louisville Slugger Silver Slugger Award in 2012, when he set career highs while leading AL catchers with 27 home runs and a .501 slugging percentage for the White Sox.
- Made 14 consecutive Opening Day starts at catcher from 2001-2014.
- Has a lifetime .290 average against right-handed pitching.
- Has a .292 average in 32 postseason games. His .867 postseason OPS is the second-best ever mark as a catcher with at least 100 PA (Thurman Munson, .874).
- Hit .262 (11-for-42) with four doubles, three homers, and nine RBI as the starting catcher in all 12 games of the White Sox run to the 2005 World Series Championship

Pierzynski's 2015 Season Recap

- Hit .300 (122-for-407) in his first season with Atlanta, marking the third time in his career his season average was exactly .300 (min. 100 AB) and the fourth time in his career that his season average finished .300 or higher. His .300 average was his highest since also hitting .300 in 2009 with CWS.
- Collected his 1,970th hit on 9/6 at PHI, passing Hall-of-Famer Bill Dickey for 10th all-time among catchers. Tied Dickey on 9/4 with a 1-for-4 effort. Finished the season with 1,989 hits.
- Compiled a .339 on-base percentage, his highest since 2003, when he finished with a .360 mark.
- Began the season with a 13-game hitting streak, 4/8-5/1, the longest season-opening run of his career. He hit .408 (20-for-49) during the streak's duration, with three home runs and 14 RBI. His 13-game stretch was the fourth-longest by a Braves player to open a season in Atlanta history and the longest since Edgar Renteria hit in an Atlanta-era best 23 games to open the 2006 campaign.
- Hit .340 (71-for-209) from 7/5 through the end of the season, a stretch of 59 games. His average was the fourth best in the majors among players with at least 200 at-bats over that time span, trailing only CIN's Joey Votto (.354), ARI's David Peralta (.350) and MIA's Christian Yelich (.341).
- Had his second 13-game hitting streak of 2015, 7/24-8/8. Batted .431 (22-for-51) over his run.
- Hit two solo home runs, 9/29, a 2-1 win vs. WSH, marking his sixth career multi-homer game and first since 6/29/12. Became the oldest catcher (38 years, 273 days) to hit two homers in a game since Jason Varitek did so, 6/30/2011.
- Finished with a team-best nine game-winning RBI.
- Six of his nine home runs either tied the game or gave the Braves a lead.
- Ended the season on a nine-game hitting streak (12-for-28, .429), 9/20-10/2.
- Hit .330 (31-for-94) with runners in scoring position.
- Had a season-high four hits three times (4/28 vs. WSH, 7/6 at MIL, 8/3 vs. SF). Also had eight three-hit games. His 11 games with three-or-more hits were his most in a single season since 2009, when he had a career-best 16.
- Hit .320 (70-for-219) away from Turner Field, the seventh-best road average in the Majors (minimum 200 at-bats).
- Made 104 starts behind the plate and threw out 21-of-88 (23.9%) base stealers.
- Signed a one-year contract to remain with the Braves for a second season on 11/13/15.

Teheran's 2015 Season Recap

- In his third full season, led the team in wins (11), while finishing tied for first in games started (33) and strikeouts (171). The team went 19-14 (.576) in his starts.
- Tossed 200.2 innings, his second consecutive season with at least 200 innings. Became the first Braves pitcher with back-to-back 200-inning seasons since Tim Hudson in 2010 and 2011. Ranked 12th in the NL in innings pitched.
- Walked a career-high 73, tied for the sixth most in the majors. Also allowed a personal-most 27 home runs, which tied for the seventh-highest total in the NL.
- Earned the Opening Day start for the second consecutive season, beating MIA, 2-1, on 4/6 at Marlins Park. Became the first Braves pitcher to be the Opening Day starter in back-to-back seasons since 2010 and 2011, when Derek Lowe did it.

- Went 8-2 with a 2.89 ERA (35 ER/109.0 IP) in 17 games at home. Finished 3-6 with a 5.40 ERA (55 ER/91.2 IP) in 16 road games. Allowed 18 of his 27 home runs away from Turner Field.
- Compiled a 4.71 ERA and a 6-6 record through the end of July (21 games). From August through the end of the year, a span of 12 games, went 5-2 with a 2.95 ERA (25 ER/76.1 IP). He allowed more than three runs in a start only one time over that final 12-game span.
- His 1.91 September ERA (7 ER/33.0 IP) ranked fourth best in the NL and fifth lowest in the majors.
- Won his 10th game of the season with an 8-1 victory over PHI on 9/9 at Citizens Bank Park. Allowed one run over 7.0 innings. The win gave him double-digit victories in three straight seasons, the first Braves pitcher to do so since Tommy Hanson (four, 2009-12) and Tim Hudson (three, 2010-12).
- Became the 19th pitcher in Atlanta-era franchise history to make 100 starts with the team when he beat St. Louis, 4-0, at home in his season finale, 10/2.
- Allowed a career-high eight runs twice, each time over 4.1 innings. He lost 8-0 on 5/26 at LAD and then suffered a 20-6 defeat on 8/30 vs. NYY.
- Fanned a career high-tying 11 over 7.0 innings in a 3-1 loss on 7/22 vs. LAD. It was his fourth 11-strikeout game and his sixth with double-digits.
- Surrendered a career-most four home runs on 4/17 at TOR. Received a no-decision in the 8-7 win.
- Gave up career-high 13 hit on 6/16 at BOS. Also surrendered 10 hits three times, after entering the season allowing double-digit hits four times total in his career.
- Picked off five runners, tied for the fifth-most in the majors and tied for the second-most among right-handed pitchers.
- Went 0-3 with a 9.24 ERA (26 ERA/25.1 IP) in five interleague starts. Finished 11-5 with a 3.29 ERA (64 ER/175.1 IP) in 28 games against the NL.

Weber's 2015 Season Recap

- Selected to the active roster on 9/8 after splitting the minor league season between Double-A Mississippi and Triple-A Gwinnett. Made five starts for the Braves, going 0-3 with a 4.76 ERA (15 ER/28.1 IP).
- Made his MLB debut in a start on 9/8 at PHI, taking the 5-0 loss despite tossing 6.0 innings and allowing four hits, two runs, earned and one walk, while striking out two. Prior to Weber, only two Atlanta pitchers lost a MLB debut despite going at least 6.0 innings and allowing two-or-fewer runs: Horacio Ramirez on 4/2/03 vs. MON (7.0 IP/2 R) and Rick Matula on 4/8/79 at HOU (7.0 IP/2 R).
- Became the fourth member of the Braves starting rotation to make his Major League debut (RHP Williams Perez, RHP Matt Wisler, LHP Manny Banuelos) and the fifth to make his first career start (RHP Mike Foltynewicz). Became the 10th starting pitcher used by the Braves in 2015.
- Set a career-high total with 7.0 innings and allowed just one run and two hits, but received a no decision vs. PHI on 9/19. The Braves trailed 1-0 when he made his exit, but Freddie Freeman plated two runs with an eighth-inning double and Atlanta earned a 2-1 win.
- Became just the fourth Braves starter since the franchise moved to Atlanta in 1966 to go at least 6.0 innings in each of his first three MLB games. Joined John Smoltz (1988), Zane Smith (1984) and Mike Minor (2010).
- Went 2.0 innings and allowing seven runs, earned, in a 12-11 loss at Miami on 9/25. Surrendered nine hits and one walk, while not recording a strikeout.
- Struck out a career-best 10 over 7.0 innings for his first career double-digit strikeout game, 10/1 vs. WSH, but took a 3-0 loss. Became the second Braves pitcher in Atlanta franchise history (since 1966) to record a double-digit strikeout game within his first five appearances. Mike Minor (12 on 8/2210) also did it.
- Pitched at two levels of the Braves' farm system prior to his selection to the big-league club, beginning the year with Mississippi (AA). Transferred to Gwinnett (AAA) for one start on May 17, and then returned to Triple-A for good on May 27. Went a combined 6-5 with a 2.35 ERA in 38 games, nine starts.

- Began the year in the bullpen for the M-Braves, going 0-1 with one save and a 3.52 ERA (6 ER/15.1 IP) in eight games of relief. Made three starts at Double-A, going 0-1 with a 1.64 ERA (2 ER/11.0 IP).
- Split his time with GWN between the rotation and the bullpen. Went 3-1 with three saves and a 1.65 ERA (8 ER/43.2 IP) in 21 games of relief for the G-Braves. Made six starts at Triple-A, going 3-2 with a 3.03 ERA (10 ER/29.2 IP).
- His final three appearances with GWN were all starts and the right-hander went 2-1 with a 2.81 ERA (5 ER/16.0 IP). Held opponents to a .179 batting average while striking out nine and walking three.
- His six wins finished one shy of his career best for a season. Won seven games in 2012.
- Allowed one run or fewer in six of his nine MiLB starts. Allowed no runs four times.
- Went 2-0 with a 0.78 ERA (3 ER/34.2 IP) in 13 games, two starts at home for the G-Braves.
- Limited Triple-A lefthanded hitters to a .202 batting average and one home run.

Weber's Career Highlights

2014: Cracked 100+ innings for the third time in his professional career by appearing in 32 games with Double-A Mississippi...Was one of just four Mississippi pitchers to toss at least 100 innings on the year, as his 13 starts were fifth-most on the club and his five wins tied for eighth-most...In 19 games out of the bullpen, posted a 2-0 record and a 2.11 ERA over 42.2 innings, compared to a 3-6 record with a 6.25 ERA in 13 starts...Tossed a career-high-tying 8.0 innings on 7/2, yielding a run on three hits to pick up the win...Pitched to a 4-2 mark and a 2.84 ERA in 17 games (7 starts) at home, while going 1-4 with a 7.28 ERA in 15 games (6 starts) on the road...Placed on the disabled list on 8/18 with a right elbow strain and remained there for the duration of the season.

Wisler's 2015 Season Recap

- Split the season between Atlanta and Triple-A Gwinnett after the Braves acquired him on 4/5 in a trade that sent Craig Kimbrel and Melvin Upton, Jr. to SD.
- Finished fifth among NL rookies with eight wins and eighth with 109.0 IP.
- Won his Major League debut, 6/19 vs. NYM, after the Braves selected his contract earlier that day. Tossed 8.0 innings and allowed one run, earned, and no walks to become the first Braves starter to win his first career game since Kenshin Kawakami on 4/11/09 vs. WSH.
- Became the second Atlanta starter in franchise history (since 1966) to go at least 8.0 innings and allow one run or less in his debut, joining John Smoltz, who tossed 8.0 innings and allowed one run on 7/23/88 at NYM. Prior to Wisler, the last Major Leaguer to go at least 8.0 innings and allow one run or fewer in his debut was MIN's Andrew Albers on 8/6/13 at KC.
- Needed only 88 pitches to complete the 8.0 innings in his debut, becoming the first pitcher since 1988, when pitch counts were first recorded, to go as long in his first Major League game in as few pitches.
- Went 8.0 innings with no walks in his debut. No pitcher in Atlanta franchise history (since 1966) ever went as long in his debut with no walks. The only other Major Leaguer to go at least 8.0 innings with no walks in the last 15 years was CLE's Scott Lewis on 9/10/08.
- Became the fifth Atlanta starter to make his Major League debut against the Mets, joining Bruce Chen (9/7/98), David Nied (9/1/92), John Smoltz (7/23/88) and Larry McWilliams (7/17/78). Nied (7.0 IP, 1 R), Smoltz (8.0 IP, 1 R) and McWilliams (7.0 IP, 0 R) all won, while Chen (3.0 IP, 4 R) received a no-decision. With Wisler's performance, Braves starters in their debuts against the Mets are 4-0 with a 1.91 ERA.
- Won his Major League debut at the age of 22 years, 280 days, becoming the seventh Atlanta (since 1966) starter to win his MLB debut at that age or younger. The last was James Parr, who was 22 years, 190 days at the time when he beat WSH on 9/4/08.
- Joined with Williams Perez (20 GS) and Mike Foltynewicz (15 GS) to become the first trio of Braves rookies to all make at least 15 starts in the same season since 2008, when Jair Jurrjens (31 GS), Jorge Campillo (25 GS) and Charlie Morton (15 GS) all did it.
- Allowed one run or fewer in two of his first three career starts. Only seven Atlanta pitchers have done that, with the last being David Hale in 2013 and 2014, who was the only one to do it in three of his first three.

- Tossed 5.1 shutout innings and allowed one hit and five walks to win 7/1, vs. WSH. Became the fourth Braves pitcher in the last 15 years to allow five or more walks and one or fewer hits in a start of at least 5.0 innings. Aaron Harang did it on 4/18/14 at New York (no hits, six walks). Russ Ortiz (7/17/04) and Damian Moss (5/3/02) also did it.
- Won 5-3 on 7/6 at MIL to become the first Braves pitcher to win three of his first four career starts since Mike Minor in 2010. Allowed seven hits and three runs in 5.2 innings. Struck out six.
- Went 5-1 with a 3.43 ERA (16 ER/42.0 IP) in his first seven starts, but then went 0-7 with an 7.71 ERA (38 ER/44.1 IP) over a 10-game stretch, nine starts, 8/1-9/17.
- Pitched 2.0 scoreless innings out of the bullpen in his first career relief appearance, 9/6 at WSH. Did not allow a hit and struck out two.
- Struck out a season-best eight to beat NYM on 9/22 and snap a seven-game losing streak.
- Went 3-2 with a 2.34 ERA (9 ER/34.2 IP) in five starts after his relief appearance. Won his final three starts, compiling a 1.19 ERA (3 ER/22.2 IP).
- Tossed a season-best 8.2 innings
- Finished 5-3 with a 2.93 ERA (19 ER/58.1 IP) in nine home starts. Went 3-5 with a 6.75 ERA (38 ER/50.2 IP) in 11 games, 10 starts, away from Turner Field.
- Entered the 2015 season ranked by Baseball America as the No. 1 overall prospect in the San Diego Padres farm system.
- Earned International League Pitcher of the Week honors twice (5/10 and 5/31).
- Pitched at a 1.78 ERA while going 3-0 over six May starts en route to earning the organization's co-Pitcher of the Month honors for the G-Braves (alongside teammate LHP Manny Banuelos).

Farm System Restock

From November 2014 through January 2016, the Atlanta Braves farm system underwent a massive overhaul that saw the organization's Baseball America farm system ranking climb 26 spots, from a No. 29 ranking in 2014 to occupying the No. 3 slot on the list at the start of the 2016 season. The publication releases its annual farm system rankings in February of each year.

Led by Baseball Operations President John Hart and General Manager John Coppolella, the Club's farm system was restocked on the strength of 13 significant trades in that 15-month span that led to a return of a large number of the system's top-rated prospects, as well as a top-rated 2015 draft class, all the while improving the talent at the Major League level. Since November 2014, 16 of the organization's top 20 ranked prospects by Baseball America have been new additions to the Club, including 13 by way of trade and three that were selected in the 2015 draft.

Billy Ryan — Director of Baseball Operations

The 2016 season marks Billy Ryan's second with the Braves organization and his second as the director of baseball operations. Ryan joined the organization in November 2014 after spending the previous four seasons as the assistant general manager of the Arizona Diamondbacks.

In his role, Ryan works directly with president of baseball operations John Hart and general manager John Coppolella on all aspects of the Club's baseball operations, including player evaluation, roster management, contract negotiations and player acquisitions. Ryan also oversees the Braves' professional scouting department. In addition to these duties, Ryan spearheads the Braves' salary arbitration program and recently designed and oversaw the development of Tomahawk, the Braves' new proprietary baseball operations platform.

While with the Diamondbacks, Ryan worked as the Club's assistant general manager from November 2010 through October 2014. Ryan, who played an integral role in helping to capture the Diamondbacks' 2011 National League West Division crown, was involved in all facets of the Club's baseball operations, including roster management, contract negotiations, scouting, and player development. In his time with Arizona, Ryan negotiated several multi-year contracts of current Diamondbacks players and also oversaw an international scouting effort that led to an increase in worldwide coverage and the signing of the first Brazilian and Taiwanese amateur players in franchise history. Ryan also directed the Diamondbacks' salary arbitration program, payroll, technology and statistical initiatives, and managed the day-to-day functions of the baseball operations department. In addition, Ryan managed the design and implementation of the Diamondbacks' proprietary scouting and analytics platform. Also during his four-year tenure, Ryan was responsible for effecting an overhaul of the Club's Major League nutritional program and was a founding member of Arizona's Dominican Republic Board, which focused on improving the facilities, educational programs and quality of life for all players in the Diamondbacks' Latin American program.

Previous to his stint with Arizona, Ryan spent three seasons, from 2008 to 2010, in the Commissioner's Office of Major League Baseball as the senior coordinator of salary & contract administration, working directly with all 30 clubs on issues pertaining to Major League rules, the Basic Agreement and other contractual and industry practices. He also was a key member of MLB's Amateur Draft Support Program and Salary Arbitration Support Program.

Prior to joining the Commissioner's office, Ryan worked as a scouting supervisor for the Cleveland Indians during the 2007 season, and was a member of the baseball operations and scouting departments for the Texas Rangers from 2005 to 2006.

Ryan, 35, graduated in 2002 with a degree in Psychology from Davidson College in Davidson, N.C. He was a four-year letterman and team captain on the Wildcat baseball team, earning All-Southern Conference and team Most Valuable Player honors in 2001.

Billy and his wife Sara have one daughter, Blythe, and reside in Atlanta.

Dave Trembley — Director of Player Development/Field Coordinator

Dave Trembley, who is in his 32nd season working in professional baseball in 2016, brings with him a wealth of baseball experience as he returns to the Braves organization for his second consecutive season after a two-year stint with the Houston Astros organization. Trembley spent the 2014 season as the bench coach for the Astros and in 2013 he served as their third base coach.

Beginning in 2015, Trembley took on a dual role with the Braves organization, serving as the director of player development and the minor league field coordinator, a position he previously held with the Braves in 2011 and 2012.

Prior to Trembley's initial stint with the organization, he amassed 27 years of baseball experience at the major and minor league levels, including 20 seasons as a skipper in the minor leagues, and four seasons (2007-10) at the helm for the Baltimore Orioles. Trembley was named manager of the Orioles on June 18, 2007 and remained in that role through June of 2010.

In four seasons as the Orioles skipper, Trembley amassed a 187-283 record and in 20 seasons managing in the minor leagues he went 1,369-1,413. From 1987 to 2006 he held managerial positions with the Pittsburgh Pirates (1987-89), San Diego Padres (1991-93), Chicago Cubs (1994-2002) and Baltimore Orioles (2003-06) organizations. Trembley's first managerial position came in 1986 with the independent team Kinston Eagles of the Carolina League. 1990 was Trembley's only season spent in a front office role as he served as the director of day-to-day operations for the Pirates' minor league complex and spring training facility in Bradenton, Fla. Trembley's professional coaching career began in 1984 with the Cubs. He served the 1984 and 1985 seasons as an instructor and coach in the Cubs farm system before beginning his managerial career in 1986.

In 1999 he served as a coach for the Futures Game and has also managed several All-Star games.

The recipient of several honors, Trembley was named Baseball America's Minor League Manager of the Year and the Eastern League Manager of the Year in 1987 and in 2001 Baseball America selected him as one of minor league baseball's top five managers of the previous 20 years. He also earned Single-A Manager of the Year honors by Baseball America and USA Today in 1995 and in 1999 he was deemed Southern League Manager of the Year. In 2012, Trembley was inducted into the Florida State League Hall of Fame.

Trembley is also a member of two collegiate Hall of Fames, as this past offseason (October 2015) he was named the newest member of the State University of New York-Brockport's Hall of Fame, and in 2009 he was elected to the Antelope Valley College Hall of Fame.

Previous to Trembley's professional coaching career, he spent five years (1980-84) as the head coach at Antelope Valley Junior College and two years (1977-1979) as a teacher and baseball coach at Daniel Murphy High School in Los Angeles.

Trembley earned his bachelor's degree in physical education and his master's degree in education from the State University of New York-Brockport and also did graduate work in sports psychology at Penn State University.

Dave, 64, resides in Daytona Beach Shores, Fla., with his wife Patti and son Kevin.

Dave talks baseball with Braves minor league pitchers, Ricardo Sanchez and Jhon Martinez.

Brian Bridges — Director of Scouting

The 2016 season marks Brian Bridges' second as the director of scouting for the Braves. Bridges, who is in his ninth season with the organization and has 14 years experience as a scout, supervisor and cross checker in professional baseball, was promoted to his role in October 2014.

Bridges spent four seasons, from 2011 to 2014, as a Southeast regional cross checker for the Braves and previous to that spent his first three years in the organization as an area supervisor.

During his tenure with the Braves, Bridges has had a prominent role in the signing of several Major League players. In 2012, Bridges was recognized by Baseball America as the area scout who had the most players make their Major League debut since 2010 with nine such players: Brett Carroll, Steve Cishek, Todd Cunningham, Jason Heyward, J.J. Hoover, Craig Kimbrel, Mike Minor, Zeke Spruill and Alex Wood. Also in 2012, Bridges was honored by the Southeastern Professional Baseball Association as its Scout of the Year award winner.

From 2004 to 2007, Bridges worked for four years as a scout for the Florida Marlins. His first appointment in professional baseball came in 2000 in a scouting role for the Anaheim Angels (2000-03).

In addition to his experience at the Major League level, Bridges also spent time coaching in the college ranks, including stints as an assistant baseball coach at the University of South Florida (1997-98) and Florida Southern College (1999). He also spent time coaching in the prestigious Cape Cod Baseball League with the Bourne Braves (assistant coach; 1997-98) and the Falmouth Commodores (pitching coach; 1999-2000).

The former catcher played at Florida Community College from 1991 to 1993 and Florida Southern College in 1994 and 1995. He was a part of the Moccasins' 1995 National Championship team when he was selected as a second-team All-American and a Sunshine State All-Conference player after leading his team with 29 doubles, a single-season record that still stands. Bridges received his bachelor's degree in education from Florida Southern College in 1995.

Brian, 45, and his wife Lori reside in Rome, Ga. They have three children, Madison, Bo and Bryson.

Mike Silvestri — Director of Latin American Scouting

Mike Silvestri is in his second season with the Braves organization and his second as the director of latin american scouting in 2016.

Silvestri joined the organization from the New York Mets where he spent the previous three seasons, 2012 to 2014. During his three-year tenure with the Mets, Silvestri served as a special assignment domestic cross checker and as an international cross checker. His first two seasons (2012-13) with the Club, he worked as area supervisor for South Florida and Puerto Rico (2012) and South Florida and Latin America (2013).

Prior to joining the Mets, Silvestri spent nine seasons, from 2002 to 2010, in a variety of roles within the Los Angeles Angels scouting department, including working his last four (2007-10) as the east coast cross checker. During his tenure, he also spent time as an amateur scout and an area supervisor. While Silvestri was instrumental in producing a number of Major League players with the Angels, the most notable during his time with the Club is 2009 American League Rookie of the Year and 2014 AL Most Valuable Player Mike Trout, who was selected with the 25th overall pick in the 2012 First-Year Player Draft.

Silvestri, 47, also has experience at the collegiate level, as he was the head baseball coach at Broward Community College from 1999 to 2001. In addition, he worked five years (1995-98) as the head baseball coach from 1995 to 1999 at Monsignor Pace High School in Miami, Fla.

Mike and his wife Rosalie reside in Davie, Fla., with their two children, Amanda and Anthony.

Marc Russo — Director of International Operations

Marc Russo is in his second year in the Braves organization and his second as the club's director of international operations. Russo, who marks his 21st season working in professional baseball in 2016, is working with his fourth Major League organization.

Russo came to the Braves after spending the previous two seasons, 2013 and 2014, as an international cross checker for the Houston Astros. Prior to that, Russo worked 12 seasons, from 2001 to 2012, with the Los Angeles Angels. During his 12-year stint with the Angels, Russo worked as an east coast cross checker, Major League scout and the director of international scouting. In 2001, Russo was honored by the Angels organization with the Nick Kamzik "Scout of the Year" award.

Russo's professional baseball career began in 1996 with the Chicago Cubs organization as an area scout, a position he held for five seasons (1996-2000).

The former catcher was a member of Troy State University's baseball team for three seasons (1986-89), including the back-to-back Division II National Championship teams in 1986 and 1987. Following his graduation in 1998, Russo entered into a coaching role for the university from 1998 to 2003. In 1994 and 1995, he was a member of the Muscle Shoals Community College coaching staff.

A native of Glen Cove, N.Y., Russo was elected to the Glen Cove Hall of Fame in 2003.

Marc, 49, resides in Clearwater, Fla.

Rolando Petit — Assistant Director of Latin American Operations

Rolando Petit, who has been a member of the Braves organization since 1991, was named the Assistant Director of Latin American Operations in January 2008. Petit is responsible for all scouting efforts in Venezuela and is active in the development of players at the Braves Academy.

Petit originally joined the Braves as an international scout and the Venezuelan supervisor, a position he held for eight seasons until he was named an international supervisor in 1999. As a member of the Braves scouting department, Petit has been instrumental in the signing of a number of Major League players, including former Brave Martin Prado.

Petit was originally signed by the Atlanta Braves and played one season with the organization in 1988.

Rolando and his wife Mariana have two children, Rolando Jr. and Roberto, and reside in Venezuela.

Kiley McDaniel — Assistant Director, Baseball Operations

Kiley McDaniel is in his first season with the Atlanta Braves and his first as assistant director, baseball operations.

McDaniel joined the organization in October of 2015 after spending one year as the lead prospect analyst for Fangraphs.com. In his role, McDaniel works with general manager John Coppolella and the scouting and analytical departments in a variety of ways. He helps develop analytical processes and strategies as well as assisting in the pro, amateur and international scouting departments in both office and scouting capacities.

The Braves are his fourth Major League organization, after also spending time with the Pittsburgh Pirates (2011), Baltimore Orioles (2010) and New York Yankees (2005-07). He has also contributed to Baseball Prospectus, ESPN and Fox Sports in his career.

A native of Tampa, Fla., McDaniel graduated from the University of Central Florida with a degree in finance in 2007.

Kiley, 30, reside in Atlanta.

Jonathan Schuerholz — Assistant Director of Player Development

Jonathan Schuerholz moved into a new role with the Braves front office in October of 2014 after spending the previous six seasons (2009-2014) as a manager and instructor in the Braves farm system. In his role as the assistant director of player development, Schuerholz is responsible for the day-to-day operation of the Club's minor league system, to include managing staff assignments and minor league player roster maintenance, as well as the scheduling and implementing of minor league development programs for players and staff. He also oversees the farm system's yearly budget and assists with all other aspects of the organization's minor league teams.

Schuerholz managed three different minor league clubs over a four-year span, from 2011 to 2014, including his most recent assignment as manager of the Single-A Rome Braves during the 2014 campaign. Previous to that, he was at the helm for the rookie-level Danville Braves for two seasons (2012-13), and he spent the 2011 campaign as the skipper of the Gulf Coast League Braves. During his managerial career, Schuerholz made one postseason appearance as he led the 2012 Danville club to their second consecutive postseason appearance.

Schuerholz originally joined the Braves organization in a coaching capacity in 2009 when he spent two seasons (2009-10) as the Braves' roving infield instructor

The former infielder played three seasons (2000-02) at Auburn University and was drafted by the Braves in the eighth round of the 2002 First-Year Player Draft. In 2004, Schuerholz was named the Most Valuable Player of the annual National Baseball Hall of Fame game. He played six minor league seasons and during the 2006 season, Schuerholz retired from his professional baseball playing career and returned to Auburn University to complete his bachelor's degree in business administration.

Schuerholz, 35, has been around baseball his entire life. His father, John Schuerholz, is the Braves team president. Jonathan enjoys golfing, traveling and reading and is an avid supporter of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA).

Jonathan and his wife Jennifer have one son, Boland, and reside in Atlanta.

Matt Grabowski — Assistant Director, Scouting and Analytics

The 2016 season is Matt Grabowski's fifth season with the Braves organization and his second as the assistant director of scouting and analytics. Grabowski was promoted to his current role in October of 2014.

Grabowski joined the organization in June of 2011 as a baseball operations intern and remained in that role until he was promoted to an assistant within the baseball operations department in October of 2011.

In his role, Grabowski works closely with president of baseball operations John Hart and general manager John Coppolella on a variety of projects. He is responsible for developing and implementing new proprietary evaluation systems utilizing both scouting reports and statistical analysis, as well as negotiating free agent contracts and overseeing all baseball information scouting reports and statistical analysis. He also supports the Major League coaching staff and all divisions of the scouting department, including professional scouting, amateur scouting and international scouting, with decision-making processes.

The former pitcher received his degree in operations research and financial engineering with a minor in engineering management systems in 2001 from Princeton University, where he was a four-year member of the Tigers baseball team. He made a record-setting 66 appearances spanning his four-year career from 2008-11 and during his senior year, Grabowski was co-captain of the 2011 Ivy League Championship squad.

Matt, 26, resides in Atlanta.

Gordon Blakeley — Special Assistant to the General Manager

The 2016 season marks Gordon Blakeley's second with the organization and his second as a special assistant to the general manager. Known as one of the most proficient talent evaluators in the game, Blakeley has 25-plus years of experience at the professional level, including spending more than two decades as a member of the New York Yankees baseball operations department.

Blakeley joined the Yankees' baseball operations department in 1994 as the Pacific Rim coordinator and worked in various roles, including spending the last six (2008-14) as a special assistant to the general manager. In 1996, Blakeley was named the director of international scouting, a position he held until he was named vice president of international and professional scouting in 1999. In 2003, Blakeley took on a new role that he remained in through the 2007 season as the vice president of baseball operations.

Blakeley's scouting career began in 1988 with the Seattle Mariners as an area scout. He spent one year as an east coast cross checker and four seasons in a dual role as the international director and a national cross checker.

During his 25-plus years in professional baseball, Blakeley has been instrumental in the signings of such players as Robinson Cano, Jose Contreras, Orlando Hernandez, Hideki Matsui, David Ortiz, Alex Rodriguez, Alfonso Soriano and Chien-Ming Wang.

A native of Los Angeles, Blakeley was a member of the Chapman University baseball team and in 1976 was named to the All-America team as a third baseman, in addition to being selected in 1975 and 1976 as an All-West Coast third baseman. In 1995, Blakeley was named to the Chapman University Hall of Fame.

Blakeley was twice drafted (Oakland A's in 1973 and Kansas City in 1975) before he was drafted and signed with the Detroit Tigers in 1976. He played three seasons in their minor league system.

Gordon and his wife Julie reside in Newnan, Ga. They have five children: Renee, Ben, Jessika, Samantha and Marissa and two grandchildren: Kayanna and Allegra.

Roy Clark — Special Assistant to the General Manager

Roy Clark returned to the Braves organization in October of 2014, taking on a new role as a special assistant to the general manager. Clark, a familiar name in Atlanta's front office, spent 21 years with the Braves, from to 1989 to 2009.

Clark worked the 2014 season as a scouting cross checker with the Los Angeles Dodgers and previous to that, he spent four years, from 2010 to 2013, as assistant general manager and vice president of player personnel for the Washington Nationals.

Clark's previous stint with the Braves spanned 21 seasons and included a variety of roles, including his last 11 years (1999-2009) as the organization's director of scouting. Atlanta won three Organization of the Year awards (1991, 1996, 2005) from Baseball America during his tenure and he was instrumental in the drafting of such players as Jason Heyward, Freddie Freeman, Craig Kimbrel, Brian McCann and Adam Wainwright. Clark originally joined the Braves as an area scout in 1989 and remained in that role through the 1994 season. In 1995, he served as a southeast supervisor and from 1996 to 1999 he was a national supervisor.

During his four-year stint with the Nationals, Clark led the player development department as the team overhauled its player development system and restocked the minor leagues with talented prospects en route to the organization earning recognition from Baseball America in 2012 as the best minor league system in baseball. He was instrumental in selecting outfielder Bryce Harper with the first overall selection in the 2010 First-Year Player Draft, as well as other top draft selections including Anthony Rendon, Alex Meyer, Brian Goodwin, Matt Purke and Lucas Giolito.

Before Clark's first stint with the Braves, he spent a little over one year (1988 and part of 1989) as an area scout for the Cleveland Indians. Previous to that, he worked in the Seattle Mariners organization as a coach (1984) and an area scout (1985-86).

Clark, an All-Atlantic Coast Conference infielder at North Carolina in 1979, was selected by Seattle in the 24th round of the June Draft that same year. He played in the Mariners farm season for four seasons and advanced as high as the Triple-A Pacific Coast League in 1982.

Roy, 58 and his wife Debbie have three children: Justin, Travis and Lauren, and reside in Marietta, Ga.

Tom Giordano — Special Assistant to the General Manager

The 2016 season marks Tom Giordano's 69th season working in professional baseball and his second with the Braves organization. Giordano joined the Braves prior to the start of the 2015 campaign as a special assistant to the general manager.

Giordano's baseball career dates to 1948 when he was signed by the Pittsburgh Pirates as an amateur free agent. He went on to make his Major League debut on September 11, 1953, with the Philadelphia Athletics, but his largest impact over the last six-plus decades in baseball has come as a scout and front office executive. Since the 1979 season, Giordano has made six trips to the World Series, including a championship with Baltimore in 1983 when he was the director of scouting and player development.

Giordano has spent the better part of the last three decades working alongside Braves' president of baseball operations John Hart. Their relationship dates back to 1982 when Giordano hired Hart (out of Orlando's Boone High School) to manage the Baltimore Orioles' rookie-level affiliate Bluefield. Following that hire, their overlap continued for 33 of the last 35 seasons (1982-current), as they both held positions within the baseball operations departments for the Orioles, Indians, Rangers and now the Braves.

Since 1976, Giordano has been a scout, player development executive or special assistant to the general manager for the Orioles, Rangers and Braves. Most recently Giordano spent 13 seasons, from 2002 to 2014, working with the Texas Rangers organization as a scout and senior advisor to the general manager. Previous to his time with the Rangers, Giordano served as a special assignment and pro scout for the Cleveland Indians from 1988 to 2001.

From 1976 to 1987 Giordano worked as the Orioles' director of player development and scouting and is credited with drafting Hall of Famer Cal Ripkin, Jr.

Following six seasons playing at the minor league level, Giordano's professional coaching career began in 1956 as a player-manager for the Milwaukee Braves. He went on to serve as a coach, manager, scout and baseball operations front office executive for the next 12 seasons (1964-75) for the Philadelphia and Kansas City Athletics, Seattle Pilots, Milwaukee Brewers and Montreal Expos.

In 2007, Giordano was named Major League Baseball's East Coast Scout of the Year honor, as voted on by his peers.

The 90-year-old Giordano, a former infielder who is nick-named T'Bone, is a native of Newark, N.J., and was inducted into the Newark, N.J. Athletic Hall of Fame on October 24, 2012.

Tom and his wife of 67 years, Bernice, have two children, Gail and Gene, and reside in Orlando, Florida

Chad MacDonald — Special Assistant to the General Manager

Chad MacDonald is in his second season with the Braves organization as a special assistant to the general manager in 2016. MacDonald, who is in his 24th season in professional baseball, joined the Braves in December 2014 after spending the previous three seasons (2012-14) with the San Diego Padres.

During his three seasons with the Padres organization, MacDonald served as vice president/assistant general manager of player personnel and in his role oversaw all aspects of scouting and the First-Year Player Draft, including negotiating contracts for all amateur players. In addition, MacDonald oversaw the Padres international scouting efforts and assisted the general manager with all Major League acquisitions.

Prior to joining the Padres in November 2011, MacDonald spent one year as the director of scouting for the New York Mets. MacDonald's one-year stint with the Mets is highlighted with the organization's first round (13th overall) selection of high school outfielder Brandon Nimmo, the first player from the state of Wyoming to be selected in the first round.

From December 2005 through the 2010 season, MacDonald served as the assistant scouting director and the director of international scouting for the Arizona Diamondbacks. Prior to that, MacDonald worked as a scout for the Cleveland Indians (2000-02) and the Los Angeles Angels (2003-05). During that span, MacDonald was twice honored as the Topps' Scout of the Month for each organization during the 2001 and 2005 seasons, respectively.

MacDonald's professional career began in 1993 with the Texas Rangers baseball operations department.

A native of Arlington, Texas, MacDonald played four years of college baseball, attending both Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, Texas, and Winthrop University in Rock Hill, S.C.

Chad and his wife Julie have two sons, Caden and Cort, and reside in Arlington, Texas.

Rick Williams — Special Assistant to the General Manager

Rick Williams is in his third season with the Braves organization and his third as a special assistant to the general manager. He joined the club in November 2013 as a special assistant to the general manager/pitching development and special assignment.

Williams, who is in his 39th season of professional baseball having spent time as a player, coach, manager, scout and special assistant, is with his fifth organization. He previously worked for the New York Yankees, Tampa Bay Devil Rays, Montreal Expos and Florida Marlins. Williams came to the Braves from the New York Yankees where he spent the previous seven seasons, from 2007 to 2013, as a Major League scout.

Prior to his tenure with New York, Williams served two separate stints with the Tampa Bay Rays, as he was the Devil Rays' first Major League pitching coach for the 1998 and 1999 seasons, and a portion of the 2000 season. In the Rays' inaugural season, he guided the pitching staff to the fourth-best ERA (4.35) in the American League, the highest rank of any expansion team. In 2005, Williams rejoined the Rays for two seasons as a special assistant to the general manager.

Williams' coaching career began in 1981 with the Expos organization when he served as pitching coach with the Calgary Expos. He remained in a pitching coach role at various levels in the organization until 1987, when he was promoted to Montreal's minor league pitching coordinator, a position he held until 1992. Williams would later return to the Expos in 2002 working in a scouting capacity through the 2004 season.

In 1993, Williams began his first stint with the Florida Marlins, where he worked as a pitching coordinator and pitching coach, including two seasons as the Major League club's assistant pitching coach (1995-96). Following a two-plus year stint with the Rays, Williams returned to the Marlins in 2000, serving as director of player development for the 2000 and 2001 campaigns.

Williams was signed as a non-drafted free-agent by the Montreal Expos in 1977 after playing baseball under the guidance of former Major-League manager Eddie Stanky at the University of South Alabama. He played three years of minor league baseball before an arm injury ended his career.

Williams, 59, is the son of former Major League player and Hall of Fame Manager, Dick Williams.

Rick and his wife Susanne make their home in Tampa, Fla. They have two children, Marissa and Ricky.

Lebi Ochoa — Senior Advisor to Player Development

The 2016 season marks Lebi Ochoa's first year with the Braves organization. Ochoa, who marks his 21st year working in professional baseball in 2016, joined the organization during the 2015 offseason from the Anaheim Angels, where he spent the previous five seasons, from 2010 to 2014, as a Venezuelan scout.

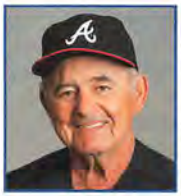
During his 20 prior seasons working in professional baseball, Ochoa has worked as a scout, coach or front office member for five different Major League organizations, including the Montreal Expos, Florida Marlins, Boston Red Sox and Anaheim Angels. Previous to his time with the Angels, Ochoa spent five seasons (1997-2001) as the director of Latin American scouting for the Boston Red Sox. From 1992 to 1996, Ochoa scouted internationally or the Marlins and from 1987 to 1991, Ochoa worked as an international scout for the Montreal Expos. During the 1987 and 1988 seasons, Ochoa also served as a coach for the Expos rookie level team.

During his scouting career, Ochoa is credited with signing such Latin American players as Alex Gonzalez, Hanley Ramirez, Gold Glove Winner Edgar Renteria, and Anibal Sanchez.

The Venezuelan native played professionally for over 20 years as an infielder in the Mexican League and Venezuelan Winter Leagues and also spent five seasons in the minor league systems of the Los Angeles Dodgers and Chicago White Sox.

Lebi, 60, and his wife Noemi reside in Cape Coral, Fla. They have four children, Susana, Rosana, Yohono and Luisana.

Lee Elia — Senior Advisor to Player Development



Lee Elia, who has spent more than 50 years in professional baseball as a player, coach, manager and front office member, is in his sixth season with the Braves organization. Elia, who has been a member of the Braves organization since 2011, took on a new role prior to the 2015 season as a senior advisor to player development. Previous to his current post, Elia served as a special assistant to player development for three seasons, from 2012 to 2014. Elia's first season with the organization came in 2011, when he served as a special assistant to the general manager and as a major and minor league instructor.

Prior to joining the Braves, Elia was a special assistant to the general manager for the Los Angeles Dodgers for two seasons (2009-10). Previous to his stint with the Dodgers, Elia was a member of the Seattle Mariners organization, working as a special assistant to the general manager before taking over as the Club's hitting coach in June 2008. Two weeks later, he was promoted to bench coach and served in a dual role (bench coach and hitting coach) for the remainder of the 2008 season. From 1993 to 1997, Elia also served in a dual role as Seattle's hitting coach and bench coach.

Elia owns four years of Major League managerial experience (238-300, .442) as he piloted the Cubs from 1982 to 1983 and the Phillies from 1987 to 1988. In addition, Elia also served as a coach for the Phillies, Yankees, Blue Jays, Devil Rays and Orioles during his career. During the 1980 season, Elia was the third base coach for the World Series Champion Philadelphia Phillies.

Elia also managed eight seasons in the minor leagues, all with Philadelphia, leading his teams to an overall record of 581-519 (.528). During his tenure as a minor league manager, Elia was honored several times with Manager of the Year awards, including the International League in 1992, the Florida State League in 1991, the Eastern League in 1978 and the Western Carolina League in 1975.

A former infielder, Elia played for the Chicago While Sox and Chicago Cubs in 1966 and 1968, respectively. The Philadelphia native attended the University of Delaware and was signed by his hometown Phillies in 1958 as an amateur free agent. He made his Major League debut on April 23, 1966 and played all but two of his 77 big-league games at shortstop. He was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in 2000 and the Florida State League Hall of Fame in 2014.

Lee, 78, and his wife Priscilla have two daughters, Tana and Ashley, and reside in Odessa, Fla.

Fred McGriff — Special Advisor to Baseball Operations

Fred McGriff, a familiar face within the Braves organization, made his return to the Club in February of 2015 in a support role after spending the 2014 season as a consultant for the Toronto Blue Jays. McGriff also held an advisory role for four seasons, from 2007 to 2010, with the Tampa Bay Rays.

In his role, McGriff attends Major League spring training as an instructor and during the regular season he primarily focuses on professional scouting.

The former first baseman and five-time All-Star enjoyed parts of five seasons with the Braves from 1993 to 1997, which included a World Series Championship in 1995. McGriff played for six different organizations (San Diego, Tampa Bay, Chicago-NL, Los Angeles-NL and Toronto) during his 19-year career (1986-2004) and posted a .284 career batting average, with 493 home runs and 1,550 RBI.

McGriff, 52, resides in Tampa, Fla., with his wife Veronica and two children, Erick and Ericka.

Greg Walker — Special Advisor to Baseball Operations

The 2016 season marks Greg Walker's fifth in the organization and his second as a special advisor to baseball operations. Walker served his first three seasons (2012-14) as the Braves' Major League hitting coach.

In his role, Walker's primary responsibility has him working with the organization's minor league hitters during spring training, as well as traveling to some of the Club's minor league facilities during the regular season.

Under his guidance, the 2013 Braves led the National League in home runs (181) and ranked second in the circuit in walks (542) and slugging percentage (.402).

Walker's presence was immediately felt in 2012, as Braves outfielder Jason Heyward had a resurgent campaign after playing through an injury-plagued sophomore season in 2011. Heyward played in a team-high 158 games and posted career highs in runs (93), doubles (30), home runs (27) and RBI (82), while also swiping a career-best 21 bases.

Prior to joining the organization, Walker served as the hitting coach for the Chicago White Sox for eight-and-a-half seasons, from May 2003 through the 2011 season. He also worked as the hitting coach for Chicago's Triple-A Charlotte affiliate in 2002 and '03.

Walker was a member of the American League All-Star coaching staff in 2006, when the Sox led the majors in home runs (236), slugging percentage (.464) and batting average with runners in scoring position (.307), while ranking third in runs scored (868) and fifth in overall batting average (.280). The 2006 Sox also featured four players with 30-or-more home runs, making them just the third team in A.L. history to accomplish that feat.

Under Walker's guidance, the Sox again led the majors in home runs in 2008, with 235.

As a player, Walker posted a .260 career batting average with 113 home runs and 444 RBI in 855 games over a nine-year career (1982-90) with the White Sox and Baltimore Orioles. He was originally drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in 1977 and was later chosen by the White Sox in the Rule 5 Draft in 1979.

Walker made his Major League debut with a pinch-hit single on September 16, 1982. In 1984 he posted a career-high .294 batting average, with 24 home runs and 75 RBI, followed by 24 homers and 92 RBI in 1985. He established career highs of 27 home runs and 94 RBI in 1987.

He led the A.L. in games played (163) in 1985 and annually ranked among the league leaders in fielding percentage by first basemen. On July 30, 1988, he suffered a life-threatening seizure during batting practice and missed the rest of the season. He returned to play in 77 games in 1989.

Walker was the White Sox 1986 nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award and he received the Chicago Baseball Writers' "Good Guy" Award at their January 1990 Diamond Dinner.

Walker is a native of Douglas, Ga., and still makes his home there with his wife Carman. They have three daughters: Kaycee, Leigh Ann and Lauren. He played baseball and football at Coffee High School and enjoys golf, hunting and fishing.

2015 Season Recap

International League; South Division, 77-67, 2nd place, -1.0

Gwinnett remained in the playoff chase until the penultimate day of the regular season, but settled for a 77-67 record and a second-place finish in the IL's South Division, 1.0 game behind Norfolk (BAL). 2015 marked the G-Braves' first winning season since 2011, and the 77 victories stood as a 12-win improvement over the 2014 campaign. Gwinnett's playoff push was anchored by a 15-4 stretch from July 20 to August 8.

Both the Organizational Player and Pitcher of the Year spent time with Gwinnett over the course of the season, as RHP Tyrell Jenkins and OF Mallex Smith split their respective campaigns between the G-Braves and Double-A Mississippi. Jenkins made nine starts with the G-Braves, compiling a 3-4 record and a 3.57 ERA (18 ER/45.1 IP), while fanning 29. In his Triple-A debut on July 9 vs. Norfolk, he fired 7.0 shutout innings in a 1-0 win. Smith joined the G-Braves from Mississippi on June 24 and hit just .195 over his first 19 games, before batting .313 (63-for-201) with 27 steals in his final 49 games of the season. He led the International League with 41 hits and 13 steals in August to earn the league's Player of the Month honors.

A number of Gwinnett players spent time with Atlanta in 2015, including top pitching prospects Matt Wisler, Mike Foltynewicz and Manny Banuelos. Wisler made 12 starts with Gwinnett before a promotion to Atlanta, going 3-4 with a 4.29 ERA (31 ER/65.0 IP) and picking up a pair of IL Pitcher of the Week awards. Foltynewicz pitched to a 2.08 ERA in his first four starts of the season before joining Atlanta, and ended his season with the G-Braves 1-6 with a 3.49 ERA (22 ER/56.2 IP). Banuelos went 6-2 with a 2.23 ERA (21 ER/84.2 IP) over 16 starts to earn IL All-Star honors and Gwinnett's Pitcher of the Year distinction from the organization. He tossed a two-hit shutout on June 22 vs. Indianapolis, the second shutout of his career.

At the plate for Gwinnett, Adonis Garcia earned Player of the Year honors after batting .284 (94-for-331) with 21 extra-base hits and 47 RBI in 87 games with the club, while Cedric Hunter paced the team with 134 hits, 12 home runs and 77 RBI in 138 games. Christian Bethancourt spent 52 games with Gwinnett between stints with Atlanta, and batted .327 (66-for-202) with four homers and 31 knocked in.

First Half: 33-35, 3rd Place, -10.0; Second Half: 36-32, T2nd Place, -1.0

Mississippi worked to its third consecutive winning season by going 69-67, good for a third-place finish in the Southern League's South Division. The M-Braves went 33-35 in the season's first "half" before responding with a 36-32 record to close the season after the All-Star Break.

For the second straight year, Mississippi played host to both of the organization's Player and Pitcher of the Year award winners, as RHP Tyrell Jenkins and Mallex Smith opened their campaigns with the M-Braves. Jenkins went 5-5 with a 3.00 ERA (31 ER/93.0 IP) over 16 starts to open his season, including a league-leading three complete games. He allowed nine runs in 5.2 innings on May 1 vs. Montgomery, but pitched to a 2.27 ERA (22 ER/87.1 IP) in his other 15 starts, allowing three or more earned runs just three times. Smith opened his season batting .340 (70-for-206) over 57 games with the M-Braves, swiping a team-leading 23 bases and scoring 35 runs. His .340 batting average paced the Southern League at the time of his promotion.

Mississippi pitchers compiled a 3.55 ERA throughout the season, second-best among all Southern League staffs. RHP Victor Mateo anchored the rotation during the 18 starts (19 appearances) he made for the club, going 6-6 with a 2.68 ERA (32 ER/107.1 IP) to earn Pitcher of the Year honors from the organization. RHP Lucas Sims, Atlanta's first-round pick from the 2012 June draft, made his Double-A debut and went 4-2 with a 3.21 ERA over nine starts, including a 0.88 ERA (3 ER/30.2 IP) over his last five outings.

Player of the Year INF Emerson Landoni finished the season with a .297 (122-for-411) batting average which ranked seventh in the Southern League, and led the M-Braves (among qualifying players). The middle infielder tallied a team-leading 122 hits in 118 games, while also pacing the club in doubles (tied, 23), runs scored (53) and total bases (156). INF Rio Ruiz spent his first season in the organization with the Double-A club, and poked 98 hits and drew a team-best 63 walks on the season. Tabbed by Baseball America as Atlanta's 10th-best prospect entering the year, Ruiz batted .289 with a .370 OBP over his final 38 games.

2015 Season Recap

Appalachian League; East Division, 34-34, 3rd Place, -11.0

Danville flirted with playoff contention for the entirety of the 2015 season before ultimately falling short, tallying a 34-34 record and a third-place finish in the standings. The D-Braves closed the gap down the stretch, going 7-3 in their final 10 games of the campaign and posting a 20-14 record at home on the season.

For the second consecutive season the D-Braves hosted three of the Appy League's top 20 prospects as rated by Baseball America, including a pair of Atlanta's 2015 draft selections. INF Austin Riley was tabbed by the publication as the second-best prospect in the league after being taken by the Braves with the 41st pick in the 2015 draft. Riley earned Danville's Player of the Year distinction after pacing the D-Braves in batting average (.351, 39-for-111), home runs (5), and OPS (1.028) and tying for second in RBI (19), despite playing in just 30 games for the club.

RHP Mike Soroka, Atlanta's second selection in the 2015 draft (28th overall), checked in as the No. 8 prospect in the league according to Baseball America after going 0-2 with a 3.75 ERA in six starts for Danville, and posting a 3.18 ERA in 10 total outings in his first professional season. OF Ronald Acuna batted .290 (20-for-69) with a .388 OBP in 18 games for Danville and was named the league's 14th-best prospect.

RHP Ryan Clark was named Danville's Pitcher of the Year after posting a 6-1 record and a 3.08 ERA in 13 games (7 starts). Clark, Atlanta's fifth-round selection in the 2015 June free agent draft, paced the Danville staff with six wins, which were tied for second-most in the Appalachian League.

2015 SEASON IN REVIEW

2015 Season In Review

In the franchise's 50th year in Atlanta, the Braves finished the 2015 season 67-95 and in fourth place in the National League East. The .413 winning percentage represented the club's second straight losing season (79-83 in 2014), but just their fourth losing campaign in the last 25 seasons (since 1991). The team had success at home, going 42-39 (.519), the sixth-consecutive season the club finished above .500 at Turner Field. They especially were good in close games in Atlanta, setting a MLB record by winning each of their last 20 home games that were decided by one run. The club struggled on the road, however, finishing a MLB-worst 25-56 (.309) away from Turner Field.

After an offseason that saw the Braves trade away three All-Stars, the club opened the season with only six players who were on the 2014 roster. The roster upheaval continued throughout the summer, as the team used 60 different players, the second most all-time and trailing only the 64 the 2014 Texas Rangers utilized. Thirteen Atlanta pitchers made their MLB debuts in 2015, the most for a single team since 1915, and the club also used a league-high 17 different rookies pitchers. The team's youth was evident especially in the starting rotation, with pitchers aged 25 or younger making 151 starts, the fourth-highest total in the last 100 years. The next closest team in 2015, Cincinnati, had 103 such starts. In total, Atlanta used a MLB-high 15 pitchers aged 25 or younger, with those pitchers throwing 1,036 innings. It marked just the second time since 2000 a team got at least 1,000 innings from pitchers 25 or younger.

Despite the staff's inexperience, rookies accounted for 28 of the team's 67 wins, which was the most in the Majors. The team also got encouraging performances out of its established starters. Right-handers Shelby Miller and Julio Teheran headlined the team's rotation, with each surpassing the 200 inning mark. Teheran, who went 5-2 with a 2.95 ERA over his final 12 starts, became the first Braves pitcher with back-to-back 200-inning seasons since Tim Hudson in 2010 and 2011. While Miller endured a franchise-record 24-game winless streak and a 16-game losing skid on his way to a 6-17 (.261) record, his 3.02 ERA (11th-best in the NL) was the lowest for a player who qualified for the ERA title with as low a winning percentage since 1917. The right-hander also made his first All-Star game while striking out a career-most 171.

On the offensive side, manager Fredi Gonzalez, who collected his 700th managerial win on the last day of the season, used 140 different lineups, with the most common lineup being employed only six times all season. Despite leading the National League with 5.45 plate appearances per strikeout, the team scored a MLB-worst 573 runs and finished last in the Majors with 100 home runs. They were able, however, to win 17 times in games when they only scored two runs or fewer, which tied for the most in the Majors with the Chicago Cubs' total. This was on full display from September 18-September 30, when the club won five straight home games, scoring two runs in each to become only the second team in MLB history with as long a streak at home with two or fewer runs in each win. The team also went 28-18 (.609) in one-run games, finishing with MLB's fourth-best record in such contests.

Defensively, the club was led by strong play up the middle from shortstop Andrelton Simmons, who won the Fielding Bible's award for best defensive shortstop, and second baseman Jace Peterson. The Braves led the Majors by turning 186 double plays, with Simmons involved in 126 of them, which ranked as the second most from a shortstop in Atlanta-era history. The Braves pitching staff also picked off 18 runners, tied for the second most in the Majors. And right fielder Nick Markakis set an all-time MLB record for any non-pitcher on June 18 by playing his 393rd consecutive errorless game. His run stretched to 398 games before he finally misplayed a ball on June 25 at Washington.

The Braves started the season strong, collecting their first season-opening series sweep since 2007 with three wins in Miami and beginning 5-0 for just the third time since moving to Atlanta. The team continued to play well through May, ending the month at 25-25 and three games out of first place in the NL East. But the team struggled in June. From June 2-June 5, they lost three straight games in which they scored at least six runs in each for the first time in 70 years. They closed out the month losing six of seven games to fall a season-worst five games under .500.

The club entered July winning six of the first seven games, with their only loss coming in a 4-0, 10-inning game at home vs. Philadelphia. That contest marked the 10th time in Atlanta-era history the Braves were held scoreless in an extra-inning game and the only time they did not lose 1-0. But the Braves lost five straight heading into the All-Star break, and also saw closer Jason Grilli suffer a season-ending Achilles injury on July 11. They finished the first-half of the season, 42-47, and in third place in the NL East, seven games out of first. The club also used the break to announce one-year contract extensions for Gonzalez and his coaching staff.

The Braves continued to struggle after the break in July, losing eight of the final nine games in the month. They also completed two trades, one on July 24 and the other on July 30, and after play on July 31, the active 25-man roster included only 11 players who were on the Opening Day version.

In August, the club made two more trades, acquiring Nick Swisher and Michael Bourn from Cleveland and also sending Jonny Gomes to Kansas City. The switch-hitting Swisher immediately made an impact, hitting a home run from both sides of the plate on August 22 at Wrigley Field. It was the 14th time he accomplished the feat and moved him into a tie for the most such games in Major League history. But the Braves lost all four games at Wrigley, the first time the Cubs completed a four-game sweep of Atlanta since 1968.

The club continued to lose ground in the standings, suffering through a 12-game losing streak from August 25-September 13. The skid marked the Braves' longest single-season losing streak since 1977. The Braves also lost a franchise-record 12 straight at home, becoming the sixth team since 1969 with as long a skid at home in a season.

Despite the rough stretch, the team finished strong, winning 10 of its final 15 games. Pitching fueled the season-closing run, as the staff compiled a 2.61 ERA over the stretch and allowed just two earned runs over the final six games. The club ended on a particularly high note, holding St. Louis scoreless over the final three games of the season, including during a season-concluding doubleheader on October 4. The trio of shutouts in a three-game series marked just the second time in Atlanta-era history the team accomplished such a feat. It was also the first time the team ended the season with a doubleheader since 1961.

Following the season, the Braves named John Coppolella the 12th General Manager in franchise history. After nine seasons with the club, Coppolella received a four-year contract that will run through the 2019 season, and will carry the Braves through their first three seasons at SunTrust Park.

Braves In The World Series

1914 World Series - Boston 4, Philadelphia 0

Manager George Stallings' "Miracle Braves," who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the Series, including a homer, triple, three doubles and a single.

1948 World Series - Cleveland 4, Boston 2

The Braves, under manager Billy Southworth, won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost in the World Series to Lou Boudreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, a Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in Game 5, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive home runs off Feller.

1957 World Series - Milwaukee 4, New York 3

Sensational Lew Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' 10th-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days' rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958 World Series - New York 4, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come back from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the Fall Classic. Hank Bauer led the Yankees with 10 hits and eight RBI, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two games and Lew Burdette one for the Braves.

1991 World Series - Minnesota 4, Atlanta 3

After completing their unprecedented ascents from last place in 1990 to the World Series in 1991, the Braves and Twins staged a Fall Classic epic. Four of the last five games were decided on the final pitch and five by one run, with three games going into extra innings. The Twins captured the first two contests at Minnesota before the Braves roared back by sweeping all three games in Atlanta. Braves' consensus MVP Mark Lemke was the catalyst, as he singled in the game-winning run in Game 3, scored the game-winner in Game 4 and tripled twice in Game 5 on the way to a .417 Series batting average. Lonnie Smith also became the first NL player in Series history to homer in three straight games. The Braves returned to Minnesota needing just one more win, but Kirby Puckett and Series MVP Jack Morris led the Twins to consecutive wins and the championship.

1992 World Series - Toronto 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves literally became "America's Team" as they met the Toronto Blue Jays in the first International World Series, with the Jays claiming the championship in six games. Atlanta suffered four one-run defeats, giving the Braves seven consecutive one-run losses in World Series play (the last three setbacks to the Twins in 1991 were also by one run). The Braves began the Series in positive fashion, beating '91 Series nemesis Jack Morris in the opener, 3-1, behind Damon Berryhill's sixth-inning, three-run homer and complete game, four-hitter by Tom Glavine. Toronto answered back in Game 2 with a comeback 5-4 win, sparked by a ninth-inning, pinch-hit homer by Ed Sprague. The Jays saw the momentum of their comeback win carry over to Toronto, limiting the Braves to a total of four runs over Games 3 and 4, giving the Jays a commanding three-games-to-one lead. Lonnie Smith's grand slam sparked a 7-2 win in Game 5 to keep the Braves' hopes alive. The Series returned to Atlanta, and the Braves were able to tie Game 6 in the bottom of the ninth on an Otis Nixon single, but the Jays prevailed, 4-3 in 11 innings, leaving the Braves as runners-up for the second consecutive year. Deion Sanders starred for the Braves in defeat, hitting .533 (8-for-15) with five stolen bases.

1995 World Series - Atlanta 4, Cleveland 2

The Braves captured Atlanta's first championship in a major professional sport by defeating 100-game winner Cleveland in six games. Atlanta's pitching held the American League hitting leaders to a .179 batting average. Tom Glavine earned MVP honors as he notched wins in Game 2 and the decisive Game 6, allowing two earned runs and striking out 11 in 14 innings. The Braves captured Game 1 of the series at home, 3-2, behind Greg Maddux's two-hitter, Fred McGriff's homer in his first World Series at-bat and a Rafael Belliard suicide squeeze bunt. In Game 2 Glavine picked up a 4-3 win as catcher Javy Lopez slugged a game-deciding two-run homer. Cleveland took Game 3 at home, 7-6, in 11 innings, with John Smoltz lasting only 2.1 innings. After falling to Atlanta in Game 4, 5-2, behind a fine pitching effort by Steve Avery, the Indians avoided elimination at home by defeating Maddux, 5-4, in Game 5. The Braves won their first World Series in three tries since moving to Atlanta by winning Game 6, 1-0, behind Glavine's superb one-hit, eight-inning performance. David Justice provided the offense with a dramatic right-field home run blast in the sixth inning, and Mark Wohlers nailed down the save, his second of the series. Marquis Grissom collected nine hits in the series, giving him 25 postseason hits (11 Division Series, 5 NLCS), the most ever in a postseason. Grissom hit safely in all 14 postseason contests, the longest streak ever in one postseason. Third baseman Chipper Jones finished the postseason 19-for-53 (.358, 3 HR), setting a major league record for postseason hits by a rookie. Ryan Klesko became the first player ever to homer in three straight World Series road games. It was the third World Championship in the history of the franchise, making the Braves the first team in history to win world titles in three different cities, the '95 Braves joining their predecessors in Boston (1914) and Milwaukee (1957).

The Braves celebrate after winning the 1995 World Series in six games over Cleveland.

All signs pointed towards a second straight World Championship for the Braves as Atlanta captured the first two games in Yankee Stadium, but an inspired New York team rallied to win the last four contests and the title. Andruw Jones became an immediate World Series legend as he homered in his first two at-bats in Game 1 (3-for-4, 2 HR, 5 RBI), leading the Braves to a 12-1 triumph. Oakland's Gene Tenace (1972) is the only other player to perform that feat. At 19 years, 6 months and 28 days, Jones became the youngest player ever to homer in a Fall Classic. Greg Maddux shut down the Yankees in Game 2, 4-0, allowing only six hits and no walks in 8.0 innings. Of the 24 outs recorded by Maddux, two were strikeouts and 21 others came on ground balls. Fred McGriff had three RBI in Game 2, after getting two in Game 1, to give him 15 RBI for the postseason, a new major league mark. He finished with 16 RBI in the postseason. Including the final three victories over the Cardinals in the LCS, Atlanta had outscored its opponents, 48-2, in its last five games. In Atlanta, the Yankees' Bernie Williams broke a 1-1 tie with a two-run homer in the eighth inning of Game 3, leading New York to a 5-2 win. In Game 4, the Braves held a 6-0 lead entering the 6th inning, but three in half. Still, the Braves held a 6-3 lead in the eighth, when New York's Jim Leyritz reached Mark Wohlers for a three-run homer to tie the game at 6-6. Two 10th-inning runs by the Yankees proved decisive, and the Series was knotted at two games each after the longest game by time (4 hours, 17 minutes) in World Series history. The final game ever played in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium saw New York's Andy Pettitte outduel John Smoltz 1-0 in Game 5, with the only score coming on a fourth-inning unearned run. The Series returned to New York, where the Yankees wrapped up the championship by tagging Maddux for three runs in the third in their 3-2 victory. The Braves lost the Series despite standout performances by their top three starting pitchers (Smoltz: 0.64 ERA; Maddux: 1.72 ERA; Glavine: 1.29 ERA), and individual heroics on offense by Marquis Grissom (.444 BA) and Andruw Jones (.400 BA).

Fred McGriff and Javy Lopez greet Andruw Jones at home plate following the rookie's three-run homer in Game 1 of the 1996 World Series.

1999 World Series - New York 4, Atlanta 0

In a rematch of the 1996 World Series, the Braves were held to just nine runs in a four-game sweep by the Yankees. Greg Maddux carried a 1-0 lead into the eighth inning of Game 1, thanks to a Chipper Jones homer in the fourth, but the Yankees parlayed three hits, three walks and two errors into four runs for a 4-1 victory. Jones' homer was Atlanta's only hit in the contest until Bret Boone's ninth-inning single. After the offense's two-hit performance in Game 1, manager Bobby Cox shook up the lineup, inserting Ozzie Guillen, Keith Lockhart and Greg Myers, but were held scoreless until the ninth inning of a 7-2 loss. Kevin Millwood was tagged for five runs (four ER) on eight hits in only 2.0 IP, marking his shortest outing of the season. A change of venue initially aided the offense in Game 3 at New York, as Bret Boone stroked three doubles in the first four innings to lead the Braves to a 5-1 lead. A flu-weakened Tom Glavine allowed solo homers to Chad Curtis in the fifth and Tino Martinez in the seventh to narrow Atlanta's lead to 5-3, before the Yankees tied the score at 5-5 in the eighth on a two-run homer by Chuck Knoblauch, knocking Glavine out of the game. A scoreless ninth sent the contest into extra frames, with Curtis striking again, this time belting a leadoff homer off Mike Remlinger to give the Yankees their third straight win. The Braves, despite collecting 14 hits, were blanked over the final six innings. In Game 4, Roger Clemens shutout Atlanta over the first seven innings and the Yankees' three-run third proved decisive in the 4-1 finale. John Smoltz provided a stellar effort (7.0 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 3 BB, 11 K), but couldn't prevent the Braves' eighth straight loss in the World Series, dating back to Game 3 of the 1996 Fall Classic.

1991 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Pittsburgh 3

Led by the sensational pitching of Steve Avery and John Smoltz, Atlanta overcame a three-games-to-two deficit on the road and won its first-ever National League pennant. Avery landed MVP honors after setting an NLCS record with 16.1 scoreless innings while winning 1-0 decisions in Games 2 and 6; Smoltz fired a six-hit shutout in Game 7 in the Braves' 4-0 clincher. In the best pitching exhibition ever seen in NLCS play, Braves' hurlers held the Pirates scoreless the last 22 innings of the series, and the last 27 innings at Pittsburgh, on the way to a 1.57 series ERA against the league's top offense.

1992 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Pittsburgh 3

Series MVP John Smoltz allowed one run on four hits over 8.0 innings in a 5-1 Braves win in the opener, and Ron Gant's grand slam highlighted a 13-5 pounding of the Pirates in Game 2. The Bucs captured Game 3, 3-2 behind Tim Wakefield's knuckleball, but Smoltz and the Braves won Game 4, 6-4. Pittsburgh evened the playoffs at three games each with 7-1 and 13-4 wins in the next two games, respectively, to set the stage for Game 7 drama. Francisco Cabrera's pinch-hit, two-out single in the bottom of the ninth scored the tying and winning runs in the Braves' miraculous 3-2 win. With their improbable ninth-inning comeback, climaxed by Cabrera's hit and Sid Bream's slide home, the Braves made history, becoming the first Major League team to win a decisive postseason game while trailing before the final pitch.

1993 League Championship Series - Philadelphia 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves saw their two-year reign as National League champions come to an end when the Phillies prevailed in a six-game series. Atlanta rebounded from losing the opener and scored 23 runs over the next two games to take a two-games-to-one advantage. Danny Jackson outdueled John Smoltz in Game 4 to even the series at two games each. In Game 5, the Braves scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth to tie the contest, but Phillies' outfielder Lenny Dykstra hit a 10th-inning homer that gave the Phillies the victory and a one game lead as the series returned to Philadelphia. Atlanta's hopes for a seventh game were dashed in the first inning of Game 6, when Greg Maddux was hobbled after being struck by a Mickey Morandini line drive. The Phillies won the pennant with a 6-3 victory in Game 6. Fred McGriff led the Braves with a .435 series batting average.

1995 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Cincinnati 0

The Braves returned to the World Series for the third time in the last four Fall Classics by sweeping the Reds with the first four-game sweep in NLCS history. Atlanta won Game 1 at Cincinnati in 11 innings, 2-1, after rallying to tie the game in the top of the ninth. Series MVP Mike Devereaux, an August acquisition from the Chicago White Sox, provided the game-winning single in the 11th. Game 2 also was forced into extra frames as the Braves prevailed in 10, 6-2. Javy Lopez provided the finishing touches with a three-run home run in the 10th. Back in Atlanta, Greg Maddux held the Reds to one run over eight innings on the way to a 5-2 victory in Game 3. Rookie sensation Chipper Jones went 3-for-4 with a home run and two RBI, and catcher Charlie O'Brien also added a three-run homer. Starting pitcher Steve Avery nailed down the sweep in Game 4 by leading the Braves to a 6-0 shutout. Avery became the first pitcher in NLCS annals to start three shutouts (also Games 3 and 6 in 1991). Devereaux, forced into the starting lineup after an ailing knee sidelined right fielder David Justice, hit a three-run homer in the seventh inning.

1996 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, St. Louis 3

The Braves added another chapter to their postseason saga by becoming the first NL team to rebound from a three-games-to-one deficit in the LCS, as they crushed the Cardinals 32-1 over the final three games. Game 1 saw Javy Lopez break a tie in the eighth with a bases-loaded, two-run single, giving the Braves a 4-2 win behind John Smoltz. Chipper Jones led the attack by going 4-for-4, and Mark Wohlers recorded his fourth save in four appearances in the '96 postseason. The momentum in the series shifted in Game 2 when Gary Gaetti's seventh-inning grand slam off Greg Maddux turned a 4-3 Cards' lead into an 8-3 victory. In Game 3, Ron Gant homered twice to account for all the Cards' runs in a 3-2 win. Atlanta seemed to be in control in Game 4, leading 3-0 behind Denny Neagle with two outs and no one on in the St. Louis seventh, but the Redbirds fought back to tie the score, then claimed the lead for good in the eighth on a solo shot by Brian Jordan. With their backs to the wall in Game 5, the Braves struck for five first-inning runs in a 14-0 win, sending the series back to Atlanta. Lopez went 4-for-5 with two doubles and a homer, while Mark Lemke added four hits and Fred McGriff homered in the club's LCS-record 22-hit attack. In Game 6, Maddux blanked the Cardinals through seven innings en route to a 3-1 win. Mark Wohlers' eighth-inning wild pitch accounted for the only Cardinals run in the last three games. In Game 7 the outcome was never in doubt after the Braves scored six in the first, capped by Tom Glavine's three-run triple past a diving Gant. The 15-0 rout broke the Braves' own LCS record for runs in a game and sent Atlanta to its fourth World Series in the last five played. Lopez won MVP honors, batting .542 (13-for-24) with five doubles, two HRs and six RBI.

1997 League Championship Series - Florida 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves, appearing in a record sixth straight LCS, were denied their third straight World Series berth when the Florida Marlins upended Atlanta in six games. Atlanta lost the series despite outhitting Florida .253 to .199. Greg Maddux, who allowed only one unearned run all season, took the loss in Game 1 when the Marlins reached him for five runs, all unearned, in a 5-3 loss. Tom Glavine combined with Mike Cather and Mark Wohlers to hold the Marlins to three hits in a 7-1 victory in Game 2, as Ryan Klesko and Chipper Jones both homered to lead the Braves' 13-hit attack. With the series shifting to Miami, the Marlins took a two-games-to-one advantage with a 5-2 triumph in Game 3, as Charles Johnson broke a 2-2 tie with a three-run double off John Smoltz in the sixth inning. Game 4 saw Denny Neagle blank the Marlins on four hits, 4-0, enabling the Braves to even the series 2-2. Combined with his 3.0 scoreless innings in relief in Game 1, Neagle pitched 12.0 innings of shutout ball in the NLCS, allowing only five hits. Livan Hernandez gave the Marlins the upper hand with a complete-game, 2-1 victory in Game 5, allowing only three hits and notching a NLCS-record 15 strikeouts. The Marlins won the pennant when the series returned to Atlanta by taking a 7-4 decision in Game 6, sparked by a four-run first inning against Glavine. Keith Lockhart led the Braves by hitting .500 (8-for-16).

	Eddie Perez	2	'99 (2)
	Brian Jordan	2	'99 (2)

Atlanta fought back from a three-games-to-none deficit, but fell short of an unprecedented comeback as the Padres prevailed in six games. The Braves entered the bottom of the ninth of Game 1 trailing 2-1, before tying the game against star closer Trevor Hoffman on Andruw Jones' sacrifice fly. Ken Caminiti responded in the top of the 10th with a solo shot off Kerry Ligtenberg, giving the Padres a 3-2 victory. Kevin Brown gave the Padres a spectacular effort in Game 2, holding the Braves to three singles in a 3-0 triumph, marking the first time since 1969 the Braves had dropped the first two games of an NLCS at home. Atlanta's offense didn't benefit immediately with the change of scenery as the series moved west, with San Diego taking a commanding lead with a 4-1 victory over a Braves squad that had managed only three runs over the first 28 innings of the series. Clutch hitting remained elusive, with the Braves loading the bases three times in Game 3 without managing to score in any of those opportunities. Atlanta appeared to be on the verge of being swept in Game 4 when, trailing 3-2 in the seventh inning, the offense finally awoke with a six-run outburst, with an Andres Galarraga grand slam capping the 8-3 win. The Braves repeated late-inning heroics in the eighth inning of Game 5 when Michael Tucker erased a 4-2 deficit with a three-run homer off Kevin Brown, who was appearing in a rare relief role for the Padres. Atlanta took a three-run lead into the bottom of the ninth, but a two-run homer by Padres' pinch-hitter Greg Myers sliced the margin to a single run. Greg Maddux came out to make his first relief appearance since 1987 and set the Padres down in order to register his first professional save. Upon return of the series to Atlanta, the offense once again went dormant, as LCS MVP Sterling Hitchcock and four relievers stopped the Braves in Game 6 on two hits, 5-0. All the runs crossed the plate in the sixth inning, as Tom Glavine was victimized by three unearned runs. Failure to produce any type of offense at home sealed the Braves' fate, with the team being held to two runs in 28 innings at Turner Field. Padres hurlers held the Braves scoreless over the final 19 frames of the series.

The Braves bench greets Andruw Jones after the outfielder scored a run in the 1998 NLCS.

The Braves clinched their fifth NL pennant of the 1990s with an 11-inning, 10-9 triumph over the Mets in Game 6 in Atlanta. It concluded a thrilling series that first saw Atlanta come within four outs of a four-game sweep and would later see New York draw to within three outs of forcing a seventh game. Game 1 proved to be the only contest not decided by one run, with Greg Maddux (7.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 2 K) picking up the 4-2 victory and John Rocker recording the save. In Game 2, Brian Jordan and Eddie Perez blasted two-run homers in the bottom of the sixth to turn a 2-0 deficit into a 4-2 lead that the Braves would never relinquish. Kevin Millwood supplied another strong effort (7.1 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 2 ER, 1 BB, 4 K), with Rocker coming on to douse an eighth-inning fire after the Mets posted an unearned run to make the score 4-3. With the tying run on second and one out, Rocker fanned John Olerud and Robin Ventura (sandwiching an intentional walk to Mike Piazza), and gave way in the ninth to John Smoltz, who fired a 1-2-3 frame to notch the save in his first major league relief outing. After the LCS shifted to New York, the Braves scored an unearned run in the first inning of Game 3, and watched Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 7 H, 0 R, 1 BB, 8 K), Mike Remlinger and Rocker make it stand up in a 1-0 victory that gave the Braves a commanding three-game lead in the series. Game 4 saw the Braves carry a 2-1 lead into the bottom of the eighth, but Olerud's two-out, two-run single plated the tying and go-ahead runs, spoiling a superb outing by Smoltz (ND, 7.1 IP, 4 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 0 BB, 7 K). The Mets sent the series back to Atlanta after prevailing in a 15-inning marathon in Game 5, 4-3, which entered the record books as the longest game in terms of time in major league post-season history. The Braves took a 3-2 lead in the top of the 15th on a two-out RBI triple by Keith Lockhart, but saw the Mets — who hadn't scored since a two-run homer by Olerud in the first — rally for two runs in the bottom of the frame on a bases-loaded walk to Todd Pratt and a Ventura drive over the right field fence that was ruled an RBI single when he left the basepaths. It appeared as if the Braves had finally put the Mets away with a five-run first inning when the series returned to Atlanta for Game 6, but New York battled back to knot the score at 7-7 on a two-run Piazza blast in the seventh off reliever Smoltz, and took the lead in the top of the eighth on a Melvin Mora pinch-hit RBI single. A Brian Hunter run-scoring single in the bottom of the inning tied the score again at 8-8. The contest carried into extra innings, with Todd Pratt's sacrifice fly in the 10th putting the Mets within three outs of a seventh game. Ozzie Guillen responded in the bottom of the 10th with an RBI single off Armando Benitez, against whom the Braves were 1-for-30 all year before the 10th-inning rally, making it a 9-9 contest. The Braves finally settled the issue in the bottom of the 11th when Andruw Jones worked a bases-loaded walk off reliever Kenny Rogers, sending Atlanta to its fifth World Series of the 1990s. Eddie Perez earned MVP honors after batting .500 (10-for-20) with two homers and five RBI.

2001 League Championship Series - Arizona 4, Atlanta 1

The Braves, appearing in their record 11th NLCS, were unable to solve the Diamondbacks' vaunted one-two tandem of Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling, as Arizona captured its first pennant in a 4-1 series victory. The Braves managed only three hits in a 2-0 Johnson shutout in the opener at Phoenix, but did salvage a split of the first two road games as Javy Lopez's two-run homer in the seventh snapped a 1-1 tie, with Atlanta going on to an 8-1 win in Game 2. Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 2 K) notched the Braves only win of the series. Schilling turned in a dominating effort in the Diamondbacks' 5-1 victory in Game 3 in Atlanta, limiting the Braves to four hits in a complete game effort, while striking out 12. The Braves took a 2-0 lead through two innings as they attempted to even the series in Game 4, but three Atlanta errors aided a four-run D-Back third, giving them a lead they never relinquished in an 11-4 win and a commanding three-games-to-one lead in the series. The Braves committed four miscues overall, leading to six unearned Arizona runs. Arizona completed the three-game sweep in Atlanta and advanced to the World Series with a 3-2 triumph in Game 5, with the D-Backs again capitalizing on a Braves error to tally two unearned runs in the fifth inning that proved to be decisive. While not as effective as in his Game 1 shutout, Johnson still held the Braves to two runs over seven innings, giving him a 1.13 ERA in two starts in the series (16.0 IP, 2 ER, 19 K).

Braves In The Division Series

1995 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Colorado 1

In the first year of the expanded-playoff format, the Braves drew wild-card entry Colorado in the best-of-five-series. The series opened at Coors Field in dramatic fashion as the Braves won 5-4. Rookie Chipper Jones swatted his second homer of the game in the ninth inning to give the Braves the lead, and Alejandro Pena and Mark Wohlers held it after the Rockies loaded the bases in the bottom of the ninth with one out. Atlanta staged another rally in Game 2, prevailing 7-4, after trailing 4-3 in the ninth. Marquis Grissom hit two homers in the contest, his second and third of the series. In Atlanta, the Rockies avoided the sweep by hammering two homers and nine hits on the way to a 7-5 win in Game 3. Greg Maddux, Grissom and Fred McGriff led the Braves to a 10-4 victory in Game 4, sending the team to its third straight NLCS appearance. Grissom collected five hits in the finale, setting a franchise record for postseason hits in a game. Fred McGriff hit two homers in the contest.

1996 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Los Angeles 0

Despite hitting only .180 and being held to 10 runs, the Braves swept the Dodgers in three games, as the staff allowed only three earned runs in 28.0 IP (0.96 ERA). Game 1 in LA saw the Braves continue their tradition of one-run postseason games, as Javy Lopez's 10th-inning homer lifted the team to a 2-1 victory. John Smoltz earned the win, while Mark Wohlers pitched a scoreless 10th inning for the save. In Game 2, Fred McGriff's lead-off HR in the seventh tied the game at 2-2 and, one out later, Jermaine Dye hit another roundtripper to account for the games' final run. Greg Maddux allowed only two unearned runs in 7.0 IP to earn the win, and Wohlers recorded his second save in two games, as the Braves headed back to Atlanta with a two-games-to-none lead. Atlanta completed the sweep as Tom Glavine and Chipper Jones (two-run homer) led the Braves to a 5-2 triumph. Jones' blast followed a two-run double by Mark Lemke, capped a four-run fourth inning, and knocked out Dodgers starter Hideo Nomo.

1997 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 0

The Braves registered their second consecutive Division Series sweep, taking three straight from the Astros. Atlanta never trailed in the series, outscoring Houston, 19-5. Game 1 saw a vintage performance by Greg Maddux in a 2-1 victory, the decisive run coming on a homer by Ryan Klesko in the second inning. The Braves cruised to an easy 13-5 win in Game 2, as the offense broke a 3-3 tie with three runs in the fifth and five more in the sixth. In addition to collecting 10 hits in the contest, the Braves also received 10 walks, including eight issued by starter Mike Hampton. The Braves applied the knockout blow to the Astros in Game 3 at Houston, as John Smoltz went the distance in a dominating three-hitter, taking a 4-1 decision. Braves starters Maddux, Glavine and Smoltz combined for a 1.87 series ERA (3 ER in 24.0 IP).

1998 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Chicago 0

For the third straight season, the Braves recorded a sweep in the Division Series, this time over the Cubs. Dating back to the final game of the 1995 first-round series vs. the Rockies, the Braves had posted 10 straight wins in Division Series competition. Michael Tucker's two-run homer proved to be all the support needed by John Smoltz in Game 1, as the Braves cruised to a 7-1 victory. Ryan Klesko's seventh-inning grand slam accounted for Atlanta's final four tallies. Game 2 featured a classic pitching duel between Tom Glavine and Kevin Tapani, with the Cubs clinging to a 1-0 lead entering the bottom of the ninth. Javy Lopez then blasted a one-out homer, sending the contest into extra innings. In the bottom of the 10th, Chipper Jones delivered a one-out single to plate the winning run and send the Braves to Chicago with a 2-0 series lead. Former Cub Greg Maddux and rookie phenom Kerry Wood faced off in Game 3. Maddux, who led off the third with a double and came around to score on a passed ball, clung to a 1-0 lead through seven innings. The Braves put the game out of reach with a five-run eighth, highlighted by an Eddie Perez grand slam. The Cubs touched Maddux for two runs in the eighth, but Kerry Ligtenberg pitched two scoreless innings and sent the Braves to their record seventh straight NLCS.

1999 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 1

The Braves rebounded from a 6-1 loss in Game 1 to take three straight from the Astros and advance to their record eighth straight NLCS. Atlanta's offense managed only one run on seven hits in the opener in Atlanta, with Greg Maddux absorbing the defeat. Kevin Millwood stepped up in Game 2 and turned in a masterpiece, hurling the fifth one-hitter in postseason history as the Braves evened the series with a 5-1 victory. Millwood allowed only a second-inning homer to Ken Caminiti. Eddie Perez plated the go-ahead run with a sixth-inning sacrifice fly. The series shifted to Houston, where the two clubs put on an extra-inning postseason classic in Game 3. Atlanta escaped with a 5-3 victory as Brian Jordan supplied all five runs, courtesy of a three-run, sixth-inning homer (erasing a 2-0 deficit), followed by a two-run double in the 12th. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the 10th, the Astros loaded the bases with no one out, only to see John Rocker come in and slam the door, with stellar support from shortstop Walt Weiss. Weiss saved the Braves with a diving stop of a one-out Tony Eusebio liner up the middle, which resulted in a force at home, followed by a Rocker strikeout of Ricky Gutierrez to end the frame. After Jordan's go-ahead double in the 12th, Kevin Millwood was brought in from the bullpen and registered the save with a 1-2-3 inning. Braves appeared to have the series sewed up thanks to a five-run sixth in Game 4, giving Atlanta a 7-0 lead, only to see Houston storm back to narrow the Braves' lead to 7-5 in the eighth, with Caminiti striking the big blow with a three-run homer. A leadoff walk to Stan Javier in the bottom of the ninth again brought the tying run to the plate, but Rocker fanned Jeff Bagwell and Carl Everett, before Andruw Jones ran down a Caminiti blast to the warning track to end the series.

2000 Division Series - St. Louis 3, Atlanta 0

The Cardinals jumped on Braves' starters Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine and Kevin Millwood and cruised to a three-game sweep of the Braves, who had won five straight Division Series entering this one. The Redbirds set the tone for the series in the bottom of the first of Game 1, striking for six runs off Maddux, although a Chipper Jones error accounted for two of those tallies being unearned. Cardinals starter Rick Ankiel's bout of wildness (four walks, five wild pitches) contributed to the Braves' four-run rally in the third inning, narrowing the deficit to 6-4. Four Cardinal relievers held the Braves in check thereafter, however, allowing only a ninth-inning run as St. Louis claimed a 7-5 victory. In Game 2, the Braves scored two runs in the top of the first, but Will Clark's three-run homer in the bottom of the frame quickly erased the Braves' only lead of the series. Tom Glavine was tagged for seven earned runs in 2.1 IP, the second-shortest postseason outing of his career as the Cardinals took a 10-4 decision. The change of venue didn't help the Braves, as Fernando Vina opened Game 3 in Atlanta with a leadoff homer off Kevin Millwood and the Cardinals went on to complete a sweep of the series with a 7-1 victory.

2001 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 0

The Braves, appearing in the Division Series for the seventh straight year, took three in a row from the Astros to advance to their record 11th NLCS. Atlanta's pitching was dominant in the sweep, with the staff compiling a 1.67 ERA. Greg Maddux kept the Astros at bay in hitter-friendly Enron Field in Game 1, only to see Houston maintain a 3-2 lead heading into the eighth inning. Keith Lockhart's leadoff pinch-hit double was followed by a Marcus Giles single to even the score at 3-3, and two batters later, Chipper Jones deposited Astros closer Billy Wagner's first pitch into the left field seats for the decisive three-run homer in an eventual 7-4 win. Tom Glavine starred in Game 2, blanking the Astros over 8.0 innings and making an unearned Braves run in the second inning stand up for a 1-0 win, with John Smoltz recording the save. Home runs by Paul Bako and Julio Franco provided Atlanta with three runs over the first three innings and John Burkett teamed with four relievers to shut down Houston's high-powered offense en route to a 6-2 victory in Game 3. Chipper Jones finished the series with a .444 average, including two homers and five RBI, while Andruw Jones went 6-for-12 with a solo home run.

2002 Division Series - San Francisco 3, Atlanta 2

The Braves took a two-games-to-one lead in their record eighth straight Division Series, only to see the Giants rebound to capture the final two contests and the series. Atlanta faced an 8-2 deficit in Game 1, and after a three-run rally in the bottom of the seventh, went on to bring the tying run to the plate with two men aboard and no outs in the ninth. Giants closer Robb Nen, however, squelched the uprising by retiring Julio Franco on a liner to right and inducing a game-ending double play from Gary Sheffield. In Game 2, back-to-back homers by Javy Lopez and Vinny Castilla sparked a three-run second inning, and Kevin Millwood combined with three relievers to make the lead stand up for a 7-3 Braves win, evening the NLDS at a game apiece. The series moved to San Francisco for Game 3, in which the Braves snapped a 1-1 tie with a five-run sixth, courtesy of a bases-loaded single by Vinny Castilla, and a three-run homer on the next pitch by Keith Lockhart en route to a 10-2 win. Needing one more win to clinch the series, the Braves sent Tom Glavine to the mound in Game 4, but the Giants tagged Glavine for the second time in the series, sending the series to a fifth and final game in Atlanta. A second-inning solo homer by former Brave Reggie Sanders and a fourth-inning blast by Barry Bonds proved to be decisive, as Russ Ortiz and four Giants relievers stymied the Braves offense in a 3-1 clincher. Atlanta put runners on first and third in the bottom of the ninth with no outs against Nen, but saw him escape by fanning Sheffield and inducing Chipper Jones to hit into a game-ending double play.

The Braves, in their ninth straight Division Series, matched up with the Chicago Cubs in a back-and-forth five-game series that ended with the Cubs taking Game 5 at Turner Field to send them to the NLCS. Chicago's pitching tandem of Kerry Wood and Mark Prior were the story. In Game 1, Wood took over. In addition to a dominating performance on the mound, Wood broke the game open with his two-run sixth-inning double to lead the Cubs to a 4-2 win in front of 52,043 in Atlanta. Russ Ortiz struggled, especially in the sixth when Moises Alou, Aramis Ramirez and Eric Karros led off with three straight singles. Robert Fick then bobbled a potential double play ball off the bat of Paul Bako, allowing Alou to score and setting the stage for Wood. The Braves scored first in the third inning on a Marcus Giles two-out homer and in the eighth on a Chipper Jones' ground out. The Braves rebounded to take Game 2, 5-3, on Mark DeRosa's eighth-inning two-out, two-run double off Dave Veres after John Smoltz allowed a rare run in the top of the inning that tied the game at 3-3. DeRosa was in the lineup after Giles suffered a severely bruised left quadriceps in Game 1. Giles still contributed when he limped off the bench and delivered a pinch-hit, two-out single in the sixth inning that scored Javy Lopez and gave the Braves a 3-2 lead after they had fallen behind, 2-0, in the top of the first. After walking the first two batters of the game and giving up a two-run Sammy Sosa double off the top of the center-field wall, Atlanta starter Mike Hampton battled out of a no-out, bases-loaded jam by striking out three straight Cubs to end the inning. He fanned all three batters in the second inning to match a postseason record of six consecutive strikeouts. Carlos Zambrano started for Chicago and allowed 11 hits, all singles, including a two-run single to Andruw Jones in the fourth inning that tied the score at 2-2. As the teams moved to an electric Wrigley Field for Game 3, the Cubs once again took the series lead with a 3-1 victory. Mark Prior battled in a classic pitchers' duel with Greg Maddux. The only Chicago runs came on a Randall Simon two-out, first-inning single off Maddux that scored Kenny Lofton and Mark Grudzielanek. The Braves' only run came on a Giles sacrifice fly scoring Mark DeRosa in the eighth inning. Game 4 was the first true glimpse of the Braves offense that was on display most of the regular season. Chipper Jones hit two-run homers from each side of the plate as part of Atlanta's 12-hit attack. It was Chipper's first two-homer playoff game since his postseason debut in Game 1 of the 1995 Division Series. The first of his two home runs came from the left side off Chicago starter Matt Clement in the fifth inning and the second came in the eighth inning off lefty Mark Guthrie, giving Atlanta a 6-2 lead. Ortiz, coming off three days of rest, held the Cubs to two earned runs on seven hits over five innings. Eric Karros was the hitting star for the Cubs, launching two solo home runs, one in the sixth inning and one in the eighth inning. Sosa almost tied the game in the bottom of the ninth, but his drive off John Smoltz fell into Andruw Jones' glove on the warning track. Game 5 showed just why the Cubs would be moving on. For the second time in the series, Wood turned in a dominating performance (8.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 7 K), shutting down the Braves for a 5-1 Chicago clincher in front of 53,775 fans at Turner Field. During the NLDS, Wood allowed just seven hits over 14.1 IP against the NL's best regular-season offense. The lone Atlanta run came on a controversial play in the sixth inning. Rafael Furcal raced home from second base on a ball hit by Sheffield, who returned after missing Game 4 with a bruised hand suffered in Game 3, that appeared to be caught by a sliding Kenny Lofton in center field. It was ruled a hit. Hampton, pitching on three days of rest, endured a 30-pitch first inning, allowing just one run on a Moises Alou broken-bat RBI single. Alex Gonzalez led off the second inning with a homer to center and Aramis Ramirez hit a two-run home run in the sixth inning to give Wood all the support he would need.

In their record 10th straight Division Series, the Braves met up with the Houston Astros for the fourth time in the opening round but for the first time failed to take the series. The series was filled with big hits and key pitching, but in the end Houston's big bats proved to be too much. Game 1 saw the Astros pound out four home runs, leading to a four-run third inning and a three-run fifth inning in a 9-3 win. The run support was more than needed for Roger Clemens. The Braves had chances to break the game open early against Clemens, but he escaped jams in each of the first four innings. Jaret Wright started for Atlanta and allowed a career-high three homers in 4.1 innings of work. Andruw Jones provided a highlight with his eighth career postseason home run off Clemens in the fifth inning. The Braves evened the series in dramatic fashion, taking Game 2, 4-2. Trailing 2-0 entering the seventh inning the Braves scored on a Rafael Furcal single in the seventh and added one in the eighth on Adam LaRoche's double to tie the game. John Smoltz went 3.0 strong innings starting in the eighth, just the second time as a reliever he had gone that many innings. He also added a single in the ninth-- his 12th career postseason hit, a record for pitchers. The game remained tied 2-2 until the bottom of the 11th inning when Rafael Furcal hit a game-winning, two-run homer off Dan Miceli to give Atlanta a 4-2 win. Roy Oswalt started for Houston, allowing just one earned run on eight hits over 6.1 IP. Mike Hampton started for the Braves and gave up just two earned runs on four hits before leaving in the seventh inning with tightness in his left forearm. The Braves bullpen combined to go 4.2 scoreless innings. The series shifted to Houston for Game 3 and saw the Astros go up a game with an 8-5 win. Braves starter John Thomson was forced to leave after four pitches when he left with a re-injured left oblique muscle. Paul Byrd made his first career postseason appearance in relief and allowed four earned runs on seven hits in 4.1 IP, the big blow coming on Carlos Beltran's two-run, third-inning home run. The Astros stretched the lead to 7-2 on Morgan Ensberg's sixth-inning, two-run double off Tom Martin. Brandon Backe allowed two runs over 6.0 IP, his only mistake coming on Johnny Estrada's fourth-inning homer. Andruw Jones hit his second homer of the series, a three-run shot off Russ Springer in the eighth. Game 4 was an example of the season-long resolve the Braves displayed. Facing Roger Clemens (5.0 IP, 2 ER) for the second time in the series, the Braves rallied from a three-run deficit entering the sixth inning to win 6-5. Atlanta jumped out 2-0 in the second on an Andruw Jones RBI single and an Adam LaRoche RBI groundout. The Astros came back with five runs in the bottom of that inning, highlighted by a three-run homer by Craig Biggio. The Braves tied the game in the sixth on LaRoche's first career postseason homer, a three-run shot off Chad Qualls. The game turned in to a battle of the bullpens after Russ Ortiz left (3.0 IP, 7 H 5 ER), but the Braves pen took charge. Over the last 6.0 innings, they allowed six hits and no runs. The game-winner came in the top of the ninth inning after Rafael Furcal was hit by a Russ Springer pitch with two outs. Furcal then stole his second base of the day and came around to score on J.D. Drew's RBI single. John Smoltz picked up the win by going the final 2.0 innings and getting Jeff Kent to ground into the Astros third double play of the game to end it in the ninth. The series returned to Atlanta for the deciding Game 5 and the Houston bats certainly showed up. The Astros pounded out 17 hits and scored 12 runs in a 12-3 rout. The game was 3-2 entering the sixth inning, but the Astros added one in the sixth, five in the seventh and three in the eighth to pull away. Roy Oswalt picked up the win on short rest, going 5.0 IP and giving up two earned runs. Houston scored a NLDS-record 36 runs in the series and hit an NLDS-record 11 home runs. Carlos Beltran was the series star hitting .429, and he went 4-for-5 with two home runs and five RBI in Game 5. Jaret Wright got the call for Atlanta but gave up four runs in 5.1 IP. Chipper Jones went 2-for-5, but wound up without an RBI in the series. Rafael Furcal had another strong game with his second homer of the series and two more hits, pushing him to .381 (8-for-21) for the NLDS. Andruw Jones hit .526 (10-for-19) in the series.

2005 Division Series - Houston 3, Atlanta 1

Extending their Division Series streak to a record 11 consecutive appearances, the Braves took on the Wild Card winner Houston Astros. Both teams featured a slew of youngsters that would play prominent roles in the series - the final play of the classic fourth game would feature a rookie from both squads - but the Astros would ride good old fashion pitching from their aces and overachieving offense from a normally dormant lineup to defeat the Braves for the second consecutive season in the Division Series. Houston's Morgan Ensberg put on a Game 1 clinic, tying an Astros record with five RBI and helping his squad to a 10-5 win in the opener. The game, which was to feature the pitching duel between Tim Hudson and Andy Pettitte, turned into a slugfest in which the pitching pair combined to allow eight runs. Reliever Chris Reitsma allowed four earned runs and recorded just one out in the eighth inning, helping Houston to a win that tied starter Andy Pettitte with John Smoltz for the most wins in postseason history (14). Smoltz took back his title as the postseason's winningest pitcher in Game 2, hurling seven innings of one-run ball for his 15th playoff win. Houston's 1-0 lead in the first inning was short-lived, as the Braves scored three runs in the second and two more in the third en route to a 7-1 win. Rookie backstop Brian McCann scalded a three-run homer off Roger Clemens in his first career postseason at-bat to put the Braves up 3-1 - a lead from which they would never look back. Andruw Jones went 3-for-4 and Adam LaRoche doubled in a pair of runs, while the bullpen was solid. The Astros went with 20-game winner Roy Oswalt against Jorge Sosa (making his first career postseason appearance) for Game 3, a 7-3 Astros victory that unraveled for the Braves in one inning. While the two starters had similar lines - both allowed three runs and walked two - it was a dreadful seventh inning that led to the Braves demise. With Sosa pulled, Reitsma continued his rough Division Series showing by allowing Craig Biggio's third double of the game followed by an infield single to speedster Willy Taveras. Reitsma gave way to lefty John Foster, but slugger Lance Berkman nailed Foster's first pitch for a home run, and youngster Joey Devine finished the job by allowing a run of his own - all of this without the Braves registering an out. The loss spoiled the second consecutive three-hit night for Braves home run king Andruw Jones, who raised his average to .636 in the series. On just three days' rest, the Braves sent Tim Hudson to the mound against Brandon Backe in a Game 4 that would become a classic. It looked like nothing but a Braves steamroll early on as Adam LaRoche continued his tear, bombing a grand slam in the fourth followed by an Andruw Jones sacrifice fly that chased the Astros' starter. Hudson left with a 5-1 lead, and when McCann hit his second homer of the series to put Atlanta up 6-1, it seemed wrapped up. But when the normally reliable Kyle Farnsworth came in to close out the game in the eighth inning, he allowed a grand slam to Lance Berkman and a two-out, solo homer to light-hitting Astros catcher Brad Ausmus in the bottom of the ninth to tie the game at 6-6. The two teams went on to essentially play another entire game, with both pitching staffs combining for eight innings of scoreless ball that saw the Braves miss opportunities with runners in scoring position five times, including loading the bases with one out in the 14th inning. In the bottom of the 18th, Houston rookie Chris Burke drove Devine's pitch over the left-field wall for a game-ending solo homer that gave the Astros their second consecutive Division Series win against the Braves. The series loss wasn't without some highlights for the Braves, who continued their excellent fielding from the regular season and committed no errors in the four-game set. Adam LaRoche went 4-for-8 (.500) with six RBI in the series and Andruw Jones went 8-for-17 (.471) with three doubles and five RBI.

After a five-year playoff drought, the Braves entered the 2010 postseason as the National League's Wild Card Champion. They faced off against the eventual World Series Champion San Francisco Giants in the opening round. The Braves offense managed only two hits as they fell 1-0 to Game 1 starter Tim Lincecum in his first career postseason start. The game's only run came after Giants catcher Buster Posey singled to left and stole second on a controversial "safe" call, only to score on a Cody Ross single. The Braves took Game 2 in 11 innings at AT&T Park after overcoming a three-run deficit. Outfielder Rick Ankiel hit a go-ahead solo home run into McCovey Cove and Kyle Farnsworth tossed a scoreless bottom of the 11th to preserve the 5-4 victory. The win came at considerable cost, however, as closer Billy Wagner suffered a season-ending oblique injury in the 10th inning. The Braves fell 3-2 in Game 3 at Turner Field after holding a 2-1 lead through eight innings. Giants starter Jonathan Sanchez pitched a no-hitter through six innings as the Braves committed three errors in the game. Pitching on three days' rest, Braves starter Derek Lowe took a no-hitter into the sixth inning of Game 4, but Braves relievers could not hold the 2-1 lead. The Giants plated two in the seventh that proved to be the game winners, ending the series. The 3-2 loss in Game 4 was manager Bobby Cox's final game. Giants players and coaches joined the Turner Field fans to give him a loud ovation as he left the field.

The series was only the second postseason series in which each of the first four games were decided by one run. The only other postseason series in Major League history to begin with four straight one-run games was the 1972 World Series, when the Oakland A's defeated the Cincinnati Reds in seven games with all but one game (Game 6) being decided by one run.

Hall of Famer Bobby Cox managed the final game of his career against the Giants in the 2010 Division Series.

2013 Division Series - Los Angeles 3, Atlanta 1

After posting a 96-66 record and claiming its first National League East Division title since 2005, Atlanta matched up against the NL West Division Champion Los Angeles Dodgers. The Dodgers powered their way to a 3-1 series win as they outscored the Braves 26-14. After leading the National League with 181 home runs and ranking tied for fourth with just 127 homers allowed during the regular season, the Braves were outhomered 7-1 in the four-game set. Kris Medlen took to the mound for the Braves in Game 1 at Turner Field, his second consecutive postseason start, while Los Angeles countered with eventual Cy Young Award winner Clayton Kershaw, who held Atlanta to one run on three hits in 7.0 innings with 12 strikeouts. The Dodgers jumped out to an early 5-0 lead highlighted by Adrian Gonzalez's two-run home run in the third inning. Chris Johnson, who finished the regular season with the NL's second best batting average at .321, drove in the Braves' lone run of the game with a two-out RBI-single in the fourth inning, as Atlanta dropped Game 1 by a score of 6-1. The Braves evened the series at one game apiece with a 4-3 victory in Game 2, as Mike Minor allowed just one run in 6.1 innings en route to earning his first career postseason win. After an intentional walk to pinch-hitter Reed Johnson loaded the bases in the seventh inning, Jason Heyward followed with a two-RBI single to give Atlanta a 4-1 lead. Hanley Ramirez pulled the Dodgers within one run with a two-run homer in the eighth inning off David Carpenter before Craig Kimbrel shut the door with a four-out save, his first career save in postseason play. The series moved to Los Angeles as Game 3 featured a matchup of rookie hurlers with Julio Teheran facing off against Hyun-Jin Ryu. The Braves plated two runs in the first inning with RBI-singles from Evan Gattis and Chris Johnson to take an early 2-0 lead. The Dodgers answered with a pair of four-run frames in the second and fourth innings, as Los Angeles cruised to a 13-6 win. Jason Heyward added a two-run homer in the ninth inning, the first of his postseason career. Atlanta called on veteran Freddy Garcia to make his 11th career postseason start in Game 4, as the Dodgers sent Kershaw to the hill on three days' rest for the first time in his career. Carl Crawford gave Los Angeles an early 2-0 lead with a pair of solo home runs, including a leadoff homer to open the game. Chris Johnson evened the score at 2-2 in the fourth inning with a two-run single for his fourth and fifth RBIs of the series. After an Elliot Johnson triple with one out in the seventh inning, pinch-hitter Jose Constanza gave the Braves a 3-2 lead with an RBI-single to center field. Yasiel Puig led off the eighth inning with a double to right field bringing the go-ahead run to the plate, and after fouling off pitches on back-to-back bunt attempts, Juan Uribe launched a 2-2 pitch from David Carpenter deep to left field to give Los Angeles a 4-3 lead they would not relinquish. Kenley Jansen struck out the side in the top of the ninth inning to preserve the win, as the Dodgers advanced to the National League Championship Series. Atlanta batted just .214 (28-for-131) in the series and pitched at a 5.82 ERA (22 ER/34.0 IP), while Los Angeles hit .333 (46-for-138) with a 3.09 ERA (12 ER/35.0 IP). Chris Johnson led the Braves with a .438 (7-for-16) average and five RBI.

Braves In The Wild Card Game

2012 Wild Card Game - St. Louis 6, Atlanta 3

In the first year of the one-game Wild Card playoff format, the Braves earned home field advantage with a 94-68 record. The Braves would play host to the St. Louis Cardinals (88-74) at Turner Field to determine which team would move on to the National League Division Series. Kris Medlen started for the Braves, who had won a Major League record 23 straight games in which Medlen had started. He was opposed by Kyle Lohse of the Cardinals. The Braves jumped out to an early lead on a two-run home run by David Ross in the bottom of the second inning. Medlen cruised through the first three innings, but ran into trouble in the top of the fourth. After allowing a lead-off single to Carlos Beltran, Matt Holliday grounded to third base in what looked to be a sure double play ball. The throw by Chipper Jones sailed over the head of second baseman Dan Uggla, and Beltran advanced to third. With runners on the corners, Allen Craig doubled home the first Cardinals run, followed by an RBI-groundout from Yadier Molina, and a sacrifice fly by David Freese to put the Cardinals ahead, 3-2. Matt Holliday hit a solo home run in the top of the sixth and the Cardinals benefitted from two more Braves' errors in the top of the seventh to plate two runs and extend their lead to 6-2. Medlen worked into the seventh and allowed five runs (only two earned) on just three hits. The Braves were able to scratch a run across in the bottom of the seventh and had a chance to add more, but a controversial infield fly call in left field in the bottom of eighth shortened the inning and Atlanta ended up stranding the bases loaded. Dan Uggla came up as the potential tying run in the bottom of the ninth but grounded out to end the game, as the Braves fell, 6-3, in what would be the final game in the legendary career of Chipper Jones. Atlanta out-hit St. Louis, 12 hits to six and four of the Cardinals six runs were unearned.

Height: 6-0 Weight: 180
Born: 2/5/1934 in Mobile, Alabama
Years With Braves: 1954-74
Number Retired: 1975

OUTFIELD 44

One of the greatest hitters of all time, Hank Aaron was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for 97.8 percent. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron rewrote baseball's record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime (2,297); Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime (1,477); and Most Total Bases, Lifetime (6,856). Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364), and home runs (755), third in games (3,298) and hits (3,771), fourth in runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), 10th in doubles (624), 12th in singles (2,294) and is tied for 18th in years of service (23). His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration. On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HRs and 30 SBs in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later. Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs). In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award. He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thomson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut he struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954. He became the second youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit and achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972. During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs a year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts a year, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves. Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 12 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit 400 solo home runs and hit seven of his 755 as a second baseman and had three pinch-hit home runs. He had only one three-homer game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959. Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as a Braves Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back NL MVP awards in 1982-83. Since December of 1989, he has served as Braves' Senior Vice President. In February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the Hall of Fame Veterans Committee.

Note: Aaron's executive bio appears in the Front Office section of the media guide.

BOBBY COX

Full Name: Robert Joe Cox
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Height: 6-0 Weight: 185
Born: 5/21/1941 in Tulsa, Oklahoma
Years With Braves: 1978-81, 1990-2010
Number Retired: 2011

MANAGER 6

Known as the consummate "players" manager, Bobby Cox treated everyone with respect and dignity. He spent 29 seasons as a Major League skipper, including 25 seasons in two stints at the helm of the Braves. His 2,504 wins rank fourth all-time and include a franchise-best 2,149 victories with the Braves and 355 with the Toronto Blue Jays. Cox posted an overall career record of 2,504-2001-3 (.556). The 2010 campaign marked his final season on the bench, as Atlanta went 91-71 and claimed the National League's Wild Card Championship. Cox won his 2,500th game on September 25, 2010, at Washington. The 2010 campaign was Cox's 15th with 90 or more wins, tying him for second all-time in 90-win seasons with Hall of Fame skipper Joe McCarthy (15) and putting him one behind the legendary John McGraw (16). Cox and McCarthy are the only managers in Major League history to compile six 100-win seasons. On June 8, 2009, Cox posted his 2,000th Braves victory, making him just the fourth skipper in big-league history to claim 2,000 wins with one team, joining Connie Mack (Athletics), John McGraw (Giants) and Walter Alston (Dodgers). On September 29, 2004, in the season's final home game, Cox earned his 2,000th career victory with a 6-4 decision over the New York Mets. He became just the ninth skipper in big-league history to reach that lofty milestone. Cox won 15 division crowns in his career, including 14 straight in Atlanta that led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1999) and one World Championship (1995). He had a string of 15 consecutive winning seasons from 1991 to 2005, tying him with Al Lopez and Earl Weaver for third place all-time behind Joe McCarthy (20) and Sparky Anderson (17) for consecutive winning campaigns. Cox was voted the Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America four times (1985 with Toronto and 1991, 2004 and 2005 with Atlanta). The Sporting News, in a poll of his peers, honored Cox as the league's top skipper seven times with the Braves and eight times overall. No other manager has won the Sporting News award more than three times since the magazine started the balloting in 1936. In 1991 the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year, as he became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985. Cox brought the city of Atlanta its first major professional sports championship in 1995 when the Braves defeated the Cleveland Indians, four games to two, in the World Series. The victory also marked the first time a franchise had won a World Series in three different cities. Cox managed the Braves from 1978 to '81, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club's National League West title in 1982. He began a four-year tenure as Toronto's manager in 1982, lifting a habitual last-place team to within one game of attaining a World Series berth in 1985. Cox returned to the Braves as general manager in October 1985 and oversaw a farm system which set the foundation for great success. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz as General Manager in October of that year. When Braves owner Ted Turner fired Cox in 1981, Turner was asked at the press conference who was likely to be the next manager. "It would be Bobby Cox if I hadn't just fired him," Turner said. "We need someone like him around here." The Braves retired Cox's uniform number 6 and inducted him into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 2011. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in July 2014, along with two of his former pitchers, Greg Maddux and Tom Glavine.

TOM GLAVINE

Full Name: Thomas Michael Glavine
Bats: Left Throws: Left
Height: 6-0 Weight: 205
Born: 3/25/1966 in Concord, Massachusetts
Years With Braves: 1987-2002, 2008
Number Retired: 2010

PITCHER 47

Tom Glavine won 305 regular-season games in his 22-year Major League career. But it was his eight innings of one-hit, shutout baseball in Game 6 of the 1995 World Series that accounted for his most-significant victory. The Braves won 1-0 to capture the first championship in Atlanta history, and Glavine was named the series Most Valuable Player. The left-hander arrived in Atlanta in 1987 and, after four of growing pains, became a consistent big-time winner. Glavine won 20 or more games each year from 1991 to 1993 and earned the first of his two Cy Young awards in 1991, going 20-11 with a 2.55 ERA. His second Cy Young came in 1998 on the strength of a 20-6 record and a 2.47 ERA. He finished second for the award in 1992 and 2000 and third in 1993 and 1995. From 1993 to 1999, the Braves featured arguably the game's top starting rotation – led by Glavine, Greg Maddux and John Smoltz. Over that seven-year stretch, Atlanta won six National League West Division titles and the League Championship Series in 1995, 1996 and 1999 in addition to the 1995 World Series. Glavine also pitched in two other Fall Classics – in 1991 and 1992. Following the 2002 season, Glavine signed as a free agent with the New York Mets. He won his 300th game on August 5, 2007, with an 8-3 verdict over the Chicago Cubs, becoming the 23rd pitcher and just the sixth left-hander to reach that plateau. Glavine returned to Atlanta in 2008 before ultimately retiring after the 2009 season. On the Braves' career lists, Glavine ranks fourth in wins (244) and strikeouts (2,091) and tied for eighth in shutouts (22). He had five 20-win seasons, leading the NL or tying for the lead each time. Glavine's lifetime ledger was 305-203 with a 3.54 ERA, and his 682 games started ranked 12th on baseball's all-time list when he retired. Possessing excellent control, the 10-time All-Star was a master at mixing up the speed of his pitches and locating them on – or just off – the corners of the strike zone. Glavine was a career .186 batter and won four Silver Slugger Awards. Glavine was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in July 2014, after earning 91.9 percent of the vote in his first year on the ballot.

CHIPPER JONES

Full Name: Larry Wayne Jones, Jr.
Bats: Switch Throws: Right
Height: 6-4 Weight: 210
Born: 4/24/1972 in DeLand, Florida
Years With Braves: 1993, 1995-2012
Number Retired: 2013

THIRD BASEMAN 10

The first overall selection in the 1990 draft, Chipper Jones became one of greatest switch hitters in baseball history. The Atlanta career leader in nearly every offensive category, Jones batted .303 with 2,726 hits, 1,619 runs, 468 home runs and 1,623 RBI in 2,499 games. He drew 1,512 walks while striking out just 1,409 times in 19 Major League seasons (he is one of just 15 players in history to hit at least 450 home runs and have more walks than strikeouts). Jones is the only switch hitter in Major League history to post a .300 career batting average and hit at least 300 home runs. He ranks second all-time in batting average among switch hitters to Frankie Frisch (.316), third in home runs to Mickey Mantle (536) and Eddie Murray (504) and second in RBI to Murray (1,917). The runner-up for the 1995 National League Rookie of the Year award (to Hideo Nomo), Jones quickly established himself as one of the premier third basemen in the game. He finished in the top 10 in NL MVP voting six times and in 1999 he claimed the award, due in part to his clutch performance down the stretch, when he batted .323 with 20 homers and 46 RBI in 55 games from August 1 to the end of the season. His overall numbers for the '99 campaign included a .319 average with 116 runs, 41 doubles, 45 homers, 110 RBI and 126 walks. Jones was at his best on the big stage, especially at New York's Shea Stadium, where fans loved to derisively chant his given name, Larry. In 245 career games against the Mets, Jones batted .309 with 49 home runs and 159 RBI. In 93 career postseason games, he batted .287 with 13 home runs and 47 RBI. On July 5, 2007 at Los Angeles, he passed Dale Murphy (371) for the most home runs in Atlanta history. He hit his 400th career homer in the sixth inning on June 5, 2008 off Florida's Ricky Nolasco, en route to claiming the NL batting title with a .364 average that season. On May 27, 2010, Jones established the Braves franchise mark with his 1,377th walk, passing Eddie Mathews. An eight-time All-Star, Jones was voted the NL's starting third baseman four times. The Braves inducted Jones into the club's Hall of Fame and retired his uniform number 10 in June 2013. He was named to the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in February of 2015.

GREG MADDUX

Full Name: Gregory Alan Maddux
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Height: 6-0 Weight: 170
Born: 4/14/1966 in San Angelo, Texas
Years With Braves: 1993-2003
Number Retired: 2009

PITCHER 31

Greg Maddux became the most dominant pitcher in baseball during his 11 seasons with the Braves from 1993 to 2003. On the heels of winning his first Cy Young Award in 1992 with the Chicago Cubs, Maddux signed with the Braves as a free agent and proceeded to win three more Cy Young awards in a row. With Atlanta, Maddux led the National League in ERA four times (1993, 1994, 1995 and 1998) and wins twice (1994 and 1995). His franchise-record 1.56 ERA during the 1994 season was the second-lowest in the major leagues since Bob Gibson's 1.12 mark in 1968, the last year of the elevated pitcher's mound. Maddux had arguably his finest season in 1995, posting a 19-2 record with a 1.63 ERA while leading the league with 209.2 innings pitched, 10 complete games and three shutouts and helping the Braves win the World Series. Maddux finished fifth, second and fourth in Cy Young Award voting in 1996, 1997 and 1998. On the Braves' career lists, Maddux ranks second in ERA (2.63), fifth in strikeouts (1,828), sixth in wins (194) and 10th in shutouts (21). The diminutive right-hander known as "Mad Dog" featured pinpoint control and uncanny late movement on his fastball. After leaving Atlanta, Maddux had a second stint with the Cubs and subsequently played for the Los Angeles Dodgers and San Diego Padres. He won 15 or more games for 17 consecutive seasons (1988-2004) – the only pitcher in major league history to do so. Upon his retirement, Maddux ranked eighth all-time with 355 wins and 10th with 3,371 strikeouts. He won a record 18 Gold Gloves, including 10 with the Braves. He was an eight-time All-Star and the NL starting pitcher in 1994, 1997 and 1998. Maddux was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2009. At the induction ceremony, manager Bobby Cox remarked: "I get asked all the time was he the best pitcher I ever saw? Was he the smartest pitcher I ever saw? The most competitive I ever saw? The best teammate I ever saw? The answer is yes to all of those." Maddux was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2014, earning 97.2 percent of the vote (the 10th-highest total ever) in his first year on the ballot.

EDDIE MATHEWS

Full Name: Edwin Lee Mathews
Batted: Left Threw: Right
Height: 6-1 Weight: 200
Born: 10/13/1931 in Texarkana, Texas
Died: 2/18/2001 in LaJolla, California
Years With Braves: 1952-66
Number Retired: 1969

THIRD BASE 41

Inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1978, Eddie Mathews was the only player in franchise history to play for the Braves on the Major League level in Boston, Milwaukee, and Atlanta. He was signed in 1949 by Johnny Moore at the age of 17 and by the age of 20 became the Braves' regular third baseman. During his Hall of Fame career spanning 17 years, Mathews appeared in three World Series, was a nine-time National League All-Star, and led the majors in home runs in 1953 (47) and '59 (46). He twice finished second in the National League MVP voting, in 1953 to Roy Campanella and in 1959 to Ernie Banks. Mathews averaged slightly over 30 home runs per season during his career, and 14 times he hit 20 home runs or more. Ten times he hit 30 or more, and four times he hit 40 or more. His franchise records include: most RBI in a season since 1900 (135 in 1953), tied for most consecutive games with an RBI (8 in 1954), most career walks (1,444), most home runs on the road (30 in 1953), and tied with Hank Aaron for most home runs in a season with 47. In 1967 the Braves traded Mathews to Houston, where he reached the 500 home run level. He was subsequently traded to the Detroit Tigers late in the year to help with the pennant chase and appeared in his third World Series. Eddie finished his playing career with Detroit in 1968. Mathews returned to Atlanta in 1971 as a coach under Luman Harris and replaced him as manager in 1972. Eddie managed into the 1974 season, accumulating a record of 149-161-1 in 311 games for a .481 winning percentage. In his only full season as manager in 1973, the Braves placed fifth with a record of 76-85-1. Eddie was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 1999.

DALE MURPHY

Full Name: Dale Bryan Murphy

Height: 6-5 Weight: 215
Born: 3/12/1956 in Portland, Oregon
Years With Braves: 1976-90
Number Retired: 1994

OUTFIELD 3

Dale Murphy was the Braves' first-round draft pick (No. 5 overall) in 1974, but five years later he had yet to reach his full potential as a sometime catcher/sometime first baseman. Then, manager Bobby Cox made Murphy a full-time outfielder, and his career took off literally and figuratively. From 1980 to 1989, Murphy averaged 31 home runs and 93 RBI. He was the back-to-back National League Most Valuable Player in 1982 (.281, 36 home runs, tied for league-leading 109 RBI and 23 stolen bases) and 1983 (.302, 36 home runs, league-leading 121 RBI, franchise-record 131 runs scored and 30 stolen bases). In 1983, Murphy became merely the sixth different player in baseball history with 30 home runs and 30 stolen bases in a season. He led the NL with 332 total bases and tied for the lead with 36 home runs in 1984 and topped the circuit with 37 home runs and 118 runs scored the following year. From September 26, 1981, to July 8, 1986, Murphy played in 740 consecutive games. He appeared in seven All-Star Games – leading all vote-getters in 1985 – and won five Gold Glove Awards and four Silver Slugger Awards. Throughout his career, Murphy was held in high esteem for his moral character, and he received the Lou Gehrig Award (presented to the player who best exhibits the character and integrity of Lou Gehrig both on and off the field) in 1985 and the Roberto Clemente Award (presented to the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team) in 1986. Murphy was traded to the Philadelphia Phillies on August 3, 1990, and he subsequently concluded his playing career with the Colorado Rockies in 1993. On the Braves' career lists, Murphy ranks fourth in games played (1,926), runs (1,103), hits (1,901), home runs (371), RBI (1,143) and total bases (3,394), and he is second in each category to Chipper Jones since the franchise moved to Atlanta. "Murph" was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2000.

Height: 6-1 Weight: 180
Born: 4/1/1939 in Blaine, Ohio
Years With Braves: 1964-83, 1987
Number Retired: 1984

PITCHER 35

Inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997, Phil Niekro was signed as a free agent in 1958, but didn't see his first major league action until 1964 in Milwaukee, starting out as a reliever. He saw limited playing time until 1967, when he became a permanent fixture on the roster through 1983. Niekro had 14 straight years with 10 or more wins until the strike shortened season of 1981. He posted three 20-plus win seasons with the Braves, with a career-high 23 in 1969, and logged over 300 innings four times, with a career high of 342 innings in 1979. From 1974 to 1980, he led the league in innings pitched four times and was never out of the top five. In '73 he pitched a no-hitter to beat San Diego, 9-0, on August 5th at Atlanta Stadium. He became the oldest pitcher (46) to record a shutout with a four-hit, 8-0 victory on October 6, 1985, against Toronto as a Yankee. During his 24-year career, Niekro made five All-Star appearances, four as a Brave, won five Gold Gloves, and won 318 games, placing him 14th all-time. He is fifth all-time in innings pitched and eighth all-time in strikeouts. Niekro holds or shares 13 Atlanta career pitching records including: most games (689), complete games (226), innings pitched (4,533), games won (266), most shutouts (43) and most hits (4,136). He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 1999.

JOHN SMOLTZ

Full Name: John Andrew Smoltz
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Height: 6-3 Weight: 220
Born: 5/16/1967 in Warren, Michigan
Years With Braves: 1988-2008
Number Retired: 2012

PITCHER 29

When Braves General Manager Bobby Cox acquired John Smoltz from the Detroit Tigers in 1987, he did so with an eye on the future. Atlanta traded 36-year-old pitcher Doyle Alexander in exchange for the 20-year-old prospect. Smoltz more than delivered, as the right-hander excelled as both a starter and reliever over the span of two decades from 1988 to 2008. He is the only pitcher in major league history with 200 or more wins and 150-plus saves. In 14 full seasons as a starter, Smoltz won 14 or more games 10 times. Twice, he led the National League or shared the lead in wins (1996 and 2006), innings pitched (1996 and 1997) and strikeouts (1992 and 1996). He ranked in the top 10 in ERA eight times. Smoltz won the Cy Young Award in 1996 on the strength of a 24-8 record, 2.94 ERA and franchise-record 276 strikeouts. Following "Tommy John" surgery that sidelined him for the 2000 campaign, Smoltz served as the Braves' closer for three-plus seasons. He set an NL record with 55 saves in 2002 and finished third in Cy Young Award voting. Smoltz, who joined Hall of Famer Dennis Eckersley as the only two pitchers to record a 20-win season and a 50-save season, returned to the starting rotation in 2005. Smoltz became the 16th member of the 3,000-strikeout club on April 22, 2008. On the Braves' career lists, he ranks first in strikeouts (3,011), second in saves (154) and fifth in wins (210). In 40 postseason games with Atlanta, Smoltz was 15-4 with four saves a 2.65 ERA. At the time of his retirement, his 15 postseason wins were the second-most in baseball history, while his 199 strikeouts were tops. Smoltz, Tom Glavine and Greg Maddux anchored a stout pitching staff that helped the Braves win 14 straight division titles from 1991 to 2005 and the 1995 World Series. Smoltz was the only player to be a part of each division championship. Smoltz was an eight-time All-Star who concluded his career with the Boston Red Sox and St. Louis Cardinals in 2009. Known for his outstanding service to the community, Smoltz was honored with the Roberto Clemente Award in 2005 and with the Branch Rickey Award in 2007. He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in June 2012. Smoltz was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 2015, joining Glavine and Maddux in Cooperstown.

WARREN SPAHN

Full Name: Warren Edward Spahn
Batted: Left Threw: Left
Height: 6-0 Weight: 175
Born: 4/23/1921 in Buffalo, New York
Died: 11/24/2003 in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma
Years With Braves: 1942, 1946-64
Number Retired: 1965

PITCHER 21

Inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1973, Warren Spahn signed his first contract out of high school with the Braves for $150. He debuted for the Braves in 1942 and after ending the season in the minors, enlisted in the Army. Spahn returned to the Braves in 1946 and began to pitch his way into the record books, becoming the winningest left-hander in baseball history and fifth all-time with 363 total victories. He is also sixth all-time in shutouts and eighth all-time in innings pitched. Spahn won the Cy Young Award in 1957 while leading the league in victories and complete games. He was the Cy Young runner-up three times: in 1958, 1960, and 1961. Spahn posted 20 or more wins a National League-record 13 times. Eight of those years he led the league in wins. He was an N.L. All-Star 14 times, led the league three times in ERA, nine times in complete games, four times in innings pitched, four times in strikeouts, and four times in shutouts. Spahn's eight seasons leading the league in wins and nine seasons leading in complete games are both major league records. His streaks of five consecutive seasons (1957-61) leading the league in wins along with seven consecutive years (1957-63) leading in complete games are both major league records. Spahn threw two no-hitters in his career. His first was on September 16, 1960, at the age of 39, against Philadelphia. He allowed only two base runners in the 4-0 victory. The second no-hitter was a 1-0 victory over San Francisco on April 28, 1961. Spahn holds or shares nine franchise records including: most games started (635), complete games (374), innings pitched (5,046), games won (356), 20-win seasons (13), and shutouts (63). He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 1999.

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium (1966-96)

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was home to the Braves from the 1966 season through the 1996 season. Ground was broken on April 15, 1964, and the first game was played on April 9, 1965, when Milwaukee defeated Detroit, 6-3, in an exhibition game before the 1965 regular season. The first regular-season game was played April 12, 1966, vs. Pittsburgh, and the final regular-season contest was played September 23, 1996, vs. Montreal. The final game took place on October 24, 1996, when New York defeated Atlanta, 1-0, in Game 5 of the World Series. Approximate cost of the stadium was $18 million. The park was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. Architects were two Atlanta firms: Heery and Heery and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild and Paschal. General contractor was the Thompson and Street Company of Charlotte, NC, and Atlanta. The stadium dimensions were 330' down each line, 402' in centerfield and 385' to the power alleys. The stadium wall was 10' and the ballpark had a capacity of 52,769 for baseball. The stadium was also used by the NFL's Atlanta Falcons and was used as the baseball venue for the 1996 Olympic Games.

Turner Field (Opened 1997)

Grand Opening – April 4, 1997. Braves defeated the Chicago Cubs, 5-4.

History – The 1996 Olympic Stadium, built just south of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, was retrofitted into a baseball only, open-air, natural grass facility between September, 1996, and April, 1997. AFC Stadium was imploded in August 1997 and the site is now a parking lot.

Location – Between Ralph David Abernathy on the north, Hank Aaron Drive on the east, Bill Lucas Drive on the south and Pollard Blvd. on the west. It's very near the junction of I-75/85 and I-20.

Seating – Official capacity for Turner Field is 49,586. Three levels supported by four concourses. A cross-aisle walkway divides the lower concourse. Field level and dugout seats are below the cross-aisle, the terrace level above it. The second level, the Golden Moon Casino Level, includes 58 private suites, three party suites and the 755 Club, the ballpark's private membership club. The third, or upper level does not go all the way around the park, thus providing fans a view of the downtown Atlanta skyline.

Playing Field – Prescription Athletic Turf, featuring a state-of-the-art mechanical drainage system and hybrid Bermuda grass. The turf for the playing field is grown in an area below the scoreboard beyond the center field wall.

Field Dimensions – The stadium dimensions are 335' down the leftfield line, 400' to center field, 330' down the rightfield line, 380' to the leftfield power alley and 390' to the rightfield power alley.

Entry Plaza – The main entry to Turner Field, it was built after 35,000 seats and part of the track and field complex of the Olympic Stadium were removed. The plaza features statues of Hank Aaron, Phil Niekro and Ty Cobb, monuments of the Braves' retired numbers, a huge video screen that shows the Braves game, a video wall broadcasting every other major league game in progress, photo kiosks, a Kids Zone, a retail store and a variety of concession stands.

Parking – 8,500 official spaces. The lot on the site of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium contains an outline of the playing field, including markers for home plate, the bases and the location of Hank Aaron's record-breaking 715th home run.

Scoreboard and Sound System – Turner Field features the largest high-definition video display in the world. The Mitsubishi Diamond Vision, installed in 2005, measures 71', 4" by 78', 8" and integrates live video, scoring information and animations onto a single full-color screen to display game content in vivid detail. Also installed in 2005, a Daktronics LED fascia video display wraps around Turner Field between the Terrace and Lexus levels. The 1,085' by 42" display interacts with the massive high-definition board, but also features its own video, graphics, animation, game information and advertising. Turner Field also employs ScorePAD Sports, Inc's state-of-the-art STADIUMnet baseball scoring system. This system provides a wide variety of in-game, season, and career information on each baseball player in the game. The speakers in each seating section are independently controlled.

Scouts Alley – Located just off the Entry Plaza, it contains life-size visuals of notable Braves and their original scouting reports, interactive skills and educational activities for youth and the Braves Museum and Hall of Fame, a project of the Atlanta History Center and the Braves.

Sky Field – Sky Field is a 23,000 square-foot baseball-themed attraction located above the leftfield club level at Turner Field. The distance is estimated at 435 feet from home plate and 80 feet above the field. A ball has yet to reach Sky Field during a regulation Braves' game.

SunTrust Club – In 2008 the Braves unveiled the SunTrust Club, an exclusive seating area with it's own private lounge. Season ticket holders in the SunTrust seats enjoy Braves games from a whole new perspective. Some seats are 43' from homeplate – 17' closer than the pitching mound. Included in Club's membership package is valet parking, a private entrance, a 4,000 square foot lounge with gourmet dining and impeccable service, plush seating, flat panel televisions throughout the seating area and in-seat food and beverage service.

Disabled Seating – The entire ballpark is wheelchair accessible and compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act. More than one percent of the seating capacity is allocated for disabled seating.

2016 MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

2016 Braves Media Relations Staff

Brad Hainje • Senior Director, Media Relations

Now in his 13th season with the Braves, Brad Hainje joined the Atlanta front office in February 2004 after spending six seasons (1998-2003) in the St. Louis Cardinals Media Relations Department.

Hainje serves as the Club's primary contact for all baseball operations media requests, including spring training and on team road trips. He is responsible for overseeing and coordinating all player and coaching staff interviews and appearances, press credentials and press box operations. He also oversees the publishing and distribution of the Club's annual media guide, daily press notes and all baseball-related press releases and press conferences.

Hainje, 46, spent two years (1993-95) as a Sports Information Assistant at his alma mater, Purdue University, and three years (1995-98) as Assistant Sports Information Director at Southwest Missouri State University (now Missouri State). While at SMS, Hainje's publications won several national awards from the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Born in Lafayette, Ind., Hainje graduated from Logansport (Ind.) High School. He graduated from Purdue in 1992 with a degree in communication. He and his wife Michele have three children, Jack, Grace and Amelia, and reside in Marietta.

Adrienne Midgley • Senior Manager, Media Relations

Adrienne Midgley is in her 13th season with the Braves and her seventh in her current role. She began with the Braves as a public relations trainee in 2004 and was hired full time in December 2005.

Midgley is responsible for coordinating player requests and interviews, and serves as a primary media contact on team road trips. She is a main contributor and editor of the Club's annual media information book and daily game notes. She also assists with coordinating press conferences.

Prior to joining the Braves, she worked for the Los Angeles Dodgers organization in Vero Beach, Fla., where she was the spring training intern and then continued as the administrative assistant with the Single-A Vero Beach Dodgers. Midgley previously worked at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY, in 2003.

Originally from Pittsburgh, Pa., Midgley earned her master's degree in sport administration from Georgia State University, and her bachelor's degree in sports management from Methodist College in Fayetteville, NC, where she was a member of the softball team.

Adrienne and her husband Richard have two daughters, Olivia and Ava, and reside in Buford.

Jonathan Kerber • Senior Coordinator, Media Relations

Jonathan Kerber is in his second season with the Braves, joining the organization in April of 2015 after seven years (2008-2015) with the New York Mets media relations department.

Kerber's main responsibilities include writing and editing the organization's annual media guide and daily pre- and post-game notes package, along with serving as the club liaison for the media on road trips. He also assists with the operation of the press box at Turner Field on game days.

Kerber worked on the national desk of the Associated Press sports department in New York City from 2005-08 before joining the Mets. He began his professional career in 2004 with the Single-A New Jersey Cardinals of the New York-Penn League.

A native of Bloomfield, NJ, Kerber graduated from Muhlenberg College with a degree in history and currently resides in Smyrna.

2016 Braves Media Relations Staff

Jared Burleyson • Media Relations Coordinator

Jared Burleyson is in his fourth season with the Braves and his first as the media relations coordinator. He began with the organization as the publications trainee in 2013, before serving as the media relations trainee in 2014 and the media relations assistant in 2015.

In his role, Burleyson is responsible for all credential requests, contributes to the Club's media guide and daily game notes, handles gameday press box operations and the compilation of post-game notes, and assists with player interviews. He also serves as a team representative during spring training.

Originally from Mt. Pleasant, NC, Burleyson graduated with his bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science from the University of North Carolina in December 2012. While at UNC, he worked in the athletic communications office for two years, serving as a student assistant for all baseball, football and men's basketball games, as well as women's tennis matches. He also served as an operations intern for the Thomasville HiToms of the Coastal Plain League for the 2011 season.

Burleyson, 26, resides in Smyrna.

Media Services

Media Credentials: Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news gathering agencies that have contacted the Media Relations Department at least 24 hours in advance of their assignment. To obtain media credentials, a written request must be made to the Braves' Media Relations Department (P.O. Box 4064, Atlanta, GA 30302) on appropriate letterhead stationery, or online at https://credentials.mlb.com. Please specify the name(s) and function of the individual(s) who will cover the game. Identification will be required before credentials can be distributed. Credentials may be picked up at the Media Window located at the Southwest Gate of Turner Field on Bill Lucas Drive. Both the Media Window and Entrance open 3-1/2 hours prior to the game. Credentials are not issued to anyone under 18 years of age. Any party abusing this policy will forfeit their credential and all privileges.

Media Parking: Parking for the media is available in the Media Lot. The entrance to the Media Lot is located on the corner of Crew Street and Little Street (Little Street is off of Hank Aaron Drive, one block south of Bill Lucas Drive, directly behind the stadium). For further information, please contact a member of the Media Relations Department.

Media Entrance: The Media Entrance to Turner Field is located at the Southwest Gate, on Bill Lucas Drive near Pollard Boulevard. This is the side of the stadium farthest from downtown Atlanta, nearest the expressway. To obtain admittance to the stadium, members of the media must show one of the following: a Major League Baseball Working Pass, BBWAA card or an Atlanta Braves season/daily credential.

Press Box: The Turner Field Press Box is located on the Press Level. A 40-foot walkway leads directly from the Press elevator to the entrance to the Press Box. The Press Box can accommodate 104 individuals. Dining facilities are located in the Press Area. Live shots and still photographs are prohibited from the Press area. Proper credentials are required for admittance.

Clubhouses: Take the Press Elevator to the service level. Walk straight ahead down the corridor, turn left to the main tunnel. The Braves clubhouse entrance is about 150 feet to the right, the Visitors Clubhouse is to the left. Per MLB policy, both clubhouses open 3-1/2 hours prior to game time. Each clubhouse closes to the media when that team takes to the field for batting practice. Following the game, the clubhouses re-open to the media within 10 minutes after the last out. The trainer's room, weight room and players' lounge are closed to the media at all times. Proper credentials must be displayed to access either clubhouse. Still photographers are not permitted in the clubhouse without special permission. The clubhouses are limited to credentialed working media only.

Field: Enter the field via the Field Access corridor off the main tunnel between the Braves and Visitors clubhouses. The field and dugout areas must be cleared one hour prior to first pitch. Pre-game broadcast interviews and live shots must be done on the warning track or in the dugout. Post-game live shots can be done from the warning track after the teams have left the field.

Photo Areas: A limited number of still photographer field level positions is available, subject to team discretion. There are also upper level wells and outfield locations. The Field Access corridor is off the main tunnel between the Braves and Visitors clubhouses. Still photographers are not permitted in the clubhouses without special permission.

Broadcast Booths: Located in the Press Box. There are seven broadcast booths: Booth 1 (Home TV), Booth 2 (Home Radio), Booth 3 (Visiting TV), Booth 4 (Visiting Radio), Booth 5 (Reserved), Booth 6 (Reserved), Booth 7 (Reserved). To obtain use of a reserved booth, please contact Brad Hainje or Beth Marshall in the Public Relations department.

2016 Braves Public Relations Staff

Beth Marshall • Senior Director of Public Relations

Beth Marshall joined the Braves Public Relations Department as a senior advisor in August 2004 and was named senior director of public relations prior to the 2015 season.

Marshall manages all aspects of the Braves corporate communications, primarily focused on the Braves new ballpark, SunTrust Park and the adjoining mixed-use development, The Battery Atlanta. She also oversees media outreach for Braves community affairs and sales and marketing while managing publications and is the liaison between MLB and the Braves broadcasting partners.

Marshall has also worked in public relations for the PBA Tour, WNBA, Planet Hollywood and its sports arm, Official All Star Cafe, Trump Plaza Hotel and Casino and the Philadelphia 76ers. She graduated with a degree in public relations from Harcum College outside of Philadelphia.

A native of Haverford, Pa., Marshall lives in Atlanta with her husband Corey.

Kelly Barnes • Public Relations Manager

Kelly Barnes joined the Braves Public Relations Department as a manager in October 2014.

Barnes oversees off-the-field communications for the Braves, including media outreach for community affairs events, game entertainment, marketing and more. She assists with Braves publications and publicity efforts for SunTrust Park.

Barnes was most recently a Communications Manager for the PGA TOUR, and prior to that worked in communications for the World Golf Hall of Fame.

Barnes graduated from Fairfield University with a degree in marketing and competed on their Division I Varsity Lacrosse team.

A native of Jenkintown, Pa., Barnes now lives in Atlanta.

Andrina "Andy" Pressley • Publications Manager

Andy Pressley is in her 20th season with the Braves and 15th as publications manager. After living in Boston, Mass., for five years, Pressley relocated to Atlanta in 1995 and started out working game day hospitality for the Braves. She was hired full time in 1996 and is currently responsible for a variety of print pieces, including pocket schedules, game day playbills and the Braves souvenir programs. She is also responsible for the team's postseason fan publications.

Originally from Sacramento, Calif., Pressley graduated from UCLA with a bachelor's degree in history. While at UCLA she dove competitively for the Bruins as a member of the women's swimming and diving team.

Pressley and her husband Bob reside in Marietta.

2016 Braves Radio/TV

The Atlanta Braves, FOX Sports South, FOX Sports Southeast, WCNN 680 the Fan, All News 106.7 and the Braves Radio Network will team up in 2016 to bring Braves fans the best and most comprehensive sports broadcasting in Major League Baseball. FOX Sports South and FOX Sports Southeast, the largest regional sports network, reach seven Southeastern states and have broadcast select Braves regular-season and Spring Training games the past 22 seasons. WCNN 680 the Fan and All News 106.7, the Atlanta Braves flag-ship radio rightsholders, will carry all 162 regular-season games and all Spring Training games. The Braves Radio Network includes approximately 150 affiliates across the Southeast, the largest radio affiliate network in all major league sports.

Braves Broadcasters

Jim Powell

The 2015 Major League Baseball season marks Jim Powell's 23rd as a Major League broadcaster and his eighth year in the Atlanta Braves radio booth working alongside Hall of Fame pitcher Don Sutton. Powell spent the previous 13 seasons as a member of the Milwaukee Brewers broadcast team, teaming with another Hall of Famer, Bob Uecker, longer than any other broadcaster.

Powell joined the Brewers in 1996 and was named the 1998 Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year. In addition to his radio duties, he spent time as a member of the Brewers television team during the 1999 and 2000 seasons.

Powell began his Major League broadcasting career with the Minnesota Twins in a reserve role in 1993 and 1994. Prior to this, he accumulated extensive experience at the minor-league level, serving as play-by-play announcer for the Charlotte Knights (1990-91, 1995) and the Columbia Mets (1987-89, 1993-94).

Powell has also worked at the collegiate level, taking on play-by-play duties for the University of South Carolina baseball program in 1989 and 1994, as well as the University of Georgia baseball team in 1985 and 1986.

Before going into baseball full-time, Powell had received national exposure through play-by-play for CBS Radio for several college football games, including the 1997 Sun Bowl. He has also worked on Host Communications telecasts, calling University of South Carolina football action in 2000. He served as the color analyst for the South Carolina football and basketball programs from 1993-95 and hosted the coaches' shows for those two sports on television. Powell also did play-by-play for Davidson College basketball in 1990.

An internship in the newsroom and sports office at WGST-AM while Powell was in high school started his broadcasting career. He then worked at WRFC in Athens while attending the University of Georgia, followed by positions in Columbia, South Carolina, with WOLO-TV and then WVOC radio. In 1991, Powell was hired by WSB-AM to work weekends, where he covered the Braves, Georgia Bulldogs and Atlanta Falcons for two years.

Powell and his wife Emmy have been active members of their community, serving on the Board of Directors for the Child Abuse Prevention Fund for several years. He spends his winters coaching youth basketball and is also an avid tennis player.

A native of Roswell, Ga., Powell attended the University of Georgia as a National Merit Scholar. He and Emmy, also a Georgia native, have three daughters, Allie, who attends the University of Georgia, Sabrina and Julia.

Don Sutton

Hall of Fame pitcher Don Sutton returned to the Braves broadcast team in 2009 after a two-year stint with the Washington Nationals television broadcast team. Sutton previously spent 18 years, beginning in 1989, broadcasting Braves games. He joined Turner Sports as a broadcaster for Braves telecasts on TBS after a stellar playing career that spanned 23 seasons.

He has also served as a course reporter on TBS's professional golf coverage, working the Hawaiian Open, PGA Championship and PGA Grand Slam of Golf, as well as TNT's coverage of the Sarazen World Open Championship.

Sutton's network broadcasting experience included pre- and post-game analysis for NBC's 1987 League Championship series coverage.

His Major League Baseball pitching career was highlighted by 324 wins with the Los Angeles Dodgers, Houston Astros, Milwaukee Brewers and California Angels. Sutton spent 15 seasons with the Dodgers, beginning in 1966. He joined the Astros as a free agent in 1981. Sutton was traded to Milwaukee in August 1982, where he pitched three seasons before being traded to Oakland in December 1984. He was traded to California in September 1985 and retired in January 1988.

One of the most durable pitchers of the modern era, appearing in more than 750 games and completing nearly 180 during his career, Sutton's personal bests included 21 wins (1976), 293 innings pitched (1969), 41 games (1969), 2.21 ERA (1980 - led NL), 40 starts (1974), 217 strikeouts (1969) and 18 complete games (1972), all with the Dodgers.

Sutton ranks seventh on baseball's all-time strikeout list with 3,574. He was 4-1 with a 2.02 ERA in seven League Championship Series games, and 2-3 with a 5.26 ERA in eight World Series games. In the 1974 postseason, he was 3-0 with a 1.50 ERA and 25 strikeouts in four games. He also posted a 1-0 record in four All-Star appearances without allowing a run.

Sutton was elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1998. He was named National League Rookie-of-the-Year by Sporting News in 1966, and was named the Texas League Player-of-the-Year in 1965 at Albuquerque.

Born in Clio, Ala., Don, his wife Mary reside in Sandy Springs. Their daughter Jacqueline is a freshman at the University of Alabama. Don has two other adult children, Daron and Staci.

Tom Glavine • Special Assistant to the President

Former pitching great and 2014 Hall of Fame inductee Tom Glavine opened a new chapter in his baseball career in February 2010, when he was named special assistant to Braves president John Schuerholz. In his role, Glavine assists with various baseball and business projects and occasionally works on special assignments for president of baseball operations John Hart and general manager John Coppolella.

In addition to his baseball operations duties, Glavine serves as an occasional guest for the Braves Radio Network Pre-Game Show, and as a guest analyst for selected games on the Braves Radio Network. He also serves as a guest analyst for Sunday home games televised by Fox Sports South.

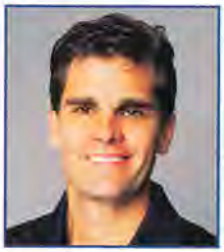
A two-time National League Cy Young Award winner (1991 & 1998) and a 10-time N.L. All-Star, Glavine owns a 305-203 career record and 3.54 ERA in 682 games. He compiled 244 of his victories in a Braves uniform and helped Atlanta to five World Series appearances in the 1990s. He was named the Most Valuable Player of the 1995 World Series, when the Braves defeated the Cleveland Indians.

Selected by the Braves in the second round of the 1984 draft, Glavine made his big-league debut in 1987. A five-time 20-game winner, Glavine joined the 300-win club with a 8-3 victory over the Cubs on August 5, 2007, at Wrigley Field. He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2010.

Glavine and his wife Christine reside in Alpharetta, Ga.,with their daughter, Amber Nicole, and four sons, Jonathan, Peyton Thomas, Mason Riley and Kienan Patrick.

2016 Braves FOX Sports South Broadcasters

Chip Caray



Chip Caray is in his seventh season as the play-by-play announcer for Braves games on FOX Sports South and FOX Sports Southeast. He previously spent five seasons (2005-09) as the play-by-play voice of TBS's Major League Baseball coverage and Braves' broadcasts on Peachtree TV.

Caray served as the play-by-play announcer for seven seasons (1998-2004) for Chicago Cubs games on WGN. The 2004 Illinois Sportscaster of the Year, Caray's baseball resume also includes one season as the radio play-by-play announcer for Minnesota's Orlando (AA) affiliate in 1990, two years (1991-92) broadcasting the Atlanta Braves and three campaigns (1993-95) with the Seattle Mariners.

Caray spent five years (1996-2000) as a member of the Fox Network's Saturday baseball coverage, including three years as a studio host.

He is the third generation of Carays to serve as a play-by-play announcer, after his father Skip and grandfather Harry, who was the play-by-play voice of the Cubs from 1982 to 1997. A member of the Hall of Fame, Harry spent 53 seasons as a major league broadcaster. On May 13, 1991, the three generations of Carays worked together on a Chicago Cubs/Atlanta Braves game.

Chip's broadcast career also includes nine seasons as the television play-by-play voice of the NBA's Orlando Magic and stints calling both University of Florida and Florida State University football and basketball games for the Sunshine Network.

Caray graduated from the University of Georgia in 1987 and began his career with weekend TV sports anchor stints in Panama City, Fla., and Greensboro, NC. He and his wife Susan have four children: Summerlyn, Christopher, Stefan and Tristan.

Joe Simpson

Joe Simpson is in his 25th season as an Atlanta Braves broadcaster. This year marks his 10th season calling games on FOX Sports South and FOX Sports Southeast.

Simpson played professionally for 11 seasons, beginning in 1973 when he was drafted by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the third round. He joined the Seattle Mariners in 1979 before being traded to the Kansas City Royals in 1983. An outfielder and first baseman throughout his professional career, he retired from the California Angels organization following the 1984 season. He had his best season in 1979, when he hit .283 in 120 games for the Mariners.

Simpson worked as an analyst on Seattle Mariners telecasts for five years before joining Turner Sports in 1992. Simpson was named "Georgia Sports Broadcaster of the Year" in 1995.

An All-American outfielder and first baseman at the University of Oklahoma, Simpson was born in Purcell, Oklahoma.

Joe and his wife Kathy live in Marietta, Ga. They have two children, Meg and Gabe.

Rules of Interest

Player Limits: Forty until Opening Day, when the number of players must be reduced to 25 until Sept. 1, when it becomes 40 again.

Determining Batting Average: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

Determining Earned Run Average: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, divide the total by the number of innings pitched.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

Determining Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at-bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

Determining Fielding Average: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

Determining Winning Percentage: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

Determining the Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streaks: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

Qualifying Marks: To qualify for the batting championship, a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average leadership, a pitcher must have at least 162 IP.

Doctored Bat: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be ejected from the game and suspended three days. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

Relief Pitchers' Save Rule: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions; 1) He's the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and 2) he's not the winning pitcher, and 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Major League Service: A full year of service in the Major Leagues is 172 days.

Rookie Rule: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service or on the disabled list.)

Day / Night Game: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a twi-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day game and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

Disabled Lists

15-Day Disabled List: Minimum period of inactivity is fifteen (15) days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-Day Disabled List: The minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

Regulation Game

Regulation Game: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because 1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or 2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

Tie Game: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the league standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

Suspended Game: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: 1) a curfew imposed by law; 2) a time limit permissible under league rules; 3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment); 4) darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under provision 3 or 4 shall be a suspended game at any time after is starts. Since 1980, if weather forces the termination of a legal game while an inning is in process, it will become a suspended game if either of the following two conditions exists: 1) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or 2) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead. If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. If possible, it shall be resumed immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground.

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969. Formerly, the game would have been declared a tie and replayed in its entirety at a later date.

Turner Field Ground Rules

Dugouts: Dugouts are bounded by guard rails and any ball hitting guard rails or netting is IN PLAY. Ball hitting netting on home plate side of either dugout is IN PLAY. Ball hitting facing over either dugout is dead - ONE BASE on pitch and TWO BASES on throw by a fielder. Catch may be made in either dugout.

Backstop: Ball lodging in padding is dead - ONE BASE on pitch and TWO BASES on throw by a fielder.

Canvas on Tarp Drum: Catch may be made on canvas - Ball lodged behind or under canvas is dead. ONE BASE on pitch and TWO BASES on throw by a fielder. Batted ball lodging behind or under canvas - TWO BASES.

Foul Poles: Ball hitting any part of screen area supported by poles down left or right field line - HOME RUN.

Outfield Fence: Batted ball going over yellow line on top of outfield fence - HOME RUN.
